Making And Unmaking Of A University Museum The Mccord 1921 1996:

The Making and Unmaking of a University Museum Brian J. Young, 2000 In The Making and Unmaking of a University Museum Young elucidates the relationship between museums and communities by examining the nineteenth century social context of the family who bequeathed their collection to McGill University and the collection's fate in an academic institution Tracing the museum's history from its founding by David Ross McCord he emphasizes the centrality of elite women to the culture of the museum and its survival in the twentieth century the museum's importance as the collective memory of Montreal's English speaking elite and the difficulty academic historians have had in dealing with material history

Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec Brian Young, 2014-10-01 History has often ignored the influence in modern Quebec of family dynasties patriarchy seigneurial land and traditional institutions Following the ascent of four generations from two families through eighteenth century New France to the onset of the First World War Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec compares the French Catholic Taschereaus and the Anglican and English speaking McCords Consulting private institutional and legal archives Brian Young studies eight family patriarchs Working as merchants or colonial administrators in the first generation they became seigneurial proprietors officeholders and prelates The heads of both families used marriage arrangements land stewardship and judgeships to position their heirs Young shows how patriarchy was a central force in both domestic and public life as well as the ways in which Taschereau and McCord family strategies extended into the marrow of Quebec society through moral authority influence on national identities and their positions within senior offices in religious judicial and university institutions Through courthouses cemeteries belfries and their own chapels and neoclassical estates they created encompassing cultural landscapes Later generations used museums archives historian collaborators photography and modern print to elevate family achievement to the status of heroic national narratives Sagas of the monied and entrepreneurial nationalist imperatives to protect a vulnerable people and skepticism about the lasting power of great families and historical institutions have relegated the influence of the Taschereaus and McCords to obscurity Patrician Families and the Making of Quebec resuscitates the central role these elite families played in English and French Quebec

First Nations, First Thoughts Annis May Timpson, 2010-01-01 Countless books and articles have traced the impact of colonialism and public policy on Canada's First Nations but few have explored the impact of Aboriginal thought on public discourse and policy development in Canada First Nations First Thoughts brings together Aboriginal and non Aboriginal scholars who cut through the prevailing orthodoxy to reveal Indigenous thinkers and activists as a pervasive presence in diverse political constitutional and cultural debates and arenas including urban spaces historical texts public policy and cultural heritage preservation This innovative thought provoking collection contributes to the decolonization process by encouraging us to imagine a stronger fairer Canada in which Aboriginal self government and expression can be fully realized

Defining the Modern Museum Lianne McTavish, 2013-02-27 Defining the Modern

Museum is a fascinating exploration of the museum as a cultural institution Emphasizing museums relationship to schools libraries and government agencies this interdisciplinary study challenges long standing assumptions about museums revealing their messy uncertain origins and belying the standard narrative of their educational purpose having been corrupted by corporate goals Using theoretical models and extensive archival research Lianne McTavish examines the case of Canada s oldest continuing public museum the New Brunswick Museum in Saint John Focusing on the period between 1842 and the 1950s McTavish addresses topics such as the transnational exchange of objects between museums efforts by women to claim space within the organization the creation of Carnegie libraries and the rising status of curators Shedding light on many topics of current interest especially the commodification and globalization of museums this study makes a lively contribution to museum studies and cultural studies
