

A romantic scene featuring the silhouettes of a man and a woman kissing on a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow that reflects on the water. The couple is positioned in the center-right of the frame, with the man's arms around the woman. The overall mood is intimate and serene.

The real lover is the man who can thrill you by kissing your forehead or smiling into your eyes or just staring into space.

Rogers to Hemans Rossiter Johnson,1876 The Passion of Infinity Daniel Greenspan,2008-11-03 The Passion of Infinity generates a historical narrative surrounding the concept of the irrational as a threat which rational culture has made a series of attempts to understand and relieve It begins with a reading of Sophocles Oedipus as the paradigmatic figure of a reason that having transgressed its mortal limit becomes catastrophically reversed It then moves through Aristotle s ethics psychology and theory of tragedy which redefine reason's collapses in moral psychological rather than religious terms. By changing the way in which the irrational is conceived and the nature of its relation to reason, Aristotle eliminates the concept of an irrationality which reason cannot in principle dissolve. The book culminates in an extensive reading of Kierkegaard's pseudonyms who in a critical retrieval of both Greek tragedy and Aristotle prescribe their apparently pathological age a paradoxical task: develop a finite form of subjectivity willing to undergo an unthinkable thought, allow the transcendence of a god to enter into the mind as well as the marrow to make a tragic appearance in which a limit to the immanence of human reason can again be established.

The poetical works of Lord Byron George Gordon Byron, 1851 Romantic Poetry Clarence Edward Andrews, Milton Oswin Percival, 1924 Reshaping Theory in Contemporary Social Work William Borden, 2009-11-05 William Borden's persuasive collection of original essays reaffirms the place of theory in social work practice, showing how different theoretical models, therapeutic languages and modes of intervention strengthen eclectic and integrative approaches to psychosocial intervention. A distinguished group of scholars and practitioners examine emerging developments in cognitive theory, psychodynamic thought, resilience research and family therapy, psychobiography and narrative perspectives and conceptions of place and environment in psychosocial intervention. They introduce integrative frameworks for intervention and examine a series of crucial issues in the field, including the role of theory in evidence-based practice, the development of practice wisdom and the ways in which conceptions of love, acceptance and social justice influence theorizing and practice. The contributors to this volume, each one carefully selected, reaffirm the framing perspectives and core values of the social work profession and identify fundamental challenges and tasks in developing theory and practice. Exploring contemporary yet no less essential concerns, they reflect the richness and creativity of theorizing in our time.

Maximus Confessor Saint Maximus (Confessor), 1985 This volume includes a translation of four spiritual treatises of Maximus the Confessor c. 580-662 plus an account of his trial. Included are The Four Hundred Chapters of Love, Commentary on the Lord's Prayer, Chapters on Knowledge, The Church's Mystagogy and Trial of Maximus.

Destiny's Temptress Janelle Taylor, 2011-10-24 Soul-stirring romance and sweeping passion make the award-winning historical novels of Janelle Taylor unforgettable. And her bestselling tradition continues in Destiny's Temptress as a beautiful Union spy discovers hidden desire in a rebel soldier's forbidden embrace.
