Thwaites, Etc* George William MacArthur Reynolds,1863 The Portable Dad Steve Elliott,2009-04-07 For college students twentysomethings and anyone else who keeps Dad on speed dial for car emergencies plumbing woes appliance advice and more Take Dad s know how with you everywhere you go This Dad s got all the answers to all the basics so that you can get it done and move on He knows how to hang unclog patch drill paint mow lube edge weed sand pack and more The Portable Dad is the answer to those panicked late night phone calls how to keep things running how to maintain the stuff you use how to get by without getting in over your head If Dad doesn t know the answer you don t really need to do it Seemings and Justification Chris Tucker,2013-08-09 You believe that there is a book or a computer screen in front of you because it seems visually that way I believe that I ate cereal for breakfast because I seem to remember eating it for breakfast And we believe that torturing for fun is morally wrong and that 2 2 = 4 because those claims seem intuitively obvious In each of these cases it is natural to think that our beliefs are not only based on a seeming but also that they are justifiably based on these seemings at least assuming there is no relevant counterevidence These considerations have prompted many to endorse some version of dogmatism or phenomenal conservatism These views hold that in the absence of defeaters a seeming that P provides justification to believe P The main difference is that dogmatism is restricted to some domain often perception and phenomenal conservatism is intended to apply to all seemings Critics worry that such views run into problems with traditional Bayesianism and that they are too permissive in part because of their implications regarding cognitive penetration The primary aim of this book is to understand how seemings relate to justification and whether some version of dogmatism or phenomenal conservatism can be sustained In addition to addressing each of these issues this volume also addresses a wide range of related topics including intuitions the nature of perceptual content access internalism and the epistemology of testimony and disagreement
