Lyb Love You Baby:

Lyb Nancy Friz Schreiber, 2005-08-01 I have been writing poetry my whole life What was my dream To someday write my own book Well the opportunity arose and I took advantage The poems in this book are all about love and friendship At the end of each poem you will see the letters LYB Those letters are my sign off letters on the computer They stand for Love you baby therefore the title of my first book Poetry comes from within a person Most poetry is written about things close to one's heart My poetry is no different I have been inspired to write by many different things I have experienced throughout my life the friends who have shared their lives with me and the people I have loved This book was inspired by a very special person in my life Without this person I don't think I would have been able to accomplish as much as I did Remember special friends and special relationships create a happy life

Confidence Culture Shani Orgad, Rosalind Gill, 2021-12-06 In Confidence Culture Shani Orgad and Rosalind Gill argue that imperatives directed at women to love your body and believe in yourself imply that psychological blocks rather than entrenched social injustices hold women back Interrogating the prominence of confidence in contemporary discourse about body image workplace relationships motherhood and international development Orgad and Gill draw on Foucault's notion of technologies of self to demonstrate how confidence culture demands of women near constant introspection and vigilance in the service of self improvement They argue that while confidence messaging may feel good it does not address structural and systemic oppression Rather confidence culture suggests that women along with people of color the disabled and other marginalized groups are responsible for their own conditions Rejecting confidence culture's remaking of feminism along individualistic and neoliberal lines Orgad and Gill explore alternative
