Making Of:

The Jaws Book I.Q. Hunter, Matthew Melia, 2020-09-17 After 45 years Steven Spielberg's Jaws remains the definitive summer blockbuster a cultural phenomenon with a fierce and dedicated fan base The Jaws Book New Perspectives on the Classic Summer Blockbuster is an exciting illustrated collection of new critical essays that offers the first detailed and comprehensive overview of the film's significant place in cinema history Bringing together established and young scholars the book includes contributions from leading international writers on popular cinema including Murray Pomerance Peter Krmer Sheldon Hall Nigel Morris and Linda Ruth Williams and covers such diverse topics as the film's release reception and canonicity its representation of masculinity and children the use of landscape and the ocean its status as a western sequel and fan edits and its galvanizing impact on the horror film action movie and contemporary Hollywood itself Making

Gardens of Their Own: Advice for Women, 1550-1750 Jennifer Munroe, 2016-12-05 During the period 1500-1750 a general shift in gardening practice took place from which emerged three distinct types of gardens traditional subsistence or kitchen gardens aesthetic gardens and gendered aesthetic gardens The gardening and husbandry manuals published during the period typified by the texts selected for this volume reveal how and what one planted was related to one's role in society These texts attest to the changing nature of gardening from a largely subsistence endeavour to an artful practice that became defined in gendered terms The texts reproduced have been divided into two parts gardening books for the country housewife and gardening books for ladies The Making of Criminal Justice Policy Sue Hobbs, Christopher

Hamerton, 2014-10-24 This new textbook will provide students of criminology with a better understanding of criminal justice policy and in doing so offers a framework for analysing the social economic and political processes that shape its creation The book adopts a policy oriented approach to criminal justice connecting the study of criminology to the wider study of British government public administration and politics Throughout the book the focus is on key debates and competing perspectives on how policy decisions are made Recognising that contemporary criminal justice policymakers operate in a highly politicised public arena under the gaze of an ever increasing variety of groups organisations and individuals who have a stake in a particular policy issue the book explores how and why these people seek to influence policymaking It also recognises that criminal policy differs from other areas of public policy as policy decisions affect the liberty and freedoms of citizens Throughout key ideas and debates are linked to wider sociology criminology and social policy theory Key features include a foreword by Tim Newburn leading criminologist and author of Criminology 2nd Edition 2013 a critical and informed analysis of the concepts ideas and institutional practices that shape criminal justice policy making an exploration of the relationship between criminal justice and wider social policy a critical analysis of the debate about how and why behaviour becomes defined as requiring a criminal justice solution a range of case studies tasks seminar questions and suggested further readings to keep the student engaged This text is perfect for students taking modules in criminology criminal justice and social and public policy as well as those taking courses on criminal and administrative law Making Sense of Death
