Gateways to Globalisation François Gipouloux,2011-01-01 Gateways to Globalisation makes a significant contribution to the understanding of the emerging East Asian regional system of financial centres within the broader global context and how they interact within the global circuits of finance In particular it focuses on the emergence of the financial centres of Tokyo Shanghai Hong Kong and Singapore and the attempts by both national governments and the private sector to position them so that they become more competitive in the global and regional context The volume shows much historical sensitivity showing that while the increase in the importance of these financial centres is principally post 1945 their emergence has been aided by the deep historical roots that go back several centuries The book will be of great value in the interpretation of the role of East Asia in what many commentators have called the Asian Century Terry McGee The University of British Columbia Canada Gateways to Globalisation cogently demonstrates that Hong Kong Singapore Beijing Shanghai and Tokyo operate as gateways to Asia and as linchpins for Asia to the global economy The authors theoretical frameworks and original empirical research support provocative findings that challenge conventional thinking Tokyo may decline as a global city As Beijing and Shanghai ride China s rapid growth they face uncertainty about its future openness to the global economy Vibrant Hong Kong and Singapore confront challenges from other rising centers David Meyer Washington University in St Louis US This book distinguishes itself in its emphasis on historical and cultural links as well as contemporary globalization processes on large East Asian cities Arising from a research program and four seminars the editor has picked scholars who

Politics, Culture And Identities In East Asia: Integration And Division Peng Er Lam, Tai Wei Lim, 2017-09-15 This edited book reflects the yin yang of East Asia the analogy of co existing hot and cold trends in that region To concentrate only on geopolitical competition and regional hot spots will exaggerate if not misrepresent East Asia as a Hobbesian world Nevertheless geopolitical competition cannot be ignored because a failure of the balance of power and deterrence between China and the United States and its allies will destabilise the region There are four vectors in the geopolitics of East Asia China rising the United States rebalancing to this region Japan normalising as a nation state and ASEAN emerging as a regional community The interplay of these four vectors will set the trajectory of geopolitics in East Asia Another focus of this volume is on the politics of identity The distinctiveness character and flavour of a group real or imagined can be cool Cool as in being charming and appealing transcends national boundaries Plurality and diversity of identities and cultures in East Asia can be a celebration of life and humanity However xenophobic identities often based on exclusive race language religion and hegemony and its subsequent politicisation can rend a nation apart Indeed the affirmation of one's identity may be at the expense or denial of the identity of the other Similarly the assertion and the intricacy of identity and nationalism in East Asia can also be problematic However a person or group can have multiple and different scales of identities Indeed identities can be fluid and situational
