My Beautiful Memory David Rowan, 2019-01-25 Alexandra Rowan earned a double major degree in creative writing and communications Shortly after her graduation in 2013 she died suddenly and without warning because of her use of hormone based birth control This book is a testament to her life written by her father David My Beautiful Memory examines her life and death and describes the difficult journey that her parents had to undertake following their loss It concludes with an examination of the US drug industry s influence over the regulation of these drugs that kill over one thousand women each year Alexandra was a young woman with a love of many things but her chief passion was writing Latter parts of the book are written in her own words

Man's Imitation of Life and Desire David J. Poplstein, 2012-04-16 The book you are holding in your hands is Part Two of my poetry It revolves around real life events and people I know and love It is also about those I have met and friends I have found along the way Some poems are about domestic abuse Christianity and God some are about love hurt and pain romance I hope you enjoy these poems I have written and that you can relate to what I am saying through them All for the love of Poetry Best wishes David J I am including a very deep poem here It is called A Woman of Strength I need to tell you a story about a woman I know Listen closely to this story as I let it flow Alone in her room in the dark as the tears fall Thinking about her life and how she gave it her all Her mind has been so abused along with her face With the black and blue marks her swollen eyes leaving only a trace The hurt and pain from his hand leaving the scars within The tears fall from her eyes leaving her with nothing How she tries to smile but the pain gets in the way So many times I've tried to tell her not to stay But she stayed anyway thinking everything would be fine Knowing he'd be home soon as she walked that thin line Finally he came home and again she started to shake So scared as you thought how much more can you take He raised his hand to you once again as you hid with fear Wishing so hard it would all stop including the tears Once again alone in your room with your head in your hands As the blood dripped down your face right where you stand This time it went too far as you fell to the floor As you stood up looking at him face to face You told him to go to hell walking out and forever closing the door

In Memory of the Good Old Days Robert Lot King, 2011-04 In Memory of the Good Old Days presents the inspiring memoir of Robert Lot King After his birth in southern Indiana he grew up mostly in rural areas and small towns He was educated in a one room schoolhouse with different grades in different rows He completed his course of study to become a minister at Kentucky Mountain Bible Institute and was ordained in the Church of the Nazarene He spent most of his life as a pastor preaching the gospel His memoir presented in five parts begins with his childhood years in the early forties during World War II From his near death experience at two from pin worm to the memories of his childhood in Indiana he captures the essence of times gone but not forgotten Part two explores the trials and victories of his journey as a preacher in the mountains of eastern Kentucky In part three he recalls leaving the mountains and returning to Indiana with his wife and partner in ministry Finally in parts four and five he explores creation and offers proof of a living God and inspirational messages about the Christian faith In Memory of the Good Old Days offers inspiring messages on faith and hope interspersed with tales of a life well lived
