The Music and Sound of Experimental Film Holly Rogers (Professor of music), Jeremy Barham, 2017 Holly Rogers is Senior Lecturer in Music at Goldsmiths University of London Book jacket The Avant-Garde Feature Film William E.B. Verrone, 2011-11-08 Here is a critical and historical overview of unconventional and aesthetically challenging films all of feature length The author focuses on the particular forms of contemporary avant garde films which often rely on characteristics associated with historical films of the same genre Included are works by such visionary filmmakers as David Lynch Luis Bunuel Jean Cocteau Jean Luc Godard Guy Maddin and Derek Jarman The first of the two appendices contains a filmography of key avant garde feature films from Haxan Witchcraft Through the Ages 1922 to Maximum Shame 2010 The second appendix offers a brief list of directors who have made significant contributions to films that take alternative approaches to cinematic practice establishing new grounds for analysis and evaluation Ruins and Resilience Karel Doing, 2024-07-23 Experimental film practice from an international and transdisciplinary perspective Karel Doing is an experimental filmmaker and researcher who has worked across the globe with fellow artists and filmmakers creating a body of work that is difficult to pinpoint with a simple catchphrase In Ruins and Resilience he weaves autobiographical elements and critical reviews together with his wide ranging interdisciplinary approach reflecting on his own practice by positioning key works within the context of a vibrant experimental film scene in Europe North and South America and Asia Doing demonstrates how experimental filmmakers have continued to renew their practice despite the almost total demise of analog motion picture film and the constant neglect of this art form by institutions and critics Written in a fluent and accessible style the book looks into the connections between the work of groundbreaking artists within the field and subjects such as transgression improvisation collectivity materiality phenomenology and perception Specifically intersections with music and sound are investigated appealing to the idea of the cross modal brain the ability to perceive sounds and images in an integrated way Instead of looking again at the golden era of experimental film the book starts in the 1980s showing how this art form has never ceased to surprise and inspire The author's hands on engagement with the medium is formational for his more theoretical approach and writing making the book a highly original contribution in the field that is informative and inspiring for academic and practitioners alike Film Programming Peter Bosma, 2015-06-09 This study explores artistic choices in cinema exhibition focusing on film theaters film festivals and film archives and situating film curating issues within an international context Artistic and commercial film availability has increased overwhelmingly as a result of the digitization of the infrastructure of distribution and exhibition The film trade's conventional structures are transforming and in the digital age supply and demand can meet without the intervention of traditional gatekeepers everybody can be a film curator in a passive or active way This volume addresses three kinds of readers those who want to become film curators those who want to research the film curating phenomenon and those critical cinema visitors who seek to investigate the story behind the selection process of available films and the way to present them The ^ASublimity of Document Scott MacDonald, 2019-07-01 The Sublimity of Document Cinema as Diorama is a collection of in depth substantive interviews with filmmakers devoted to documenting places and events that most of us never get to see often places and events that have considerable influence on our lives Towards a Film Theory from Below Jiri Anger, 2024-05-30 Operating between film theory media philosophy archival practice and audiovisual research Jiri Anger focuses on the relationship between figuration and materiality in early films experimental found footage cinema and video essays Would it be possible to do film theory from below through the perspective of moving image objects of their multifarious details and facets however marginal unintentional or aleatory they might be Could we treat scratches stains and shakes in archival footage as speculatively and aesthetically generative features Do these material actors have the capacity to create weird shapes within the figurative image that decenter distort and transform the existing conceptual and methodological frameworks Building on his theoretical as well as practical experience with the recently digitized corpus of the first Czech films created by Jan Kr eneck between 1898 and 1911 the author demonstrates how technological defects and accidents in archival films shape their aesthetic function and our understanding of the materiality of film in the digital age The specific clashes between the figurative and material spheres are understood through the concept of a crack up This term developed by Francis Scott Fitzgerald and theoretically reimaged by Gilles Deleuze allows us to capture the convoluted relationship between figuration and materiality as inherent to the medium of film containing negativity and productivity difference and simultaneity contingency and fate at the same time even within the tiniest cinematic units The Second Century of Cinema Wheeler W. Dixon, 2000-03-02 Contemplates the future of cinema in light of emerging digital technologies and new systems of distribution Experimental Film and Anthropology Arnd Schneider, Caterina Pasqualino, 2020-05-12 Experimental Film and Anthropology urges a new dialogue between two seemingly separate fields The book explores the practical and theoretical challenges arising from experimental film for anthropology and vice versa through a number of contact zones trance emotions and the senses materiality and time non narrative content and montage Experimental film and cinema are understood in this book as broad inclusive categories covering many technical formats and historical traditions to investigate the potential for new common practices An international range of renowned anthropologists film scholars and experimental film makers engage in vibrant discussion and offer important new insights for all students and scholars involved in producing their own films This is indispensable reading for students and scholars in a range of disciplines including anthropology visual anthropology visual culture and film and media studies Silent Cinema Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-04-04 Paolo Cherchi Usai provides a comprehensive introduction to the study research and preservation of silent cinema from its heyday in the early 20th century to its present day flourishing He traces the history of the moving image in its formative years from Edison s and Lumi re s first experiments to the dawn of talkies provides a clear guide to the basics of silent film technology introduces the technical and creative roles involved in its production and presents silent cinema as a performance event rather than a passive viewing experience This new greatly expanded edition takes the reader on a new journey exploring silent cinema in the broader context of technology culture and society from the invention of celluloid film and its related machinery to film studios laboratories theatres and audiences Among the people involved in the creation of a new art form were filmmakers actors and writers but also engineers entrepreneurs and projectionists Their collective efforts and the struggle to preserve their creative work by archives and museums are interwoven in a compelling story covering three centuries of media history from the magic lantern to the reinvention of silent cinema in digital form The new edition also includes comprehensive resource information for the study research preservation and exhibition of silent cinema

Framing Pictures Steven Jacobs,2012-08-27 Steven Jacobs book provides a unique critical intervention into a relatively new area of scholarship the multidisciplinary topic of film and the visual arts Towards a Philosophy of

Cinematography Alexander Nevill,2021-06-01 This book presents three interrelated essays about cinematography which offer a theoretical understanding of the ways that film practitioners orchestrate light in today s post digital context Cinematography is a practice at the heart of film production which traditionally involves the control of light and camera technologies to creatively capture moving imagery During recent years the widespread adoption of digital processes in cinematography has received a good deal of critical attention from practitioners and scholars alike however little specific consideration about evolving lighting practices can be found amongst this discourse Drawing on new materialist ideas actor network theory and the concept of co creativity these essays examine the impact of changing production processes for the role and responsibilities of a cinematographer with a specific focus on lighting Each essay advances a new perspective on the discipline moving from the notion of light as vision to light as material from technology as a tool to technology as a network and from cinematography as an industry to cinematography as a collaborative art New Silent Cinema Katherine

Groo,Paul Flaig,2015-09-16 With the success of Martin Scorsese s Hugo 2011 and Michel Hazanavicius s The Artist 2011 nothing seems more contemporary in recent film than the styles forms and histories of early and silent cinemas This collection considers the latest return to silent film alongside the larger historical field of visual repetitions and affective currents that wind their way through 20th and 21st century visual cultures Contributors bring together several fields of research including early and silent cinema studies experimental and new media historiography and archive theory and studies of media ontology and epistemology Chapters link the methods concerns and concepts of early and silent film studies as they have flourished over the last quarter century to the most recent developments in digital culture from YouTube to 3D recasting this contemporary phenomenon in popular culture and new media against key debates and concepts in silent film scholarship An interview with acclaimed Canadian filmmaker Guy Maddin closes out the collection Touch Laura U.
