The Oxford Handbook of the Jesuits Ines G. Županov, 2019 Through its missionary pedagogical and scientific accomplishments the Society of Jesus known as the Jesuits became one of the first institutions with a truly global reach in practice and intention. The Oxford Handbook of the Jesuits offers a critical assessment of the Order helping to chart new directions for research at a time when there is renewed interest in Jesuit studies. In particular the Handbook examines their resilient dynamism and innovative spirit grounded in Catholic theology and Christian spirituality but also profoundly rooted in society and cultural institutions. It also explores Jesuit contributions to education, the arts, politics and theology among others. The volume is organized in seven major sections totaling forty articles on the Order's foundation and administration, the theological underpinnings of its activities, the Jesuit involvement with secular culture, missiology, the Order's contributions to the arts and sciences, the suppression the Order endured in the 18th century and finally the restoration. The volume also looks at the way the Jesuit Order is changing including becoming more non European and ethnically diverse with its members increasingly interested in engaging society in addition to traditional pastoral duties.

The Making of a Modern Art World Pedith Pui Chan, 2017-03-06 The Making of A Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai's art world. Using guohua as the point of entry this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts. In the light of the sociological definition of art world this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai examining newly adopted modern artistic practices namely art associations, periodicals, art colleges, exhibitions and the art market.
