Making Economic Connections:

Making Global and Local Connections Tapio Bergholm, Lewis R. Fischer, M. Elisabetta Tonizzi, International Maritime Economic History Association, 2007 This book provides a series of case studies concerning ports and port communities from around the world in attempt to determine the impact of globalisation on the port industry and the link between local and global port conditions It also presents the case for the absolute necessity of ports and port systems to trade and industry on a global scale The book is comprised of ten essays the first six of which concern local issues in a rapid globalising industry The second section contains the remaining four essays which consider port systems from national perspectives Making Economic Connections Larry W. (Larry Wayne) Smith, 2002 Creating a New World Economy Gerald Epstein, 2009-01-30 Twenty five economists set out the challenges posed by a global economy Creating Economic Space for Social Innovation Alex Nicholls, Rafael Ziegler, 2019-12-12 This book draws upon economic and sociological theory to provide a comprehensive discussion of economic space for social innovation addressing especially marginalized groups and the long term projects programmes and policies that have emerged and evolved within and across European states It approaches the explanatory and normative questions raised by this topic via a novel approach the Extended Social Grid Model ESGM Taking inspiration from the fields of economic sociology and ethics this model shows that social innovation processes must be structural and require change in power relations if marginalization is to be effectively dealt with via social innovation Part I of the book sets out the ESGM including an exposition on the model along with background chapters on innovation power and marginalization ethics and social innovation and empirical methods Part II explores the model with a focus on social innovation trajectories of social housing drinking water provision employment education and food provision It also explores the operationalization of the model with a view to agency and empowerment as well as social innovation policy in Europe and the use of social impact bonds as a tool for financing social innovation Part III revisits the ESGM and considers the explanatory adequacy and fruitfulness of the model for innovation research and for theorizing social innovation addressing questions on the role and limitations of participation in social innovation for the marginalized the role of capital for creating economic space for capabilities and how we can approach the social impact of social innovation This collection of essays presents a diverse range of perspectives on understanding and addressing the key issue of marginalization and offers key recommendations for policy makers engaging with social innovation across the European Union and beyond Overseas Economic Relations and Statehood in Europe, 1860s-1970s Gerold Krozewski, 2023-04-06 Drawing on official archival and published sources this book explores how the formative history of the European nation state was embedded within economic globalization and associated with conceptions of the world overseas With a particular focus on France Germany Italy and Britain this research investigates how overseas relationships shaped state governance The argument departs from conventional histories by linking together the analysis of economic relationships and political cultures examining the ways in which state agency formed in different areas such as national economy building the organization of overseas raw material and food supplies labour migration and national identity Spanning over a century the book discusses the changing role of overseas colonies in European national development Once a means to complete economic liberalization colonies were then envisaged as tools of crisis management before in the mid twentieth century complementarities in imperial colonial economies shifted away from empire This volume covers neglected aspects of the transnational history of European nation states and is an ideal resource for students and researchers interested in the ties between Europe Africa and Asia as well as connections between political economic and social relations and their conceptualizations

American National Security and Economic Relations with Canada, 1945-1954 Lawrence R. Aronsen, 1997-08-30 Aronsen draws on recently declassified documents in Ottawa and Washington to provide a reassessment of Canada's special relationship with the U S Toward this end detailed new information is provided about Canada's contribution to the creation of the postwar economic order from the Bretton Woods Agreement to GATT Canada's cooperation was rewarded by special economic concessions including the extension of the Hyde Park agreement in 1945 the inclusion of the off shore purchases clause to the Marshall Plan and Article II of the NATO Treaty After the outbreak of the Korean War Canada's resources played a crucial role in the production of weapons systems for the new air atomic strategic doctrine Several policies were adopted to facilitate the expansion of Canadian defense production notably the relaxation of regulations on technology transfer the encouragement of private sector investment and the negotiation of long term contracts at above market prices In the midst of these unprecedented peacetime developments Time Magazine observed that Canada had become America's Indispensable Ally

The Impact of Governments on East-West Economic Relations Steven Elliott-Gowerd, 2016-07-27 In this volume the perceptive reader will find many clues to the future of the Soviet Union Eastern Europe East West economic relations and the impact of governments in this area The authors are aware of the mistakes of the past the limitations of centralized planning the dangers and the futility of confrontation and the global significance of the new roles that governments must play in the transitional period of political and economic reform in the East

International Economic Relations since 1945 Catherine R. Schenk, 2011-03-01 The international economy since 1945 has endured dramatic changes in its balance of power from the early period of prosperity for industrialised nations to the 2008-9 global crisis In this volume Catherine Schenk outlines these huge changes examines how the world's economic leaders have tried to organise and influence the international economy and presents the key frameworks in which international economic relations have developed Focusing on the pattern of international trade international investment and the changing organisation of the international monetary system this volume takes a chronological approach of key time frames and shows how policy has impacted the balance of the international economy Major events such as European integration in the 1960 s the collapse of the international monetary system and oil crisis in the 1970 s the return of China to the international economy in the 1980 s and emerging market crises in the 1990s are discussed within the context of key themes including global economic and regulatory co ordination the role of American economic hegemony the evolution of exchange rate policy and unequal development International Economic Relations since 1945 is the perfect guide for all students of economic history and international history and for those seeking to understand recent economic trends in a longer term perspective

Governance at Work : The Social Regulation of Economic Relations Richard Whitley,Peer Hull Kristensen,1997-06-26 Global pressures present similar challenges to companies in different countries but how those organizations deal with them depends on the social and institutional framework in which they develop and operate In this book leading academics explore and explain variations in governance systems focusing in particular on European trends In Governance at Work The Social Regulation of Economic Relations the authors ask Are structures of work and business organization changing Are we seeing a move away from large scale Fordist mass production systems that have dominated the industrialized world in the 20th century What are the local national determinants of business organization Can we speak of different national business systems if so how do these interact with the operations of international companies in global competition

International Relations Theory and Regional Transformation T. V. Paul,2012-02-23 Regional transformation has emerged as a major topic of research during the past few decades much of it seeking to understand how a region changes into a zone of conflict or cooperation and how and why some regions remain in perpetual conflict Although the leading theoretical paradigms of international relations have something to say about regional order a comprehensive treatment of this subject is missing from the literature This book suggests that cross paradigmatic engagement on regional orders can be valuable if it can generate theoretically innovative testable propositions and policy relevant ideas The book brings together scholars from the dominant IR perspectives aiming to explain the regional order issue through multidimensional and multi causal pathways and seeking meeting points between them Using insights from IR theory the contributors offer policy relevant ideas which may benefit conflict ridden regions of the world

Report of the Japan-United States Economic Relations Group Japan-United States Economic Relations Group,1981 Interpreting U.S.-China-Taiwan Relations Xiabing Li,Xiabo Hu,Yang Zhong,2003-02-27 Interpreting U S China Taiwan Relations presents an up to date multidisciplinary approach to this often troublesome relationship through essays written by experts in the fields of political science economics military science history and communications It begins with a focus on the relationship between the U S and China as China presses forward with new development while the United States encourages a balance of power in East Asia It evaluates the successes and failures of the relationship and the forces behind the stands that they take that feed the stress of the relationship The second group of essays deals with the relationship between China and Taiwan They examine the recent changes and tentativeness surrounding the situation caused by the death of Deng Xiaoping and the social and economic problems of China yet communicate a tremendous optimism that a breakthrough will occur in the future The final essays explore the evolution of China's perceptions of its international environment as it begins to understand and respond to external circumstances better and more positively

The Making of National Economic Forecasts Lawrence Robert Klein, 2009-01-01 In this valuable volume Nobel Prize winner Klein gathers together a group of authors who focus on forecasting models for a number of economies The variety of the models and the structural differences among them are especially interesting Readers interested in forecasting methodologies will find much of value in this volume Highly recommended I Walter Choice This important book prepared under the direction of Nobel Laureate Lawrence R Klein shows how economic forecasts are made It explains how modern developments in information technology have made it possible to forecast frequently at least monthly but also weekly or bi weekly depending upon the perceived needs of potential forecast users and also on the availability of updated material The book focuses on forecasts in a diverse range of economies including the United States China India Russia Germany Japan South Korea and Turkey At a time of great economic uncertainty this book makes an important contribution by showing how new information technology can be used to prepare national economic forecasts

Monitoring the State or the Market Vito Tanzi, 2023-12-21 Many economists argue that economic analysis should avoid the distributional consequences of policies In democratic countries however the political power of individuals inevitably reflects their wealth and income You cannot have a democracy when income and wealth distributions are greatly uneven Monitoring the State or the Market explains that absolute income equality is not consistent with a market economy yet neither is large inequality This study provides a broad survey of major social and economic developments over the past two centuries beginning with the Industrial Revolution and laissez faire and ending with neoliberalism and market fundamentalism It explains how each of these periods initially brought moderation and accompanying benefits showing that some countries such as those in Scandinavia have demonstrated that it is possible to have low Gini coefficients low inequality while preserving economic freedom and prosperity
