Making Adjustment Work For The Poor A Framework For Policy Reform In Africa:

Making Adjustment Work for the Poor World Bank Publications, 1990      Making Adjustment Work for the Poor World Bank, 1990      Rent-Seeking, Institutions and Reforms in Africa Pius Fischer, 2007-12-03 This book identifies rent seeking behaviour as one of the main causes of poor economic performance observed among other places in many countries of Africa Rent seeking describes the ability to capture incomes without producing output or making a productive contribution Since rent seekers are often an integral part of an ailing economy and resist the adoption of reforms understanding and anticipating rent seeking behaviour is crucial for designing more adequate and effective policy reforms Following a comprehensive theoretical elaboration of the causes properties and consequences of rents and rent seeking strategies in the context of economic reforms and development cooperation this book presents a detailed case study on rent seeking within the civil service parastatal sector and business community It demonstrates how rent seekers in Tanzania have systematically delayed or undermined reforms such as tax reforms trade liberalisation privatisation or any reforms that aim to restrain corruption and embezzlement The case study quantifies and evaluates the rent seeking behaviour of more than 300 parastatal companies considering their profits and losses the quality and timeliness of their accounting and the magnitude of support they obtained from 16 different sources      African Voices on Structural Adjustment Codesria, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 2003 African Voices on Structural Adjustment presents 14 in depth studies on the history and future of structural adjustment in Africa Each study appraises the performance of structural adjustment policies SAPs with respect to a particular sector or issue Each evaluates the compatibility of SAPs with the requirements for long term development in Africa And most importantly each presents a truly African perspective The contributors represent an outstanding collection of leading African economists and development experts This volume is intended as a companion to Our Continent Our Future It will appeal to students professors academics and researchers in development economics and African studies professionals in donor organizations around the world and economic policymakers in both the governmental and non governmental sectors      Rethinking African Development Lual Acuek Lual Deng, 1998      U.S. Economic Policy Toward Africa Jeffrey Ira Herbst, 1992 A summary of American aid policy toward Africa since the Kennedy administration a comparison of U S policies and those of multilateral organizations and a proposal for the best way to help Africans address their continent's economic plight      Development Stuart Corbridge, 2000 Brings together more than one hundred articles dealing with the discipline of development in all its diversity Key topics include the transformation of peasant economies agribusiness rural urban relations markets industrialization workers trade aid and structural adjustment A unique set in its comprehensiveness and diversity it also considers four key challenges for development theory and practice relating to capabilities ethics sustainability and regulation      Structural Adjustment and Socio-economic Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Peter Gibbon, Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1996 This report summarises the results of work at the Nordiska Afrikainstitutet Nordic Africa Institute NAI on the impact of structural adjustment implementation on the economies states and societies of sub Saharan Africa It consists of two essays and an appendix listing research projects which have been are being carried out under the auspices of NAI The first essay raises a series of conceptual and methodological questions in the context of a presentation of some of the main empirical results obtained from extended field work carried out during the course of 1992 and 1993 in Kenya Tanzania and Zimbabwe The second essay presents the three main themes private trading networks and structures the changing political economy of land and popular forms of social provisioning that constitute the core of the second phase of NAI s structural adjustment research and in so doing provides a review of aspects of the adjustment literature This report is therefore an attempt both at stock taking and agenda building as part of a wider quest for deepening our understanding of the structures and processes of socio economic change associated with the crisis and adjustment years in contemporary Africa

Adjustment Finn Tarp,2002-09-11 This book reveals and examines the relevance of the macroeconomic theory and models behind recommendations for stabilization and structural adjustment Alternative analytical approaches are discussed This is done on the basis of an up to date review of developments in sub saharan Africa during the 1980 s and within a common analytical framework

Making Adjustment Work for the Poor Banco Mundial,1990

Human Rights Obligations of the World Bank and the IMF Sigrun Skogly,2012-11-12 This book explores the human rights obligations of two of the largest international financial institutions namely the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund Based on international legal methodology this book addresses these two institutions in public international law and assesses the extent to which international law provides foundations for obligations in the field of human rights This book analyses any possible obligations related to the effect of the two institutions own programmes and projects The core of this analysis is focused on the two institutions international legal personality and addresses their relationship to international law as legal subjects rather than as a collectivity of states with international legal personality Building on the traditional sources of international law such as customary international law general principles of international law and treaty law the book concludes that the two institutions are under an obligation to respect human rights in their operations This implies that they will break their obligations if they make the human rights situation worse as a result of their programmes or projects It also concludes that the World Bank and the IMF are not under obligations to promote or fulfil human rights but that they may legitimately do so if they can do it within their Articles of Agreement the treaties establishing the institutions The book also looks at the practical implications of the obligation to respect which involves both substantial and procedural obligations These obligations will even if limited in their scope imply that the two institutions need to include human rights checks in the planning implementation and evaluation stages of projects and programmes The final part of the book looks at redress possibilities in situations where either of the two institutions may be in breach of their human rights obligations

Implications of Economic Policy for Food Security Anne Margaret Thomson, Manfred Metz, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 1999-01-01 A manual aimed at helping policy analysts improve their understanding of the concept of food security and the problems related to it Food security is defined as having an available stable and accessible food supply for each human being The food system including the production and transformation of food is studied to show the causes of food insecurity how international macro level and agricultural sector policies affect the food system and how national and international policies that could improve food security can be identified

Development as Theory and Practice David Simon, Anders Narman, 2014-09-25 The first book in the DARG series Development as Theory and Practice provides the only student textbook which addresses broad contemporary perspectives and debates on development and development cooperation It introduces the notions of development and what it means from different perspectives i e from the point of view of academics in the wake of the New World Order regional specialists detached from the field Third World students of development and development practitioners The second part of the book focuses on development aid and examines the changing relationship between donors and recipients and the effects of these relationships on the wider communities in these countries and current re evaluations of aid in principle and practice Development as Theory and Practice is an ideal course text for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate courses in development aid as part of degree programmes in Development Studies Geography Politics Sociology and Anthropology It will also be of interest to researchers and development practitioners and professionals

The Countrywide Effects of Aid Howard White, Joke Luttik, 1994

Beyond the Enclave Godfrey Kanyenze, 2011 Beyond the Enclave sets out to unravel the contradiction of a country Zimbabwe where a rich diverse resource base co exists with endemic poverty One reason lies in the colonial economy which was predicated on an ideology of white supremacy creating an enclave formal economy employing one fifth of the labour force Yet over three decades after independence the non formal segment has become even more entrenched This book assesses Zimbabwe s economy through three main phases 1980-0 when a strong social policy framework proved difficult to sustain due to erratic growth and 1991-6 when structural adjustment demanded a market driven approach to development The third phase is characterized by crisis management leading to policy inconsistencies and reversals Not surprisingly such incoherence saw the economy descend into hyperinflation and paralysis in 2007-8 leading to the signing of the Global Political Agreement in September 2008 In the absence of formal dollarization economic recovery after the adoption of the multi currency regime has remained fragile leaving an estimated 70 per cent of the population outside the banking system This has further entrenched uneven enclave growth as the economy remains locked in a low income poverty trap There is a need to facilitate transition towards formality to promote decent jobs Furthermore a strategic developmental role for the state in the economy is now widely recognized as vital for development Beyond the Enclave argues for a new approach to development in Zimbabwe based on pro poor and inclusive strategies which will contribute to the well being of all of its citizens and wise stewardship of its resources It offers suggestions on policy formulation implementation monitoring and evaluation in all sectors designed to promote inclusive growth and humane development
