Making Of Modern France The Politics Ideology And Culture:

Modern France Malcolm Cook, Grace Davie, 1999 Modern France is an up to date and accessible introduction to the nature of French society at the end of the twentieth century The book examines the transition of France and French life as the nation moves from an industrial to a post industrial economy and the cultural and social dislocations that such an evolution implies Sociological concepts and categories of class race gender age and region are discussed as well as how they combine together to produce inequalities and identities These concepts are then applied to a range of issues such as work politics education health religion and leisure Modern France reveals the nature of French society at a critical moment in her evolution and how a member of the European Union reflects distinctiveness and commonality in the development of Europe as a whole

The Cambridge Companion to Modern French Culture Nicholas Hewitt, 2003-09-11 France entered the twentieth century as a powerful European and colonial nation In the course of the century her role changed dramatically in the first fifty years two World Wars and economic decline removed its status as a world power whilst the immediate post war era was marked by wars of independence in its colonies Yet at the same time in the second half of the century France entered a period of unprecedented growth and social transformation Throughout the century and into the new millennium France retained its former international reputation as a centre for cultural excellence and innovation and its culture together with that of the Francophone world reflected the increased richness and diversity of the period This Companion explores this vibrant culture and includes chapters on history language literature thought theatre architecture visual culture film and music and discuss the contributions of popular culture Francophone culture minorities and women

The Making of Modern France Emmanuel Todd, 1991-01 An investigation into the state of French society which argues that between 1980 and 1990 France underwent a revolution comparable in force to the Revolution of 1789 and with consequences of a depth equal to those of industrialization
