In the Shadow of the Springs I Saw Barbara Adair, 2023-02-01 In the Shadow of the Springs I Saw is an exploration and stories of people who live in the Art Deco buildings of Springs It is the imagined lives of those who live in a space that is not theirs historically but one that they have reclaimed This work in times of doom and complaint creates a new narrative one of revival vigour and celebration The writing tries to capture the grain of a place object or conversation as if a swatch were cut from a larger fabric One could trace the use of similar techniques back to the canonical modernist works of James Joyce William Faulkner John Dos Passos William Carlos Williams or to a later experimenter like Burroughs Adair uses these techniques with flair and purpose the book's method is to declare and contradict to present one side and then another keeping both present Ivan Vladislavic     Nadine Gordimer Dominic Head, 1994-11-10 The award to Nadine Gordimer of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1991 was an affirmation of her distinctive contribution to twentieth century fiction and to the creation of a literature that challenges apartheid In this study which may be used as an introduction as well as by those already familiar with Gordimer's work Dominic Head discusses each of her novels in detail paying close attention to the texts both as a reflection of events and situations in the real world and as evidence of her constant rethinking of her craft Head shows how Gordimer's concerns apparent in her earliest novels are developed through increasing stress on the politics of textuality and he pursues the implications of this development to consider how Gordimer's later work contributes to postmodernist fiction and to a recentering of political engagement in an era of uncertainty     Change Your Life in 30 Days Rhonda Britten, 2005-02-01 Rhonda Britten Life Coach on NBC's hit show Starting Over guides readers on a 30 day step by
