Muslims have no need to look for fictitious or mythical heroes because their history is abundant with heroes of real flesh and blood whose acts were heroic because of their faith and a consequence of their attitude to life and the world For all the heroes of Islam share two very special traits full conviction and dedication to their pristine faith and constant attempt to seek the Pleasure of their Creator Allah alone regardless of the circumstances and times they live in For a Muslim hero be he a military genius a scholar teacher or a devout common person knows that the transient life in this world is a means to the eternal life in the Hereafter and that ephemeral pains and pleasures are nothing compared to the everlasting pains and pleasures of Hell and Heaven To this hero the key to the whole thing is Divine Pleasure Through it alone can a person enjoy peace and tranquility in this world and attain real happiness in the life Hereafter The Works of William Shakespeare William Shakespeare,1883 Through my eyes Aadithya Shree, Growing up every child was nurtured and loved At the same time they were hurt by the words and actions of their parents Indian parents are one great example for their authoritative parenting methods We are always expected to be the best at everything we do We are often pressurized into doing things that we are not interested in Society always has a say in our life This book is a collection of emotions from children who want to convey a tiny message to their parents A Hero's Homecoming Kate Huntington,2004 A distinguished officer reported missing in action returns home to claim his first love and prove to her that marriage and family will be his greatest triumph Original On Some of Shakespeare's Female Characters Lady Helena Saville Faucit Martin,1888 The Dramatic Works of James Sheridan Knowles ...: The wife.
