Making Do:

Making Do Mardi Reardon-Smith, 2025-10-21 Cape York is a remote and biodiverse peninsula in northeastern Australia that has been inhabited by Aboriginal communities for thousands of years. Since colonization much of the peninsula has been used for large scale cattle farming. It is also a place of global significance as the site of multiple environmentally protected bioregions with ongoing efforts to recognize them as UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Despite the very human role in shaping the landscape of Cape York the region remains widely thought of as a wilderness to be conserved and protected. In this context what counts as natural and native matters crucially as does who gets to decide how species and people are categorized and accordingly how they are controlled. Based on long term field research with Aboriginal traditional owners settler descended cattle herders and park rangers Making Do investigates complex ways in which people form maintain and transform relationships to changing environments. How do we know the places in which we live and how do we care for them among the ruptures created by forces like climate change settler colonialism and structural inequalities. To address these questions Mardi Reardon Smith traces issues such as the history of land tenure changes the identification and control of weeds and feral pigs and wildfires and Aboriginal cultural burning. Mardi Reardon Smith argues that caring for land a sprawling messy and sometimes violent process is not just about repair restoration or maintenance rather it is about bringing into being workable landscapes livable worlds and possible futures.

Making Do Johnny Becker, 2016-06-19 Making Do is a memoir spanning the first 26 years of Johnny Becker's life. His parents had narrowly escaped the chaos of World War I and the Russian Revolution making their way to the relative safety of Harbin China where Johnny was born in 1922. His memories begin a few years after arriving in Long Island NY. Johnny takes us through the depression days high school adventures and athletic achievements. World War II was a call to arms and in 1943 Johnny eagerly joined the Eighth Air Force before being shipped to England. After an intense four months and three missions over Germany including a crash landing his crew was shipped back to the states. Several months later Johnny returned to civilian life and after working various jobs in NYC moved to Savannah Georgia to begin his career in the Army and Navy Store business. Making Do captures Johnny's philosophy of life that is to make the most of what one has regardless of one's material circumstances.

Making Do Denyse Baillargeon, Yvonne Klein, 2014-05-27 Annotation Interviews Montreal francophone women who were already married at the beginning of the 1930s to reveal their strategies for coping with poverty. Their recollections shed light on the impact of the economic crisis on women's household duties during the Depression and give insight on their lives and the living conditions of the working class.

Masks, Misinformation, and Making Do Wendy Welch, 2023-01-24 The firsthand pandemic experiences of rural health care providers who were already burdened when COVID 19 hit raise questions about the future of public health and health care delivery. This volume comprises the COVID 19 pandemic experiences of Appalachian health care workers including frontline providers administrators and educators. The combined narrative reveals how governmental and corporate policies exacerbated the region's injustices stymied response efforts and increased the death toll Beginning with an overview of the SARS CoV 2 virus and its impact on the body the essays in the book's first section provide background material and contextualize the subsequent explosion of telemedicine the pandemic's impact on medical education and its relationship to systemic racism and related disparities in mental health treatment Next first person narratives from diverse perspectives recount the pandemic's layered stresses including the scramble for ventilators masks and other personal protective equipment the neighbors friends and family members who flouted public health mandates convinced that COVID 19 was a hoax the added burden the virus leveled on patients whose health was already compromised by cancer diabetes or addiction the acute ways the pandemic's arrival exacerbated interpersonal and systemic racism that Black and other health care workers of color bear not only the battle against the virus but also the growing suspicion and even physical abuse from patients convinced that doctors and nurses were trying to kill them These visceral personal experiences of how Appalachian health care workers responded to the pandemic amid the nation's deeply polarized political discourse will shape the historical record of this unprecedented time and provide a glimpse into the future of rural medicine Contributors Lucas Aidukaitis Clay Anderson Tammy Bannister Alli Delp Lynn Elliott Monika Holbein Laura Hungerford Nikki King Brittany Landore Jeffrey J LeBoeuf Sojourner Nightingale Beth O Connor Rakesh Patel Mildred E Perreault Melanie B Richards Tara Smith Kathy Osborne Still Darla Timbo Kathy Hsu Wibberly Making Do and Hanging On Bruce L. Foxworthy, 2008-10 No place in America escaped the impacts of the Great Depression from 1929 to 1939 Even the quiet orchard filled Entiat Valley of the author's boyhood suffered its cruel effects Making Do and Hanging On Growing Up in Apple Country Through the Great Depression presents the author's recollections during those mean years memories of local conditions and events and of his family's coping with seemingly endless setbacks in its struggles upward These memoirs sometimes stark sometimes poignant sometimes touched with humor call up thought provoking parallels to modern events

Working Hard and Making Do Margaret K. Nelson, Joan Smith, 1999-05-24 The economic recovery of the 1990s brought with it a surge of new jobs but the prospects for most working Americans improved little Family income rose only slightly and the period witnessed a significant degradation of the quality of work as well as in what people could expect from their waged employment In this book Margaret K Nelson and Joan Smith take a look inside the households of working class Americans to consider how they are coping with large scale structural changes in the economy specifically how the downgrading of jobs has affected survival strategies gender dynamics and political attitudes Drawing on both randomly distributed telephone surveys and in depth interviews Nelson and Smith explore the differences in the survival strategies of two groups of working class households in a rural county those in which at least one family member has been able to hold on to good work a year round full time job that carries benefits and those in which nobody has been able to secure or retain steady employment They find that households with good jobs are able to effectively use all of their labor power they rely on two workers they engage in on the side businesses and they barter with friends and neighbors In contrast those living in families without at least one good job find themselves considerably less capable of deploying a complex multi faceted survival strategy The authors further demonstrate that this difference between the two sets of households is accompanied by differences in the gender division of labor within the household and the manner in which individuals make sense of and respond to their employment

Making Do in Damascus Sally K. Gallagher,2012-10-10 Drawing on fieldwork that spans nearly twenty years Making Do in Damascus offers a rare portrayal of ordinary family life in Damascus Syria It explores how women draw on cultural ideals around gender religion and family to negotiate a sense of collective and personal identity Emphasizing the ability of women to manage family relationships creatively within mostly conservative Sunni Muslim households Gallagher highlights how personal and material resources shape women s choices and constraints concerning education choice of marriage partner employment childrearing relationships with kin and the uses and risks of new information technologies Gallagher argues that taking a nuanced approach toward analyzing women s identity and authority in society allows us to think beyond dichotomies of Damascene women either as oppressed by class and patriarchy or as completely autonomous agents of their own lives Tracing ordinary women s experiences and ideals across decades of social and economic change Making Do in Damascus highlights the salience of collective identity place and connection within families as well as resources and regional politics in shaping a generation of families in Damascus

Making Choices, Making Do Lois Rita Helmbold,2022-10-14 Making Choices Making Do is a comparative study of Black and white working class women s survival strategies during the Great Depression Based on analysis of employment histories and Depression era interviews of 1 340 women in Chicago Cleveland Philadelphia and South Bend and letters from domestic workers Lois Helmbold discovered that Black women lost work more rapidly and in greater proportions The benefits that white women accrued because of structural racism meant they avoided the utter destitution that more commonly swallowed their Black peers When let go from a job a white woman was more successful in securing a less desirable job while Black women especially older Black women were pushed out of the labor force entirely Helmbold found that working class women practiced the same strategies but institutionalized racism in employment housing and relief assured that Black women worked harder but fared worse Making Choices Making Do strives to fill the gap in the labor history of women both Black and white The book will challenge the limits of segregated histories and encourage more comparative analyses

Making Do: Innovation in Kenya's Informal Economy , How Do You Know If You Are Making a Difference? Sarah Morton,Ailsa Cook,2022-11-02 Why is it hard to know if you are making a difference in public services What can you do about it Public services throughout the world face the challenge of tackling complex issues where multiple factors influence change This book sets out practical and theoretically robust tried and tested approaches to understanding and tracking change that any organisation can use to ensure it makes a difference to the people it cares about With case studies from health community research international development and social care this book shows that with the right tools and techniques public services can track their contribution to social change and become more efficient and effective

Just Making Do Dia Webb, 2021-09-13 In 1943 a close friendship develops between two families in wartime North Devon one renting a small terraced house in Barnstaple and the other living on a rented smallholding in the country While they have to cope with illness rationing and evacuees American troops arrive to carry out military manoeuvres on the magnificent beaches and a mysterious tenant comes to live at a secluded cottage on the Fortescue Estate Why does he shun all contact Make Do and Mend was the wartime slogan put out to the nation in World War 2 and this book tells how the two families with determination kindness and humour find different ways of Just Making Do

Done Making Do Ooi Kee Beng, 2013 The past five years have held tremendous significance for the process of nation building in Malaysia Civil society and voters especially in urban areas are making new and strong demands on the government in fact on governance per se the opposition parties that managed to pull off successful electoral upsets in 2008 have formed a viable coalition to challenge the long term federal government and the federal government itself has been trying to adopt a reformist image without alienating its numerous conservative supporters Although the government's slogan of 1Malaysia was meant to signify national unity it lacked credibility because many of the systemic deficiencies of sustained one party 1Party rule still remained This collection of articles studies various aspects of change now pushed into the foreground for discussion

Making Leisure Work Brian Lonsway, 2013-09-13 Contemporary architecture of theme based design is examined in this book leading to a new understanding of architecture's role in the increasingly diversified consumer environment It explores the Experience Economy to reveal how everyday environments strategically and opportunistically blur our leisure work and personal life experiences Considering scientific design research consumer psychology and Hollywood story telling techniques the book looks at how the design of theme parks casinos and shopping malls has influenced our more unexpectedly themed spaces from the city to the hospital Widely taking architecture as a social practice this text is of relevance to all cultural and sociological studies in the built and material environment

Players Making Decisions Zack Hiwiller, 2015-12-09 Game designers today are expected to have an arsenal of multi disciplinary skills at their disposal in the fields of art and design computer programming psychology economics composition education mythology and the list goes on How do you distill a vast universe down to a few salient points Players Making Decisions brings together the wide range of topics that are most often taught in modern game design courses and focuses on the core concepts that will be useful for students for years to come A common theme to many of these concepts is the art and craft of creating games in which players are engaged by making meaningful decisions It is the decision to move right or left to pass versus shoot or to develop one's own strategy that makes the game enjoyable to the player As a game designer you are never entirely certain of who your audience will be but you can enter their world and offer a state of focus and concentration on a task that is intrinsically rewarding This detailed and easy to follow guide to game design is for both digital and analog game designers alike and some of its features include A clear introduction to the discipline of game design how game development teams work and the game development process Full details on prototyping and playtesting from paper prototypes to intellectual property protection issues A detailed discussion of cognitive biases and human decision making as it pertains to games Thorough coverage of key game elements with practical discussions of game mechanics dynamics and aesthetics Practical coverage of using simulation tools to decode the magic of game balance A full section on the game design business and how to create a sustainable lifestyle within it

Reports of the Heads of Departments of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ... Pennsylvania, 1867 Citizens in the Making Through a Program of Pupil Activity Walter L. Collins, 1928 Pottering Anna McGovern, 2023-02-16 This little book is both a discussion and practical guide to one of the most British of pastimes pottering Author Anna McGovern writes with charm about the joy and practicality of living in the meandering moment not asking too much of yourself and yet still getting things done in the gentlest of ways This is the book for people who want to discover productivity at an easier pace and above all the contentment you achieve when accepting that you can only do what you can do Pottering is a true ode to slow living and an antidote to the stresses of modern life Bulletin , 1903 The Meaning of "Make Disciples" in the Broader Context of the Gospel of Matthew Lindsay D. Arthur, 2022-05-09 Students of the Bible are generally comfortable with their understanding of the command make disciples Matt 28 19 Indeed most of them would argue that the Gospel writer Matthew spells out very clearly the meaning of the term in the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 by utilizing three key words viz go ing baptizing and teaching This point of view is the result of centuries of scholarly opinion that has looked primarily if not solely to these three adjacent participles of make disciples Matt 28 19 and not to the entire Gospel of Matthew for the meaning of the command This book does not suggest that going baptizing and teaching are not to be considered in determining the essence of Christian disciple making Rather it contends that the three terms should not be our only source of meaning This problem is tackled herein by demonstrating that Matthew establishes a framework within the Great Commission itself that points to a fuller meaning of make disciples in the broader context of his Gospel and that the Gospel writer expects his reader to draw on his entire Gospel to grasp the full meaning of this important command Analog Robert Hassan, 2023-01-03 Why surrounded by screens and smart devices we feel a deep connection to the analog vinyl records fountain pens Kodak film and other nondigital tools We re surrounded by screens our music comes in the form of digital files we tap words into a notes app Why do we still crave the realness of analog seeking out vinyl records fountain pens cameras with film In this volume in the MIT Press Essential Knowledge series Robert Hassan explores our deep connection to analog technology Our analog urge he explains is about what we ve lost from our technological past something that s not there in our digital present We re nostalgic for what we remember indistinctly as somehow more real more human Surveying some of the major developments of analog technology Hassan shows us what s been lost with the digital Along the way he discusses the appeal of the 2011 silent black and white Oscar winning film The Artist the revival of the non e book book the early mechanical clocks that enforced prayer and worship times and the programmable loom He describes the effect of the typewriter on Nietzsche's productivity the pivotal invention of the telegraph and the popularity of the first televisions despite their iffy picture quality The transition to digital is marked by the downgrading of human participation in the human technology relationship We have unwittingly unmoored ourselves Hassan warns from the anchors of analog technology and the natural world Our analog nostalgia is for those ancient aspects of who and what we are
