The Making of the South African Past Christopher C. Saunders, 1988 Over the past one hundred years a body of historical knowledge and writing has been built up which has sought to explain and describe the unique configuration of South African Society In the historical evolution of this society prominence and sometimes primacy have been variously accorded to the concepts of race and class This survey of the lives and works of the major historians of South Africa G M Theal W M Macmillan C W de Kiewiet Leonard Thompson Shula Marks and others examines the ways in which the South African past has been recreated and interpreted anew Contents Introduction 1 PART I 3 G M THEAL 1 A Canadian becomes South African 9 2 The making of a settler historian 18 3 Race and Class 30 4 Racial myths and Theal s legacy 36 PART 2 3 W M MACMILLAN AND C W DE KIEWIET 5 Macmillan the South African years and after 47 6 The revisionist historian 62 7 De Kiewiet from Johannesburg to America 76 8 The master historian 81 9 Race class and liberal history 95 PART 3 3 AMATEURS AND PROFESSIONALS 10 Early Africanist work 105 11 Walker and other historians of the 1930s and 1940s 12 Historians of the 1940s and 1950s 121 13 Early radical writing 131 PART 4 3 THE LIBERAL AFRICANISTS 14 The beginnings of liberal Africanism 143 15 The Oxford History 154 PART 5 3 THE RADICAL CHALLENGE 16 The challenge begins 165 17 Class and race structure and process 177 18 Changing perspectives 186 Conclusion 192 References 198 Select bibliography 219 Index 235 R

Colonial South Africa: Origins Racial Order Tim Keegan, 1997-01-01 It is a story that is strong in notable events slave emancipation the arrival of the 1820 British settlers a series of frontier wars the Great Trek of Boer emigrants as well as in striking personalities among them Dr John Philip Andries Stockenström John Fairbairn Moshoeshe and Sir Harry Smith In Keegan s pages these familiar historical landmarks and characters emerge in entirely novel ways the subject of fresh interpretations and original insights

The Evolution of the South African System of Innovation since 1916 Mario Scerri, 2009-05-27 In this book Mario Scerri provides the reader with a novel and sweeping rendition of South Africa s economic history from the early part of the twentieth century to the present He applies a broad innovation systems approach to this history spanning the period from 1916 which saw the drafting of South Africa s first Science and Technology plan to the first fourteen years of the post apartheid period The introduction of the book lays out the scope of the work and its focus on the identification of continuities and ruptures in the economic history of South Africa The first part of the book deals with the theoretical foundations of the approach The first chapter in this section looks at the emergence of evolutionary economics and innovation systems theory as the basis for the main countervailing argument against the neoclassical neoliberal orthodoxy In the course of this chapter the foundation is laid for the development of an alternative general theory of economics The second chapter covers the main debates on the economic history of South Africa and looks at the several varieties of the liberal and Marxist renditions of this history The theoretical section lays the foundation for the history that is covered in the four chapters which follow These cover three broad periods since 1916 The first runs up to 1948 with the election victory of the National Party The second covers the apartheid period and the last follows with an account of the post apartheid political economy An endnote provides the basis for the analysis of what may possibly be the emergence of a fourth main period in the evolution of the South African system of innovation The Evolution of the South African System of Innovation since 1916 opens up a novel engagement with the complex phenomenon of apartheid its genealogy and its aftermath It will appeal to economists and economic historians who are interested in the economy of South Africa It will be of particular interest to evolutionary economists who use the systems of innovation approach as an alternative to mainstream neoclassical economics in the analysis of dynamic economic systems For this particular audience this book will provide a welcome addition to the growing body of literature in this area especially given the novelty of its historical approach

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

History from South Africa Joshua Brown, 1991 More starkly than any other contemporary social conflict the crisis in South Africa highlights the complexities and conflicts in race gender class and nation These original articles most of which were written by South African authors are from a special issue of the Radical History Review published in Spring 1990 that mapped the development of interpretations of the South African past that depart radically from the official history The articles range from the politics of black movements in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to studies of film television and theater as reflections of modern social conflict History from South Africa is presented in two main sections discussions of the historiography of South Africa from the viewpoint of those rewriting it with a radical outlook and investigations into popular history and popular culture the production and reception of history in the public realm In addition two photo essays dramatize this history visually maps and a chronology complete the presentation The book provides a fresh look at major issues in South African social and labor history and popular culture and focuses on the role of historians in creating and interacting with a popular movement of resistance and social change

History beyond apartheid Thula Simpson, 2023-04-18 This edited volume encompasses a range of themes and approaches relevant to the field of South African history today as viewed from the perspective of practicing historians at the cutting edge of research in the discipline The collection features the historians offering critical reflection on the theoretical and methodological aspects of their work This involves them both looking back at the inherited historiographical tradition in the respective areas of their research while also pointing forwards to possible future directions for scholarly engagement

Routledge Library Editions: Education Mini-Set H History of Education 24 vol set Various, 2021-07-14 Mini set H History of Education re issues 24 volumes which span a century of publishing 1900 1995 The volumes cover Education in Ancient Rome Irish education in the 19th century schools in Victorian Britain changing patterns in higher education secondary education in post war Britain education and the British colonial experience and the history of educational theory and reform The Imperial Curriculum J. Mangan, 2012-05-04 This volume presents the first comparative analysis of racial attitudes in the formal schooling of both Britain and its former dominions and colonies The various contributions examine the issue right across the British imperial experience with case studies ranging from Canada Ireland East and South Africa through the Indian subcontinent to Australia and New Zealand Racial indoctrination is considered from the perspective of both colonizer and colonized The central theme throughout is that a racial hierarchy was taught through both curriculum and text in schools throughout the former British Empire Cape Radicals Crain Soudien, 2019-06-01 The history of a radical group of intellectuals who founded the New Era Fellowship which shaped human rights precedents and social justice policy in South Africa In 1937 a group of young Capetonians socialist intellectuals from the Workers Party of South Africa embarked on a project they called the New Era Fellowship NEF In doing so they sought to disrupt and challenge not only prevailing political narratives but the very premises class and race on which they were based In different forums public debates lectures study circles and cultural events the seeds of radical thinking were planted nurtured and brought to full flower Taking a position of non collaboration and non racialism the NEF played a vital role in challenging society s responses to events ranging from the problem of taking up arms during the Second World War for an empire intent on stripping people of colour of their human rights to the Hertzog Bills which foreshadowed apartheid in all its ruthless effectiveness In subsequent narratives of liberation their significance has been overlooked even disparaged and has never been fully understood and acknowledged By shining a contemporary light on the NEF and locating its contribution in current sociological and political discourse educationist Crain Soudien shows how its members were at the forefront of redefining the debate about social difference in a racially divided society

Historian Hermann Giliomee, 2018-01-04 In this eloquent memoir already widely read and praised in the author s native South Africa Hermann Giliomee weaves together the story of his own life with that of his country a nation that continues to absorb and inspire him both despite and because of its tortuous history An internationally respected historian his landmark The Afrikaners writes J M Coetzee includes an account of the origins and demise of apartheid that must rank as the most sober objective and comprehensive we have Giliomee has devoted a lifetime to exploring the origins and perpetuation of the deep divisions in South African society Although he grew up in the heart of the Afrikaner nationalist movement he soon began to cut his own path in examining the rise and entrenchment of exclusive Afrikaner power and became one of the National Party s chief critics As an outside insider or to his critics a snake in the grass Giliomee has an understanding of Afrikaner power that is informed and nuanced He has engaged with members on all sides of South Africa s debates many of whom appear in these pages through vivid and insightful portraits and his outspokenness has hit nerves across the political spectrum The personal journey of this original and courageous thinker will appeal to anyone interested in the complexities of South Africa s past and present Reconsiderations in Southern African History What is Slavery to Me? Pumla Dineo

Gqola,2010-04-01 A study of slave memory in South Africa using feminist postcolonial and memory studies Much has been made about South Africa s transition from histories of colonialism slavery and apartheid Memory features prominently in the country s reckoning with its pasts While there has been an outpouring of academic essays anthologies and other full length texts which study this transition most have focused on the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC What is slavery to me is the first full length study of slave memory in the South African context and examines the relevance and effects of slave memory for contemporary negotiations of South African gendered and racialised identities It draws from feminist postcolonial and memory studies and is therefore interdisciplinary in approach It reads memory as one way of processing this past and interprets a variety of cultural literary and filmic texts to ascertain the particular experiences in relation to slave pasts being fashioned processed and disseminated Much of the material surveyed across disciplines attributes to memory or popular history making a dialogue between past and present whilst ascribing sense to both the eras and their relationship In this sense then memory is active entailing a personal relationship with the past which acts as mediator of reality on a day to day basis The projects studies various negotiations of raced and gendered identities in creative and other public spaces in contemporary South Africa by being particularly attentive to the encoding of consciousness about the country s slave past This book extends memory studies in South Africa provokes new lines of inquiry and develops new frameworks through which to think about slavery and memory in South Africa

Switzerland and South Africa 1948-1994 Georg Kreis,2007 While other states imposed economic sanctions on the apartheid regime of South Africa Swiss authorities long adhered to the position that South Africa is a state like any other Swiss big business corporations saw an attractive trade partner in South Africa in part they also profited from the boycotts of others Additionally some political forces sympathised openly with the regime in Pretoria Encouraged by the debate concerning Swiss policy and activity during the Second World War in 1997 the order was given to initiate a historical study of Swiss behaviour towards the apartheid regime Thus this report commissioned by the Swiss parliament and the Federal Council and passed over to the Swiss National Science Foundation for execution came into being It unites the results of ten different research projects The report identifies the most important players involved in fashioning relations with South Africa it explains the legal situation in which these persons acted and it describes the thought processes that led to the actions The longest chapter deals with the attitudes and the areas of activity in the economic sector Here the trade with loans gold diamonds and war materials is paramount Other chapters are concerned with questions that are not primarily economic in nature such as political declarations the illusion of being in the role of a mediator contacts in sports and culture and after 1986 the beginning of support for the black majority

Hannah Arendt and the Uses of History Richard H. King,Dan Stone,2008-09 Hannah Arendt first argued the continuities between the age of European imperialism and the age of fascism in Europe in The Origins of Totalitarianism This text uses Arendt s insights as a starting point for further investigations into the ways in which race imperialism slavery and genocide are linked The Biographical Turn Hans Renders, Binne de Haan, Jonne Harmsma, 2016-09-13 The Biographical Turn showcases the latest research through which the field of biography is being explored. Fifteen leading scholars in the field present the biographical perspective as a scholarly research methodology investigating the consequences of this bottom up approach and illuminating its value for different disciplines. While biography has been on the rise in academia since the 1980s, this volume highlights the theoretical implications of the biographical turn that is changing the humanities. Chapters cover subjects such as gender, religion, race, new media, and microhistory, presenting biography as a research methodology suited not only for historians but also for explorations in areas including literature studies, sociology, economics, and politics. By emphasizing agency, the use of primary sources, and the critical analysis of context and historiography, this book demonstrates how biography can function as a scholarly methodology for a wide range of topics and fields of research. International in scope, The Biographical Turn emphasizes that the individual can have a lasting impact on the past and that lives that are now forgotten can be as important for the historical narrative as the biographies of kings and presidents. It is a valuable resource for all students of biography, history, and historical theory.

Understanding the British Empire Ronald Hyam, 2010-05-20 Understanding the British Empire draws on a lifetime's research and reflection on the history of the British Empire by one of the senior figures in the field. Essays cover six key themes: the geopolitical and economic dynamics of empire, religion and ethics, imperial bureaucracy, the contribution of political leaders, the significance of sexuality, and the shaping of imperial historiography. A major new introductory chapter draws together the wider framework of Dr Hyam's studies, and several new chapters focus on lesser known figures. Other chapters are revised versions of earlier papers reflecting some of the debates and controversies raised by the author's work, including the issue of sexual exploitation, the European intrusion into Africa, including the African response to missionaries, trusteeship, and Winston Churchill's imperial attitudes. Combining traditional archival research with newer forms of cultural exploration, this is an unusually wide ranging approach to key aspects of empire.

The Locus of Care Peregrine Horden, Richard Smith, 2013-01-11 The care of the needy and the sick is delivered by various groups including immediate family, the wider community, religious organisations, and the State-funded institutions. The Locus of Care provides an historical perspective on welfare, detailing who carers were in the past, where care was provided, and how far the boundary between family and state or informal and organised institutions has changed over time. Eleven international contributors provide a wide ranging examination of themes such as child care, mental health, and provision for the elderly, and question the idea that there has been a recent evolutionary shift from informal provision to institutional care. Chapters on Europe and England use case studies and link evidence from ancient and medieval periods to contemporary problems, and the recent past, whilst studies on China and South Africa look to the future of welfare throughout the world. By placing welfare in its historical, social, cultural, and demographic contexts, Locus of Care reassesses community and institutional care and the future expectations of welfare provision.

Predicaments of Knowledge Suren Pillay, 2024-09-01 Predicaments of Knowledge explores the difficult questions South African universities face after apartheid Is there a difference between Africanising a university and decolonising a university What about differences between deracialising and decolonising the curricula taught at universities across disciplines Through a range of reflections on race language colonial postcolonial and decolonial knowledge projects from Africa and Latin America this book explores the pitfalls and possibilities that face a post apartheid generation inventing the future of knowledge The distinctions between Africanisation decolonisation and deracialisation are often conflated in the political demands put to universities Suren Pillay emphasises all three as important but distinct imperatives If an intervention is undertaken with the aim of decolonising the university while actually addressing deracialisation it can undermine the effort to decolonise Similarly if an initiative to Africanise the university does not address decolonisation both processes can be undermined Drawing on more than two and a half decades of the author's participation in these debates these essays aim to intervene in and elucidate questions and predicaments rather than offering blue prints they are dialogical in spirit even when polemical in tone In conversation with existing continental African and Latin American experiences they offer incisive reflections on current South African debates
