

A woman with long, dark, wavy hair and elegant makeup is seated at a table in a restaurant. She is wearing a white blazer and has her hand resting on her chin, looking thoughtfully to the side. The table is set with a white tablecloth, a floral patterned cup and saucer, a white bowl, and a small vase with greenery. The background is softly blurred, showing other diners and restaurant decor.

wards aren't holding like they used to. More and more vampires are slipping through the cracks like the one that tried to kill me in the woods. He fears there will come a point when even the nightly patrols of his shifter order won't be enough to keep the bloodsuckers imprisoned where they belong. The stakes are high but I never asked for any of this. If you look up hero in the dictionary I guarantee you won't find my picture there. I'm just smart enough to be terrified of my ineptitude being responsible for the end of the human race. Do I really have it in me to be all Merlino? And what does it mean for the world if I don't? I don't want to do this but it doesn't look like I'll have much of a choice. Trigger Warning: My heart goes out to anyone who has ever experienced or been close to a victim of rape. As such I wanted to give advance warning that there is a rape scene in this story and that it might understandably be too much for some to handle. I'd advise against reading this if the subject matter is too difficult to stomach. This is book 2 in the Order of the Bear Series and the books need to be read in order for optimal enjoyment.
