Making Of Christian Malta:

The Making of Christian Malta Anthony Luttrell, 2017-09-29 This title was first published in 2002 Dr Luttrell's work has helped change our understanding of the history of the small islands of Malta and Gozo providing a more coherent story of the ways in which during the Middle Ages a small isolated Muslim community was converted into a more prosperous outpost of Roman Christianity with a unique cultural mixture of Arabic speech and European institutions This selection of studies places the process within the context of developments in the medieval Mediterranean world and combines archaeological and architectural investigations with work in Maltese Sicilian and other archives with a particular focus on ecclesiastical matters a new introduction brings the subject up to date This work is of relevance to scholars of Islam and Christianity while providing insights into the nature of an unusual island community whose significance far exceeds its size

The Agency of the Conquered Eric Böhme, 2025-09-08 Eric Böhme analyses two processes of conquest which are generally considered prime examples of the expansion of Latin Christian powers into the Islamicate Mediterranean The Norman conquest of Sicily 1061 1091 put a close to more than two hundred years of Muslim rule over the island Two centuries later the Catalan Aragonese conquest of eastern al Andalus c 1229 1245 and its transformation into the Kingdom of Valencia constituted a major advance in the Christian expansion on the Iberian Peninsula The striking parallels between both changes of rulership are now analysed in depth for the first time At the centre of the analysis is the perspective of the conquered Muslim communities With what motivation and strategies did they participate in processes of interaction and negotiation with the new rulers and other immigrant groups

Money, Markets and Trade in Late Medieval Europe Lawrin Armstrong, Martin M. Elbl, Ivana Elbl, Lawrin David Armstrong, 2007 The volume explores late medieval market mechanisms and associated institutional fiscal and monetary organizational decision making legal and ethical issues as well as selected aspects of production consumption and market integration The essays span a variety of local regional and long distance markets and networks Franks, Muslims and Oriental Christians in the Latin Levant Benjamin Z. Kedar, 2024-10-28 Steven Runciman characterized intellectual life in the Frankish Levant as disappointing Joshua Prawer claimed that the Franks refused to open up to the East's intellectual achievements The present collection the second by Benjamin Kedar in the Variorum series presents facts that require a modification of these still largely prevailing views The earliest laws of the Kingdom of Jerusalem were influenced by Byzantine legislation medical routine in the Jerusalem Hospital unparalleled in Europe had counterparts in Oriental hospitals worshippers of different creeds repeatedly converged multi directional conversion recurred time after time Several articles deal with groups that did abstain from intercultural contacts Muslim villagers Frankish clerics and hermits One article dwells on the asymmetry of Frankish and Muslim mutual perceptions The volume concludes with studies of specific locations one argues that Acre was considerably larger than hitherto assumed another compares its Venetian and Genoese quarters and attempts to locate the remains of a main street a third reconstructs

the history of Caymont The Military Orders Volume III Victor Mallia-Milanes, 2017-07-05 In the last twenty years there has been an explosion of scholarly interest in the Military Orders With a history stretching from the early twelfth century to the present day they were among the richest and most powerful orders of the church in medieval Europe They founded their own states in Prussia and on the Mediterranean islands of Rhodes and Malta They are of concern to historians of the Church art and architecture government agriculture estate management banking medicine and warfare and of the expansion of Europe overseas The conferences on their history which have been organized in London every four years have attracted leading scholars from all over the world The present volume records the proceedings of the Third Conference in 2000 and is essential reading for those interested in the progress of research on these extraordinary institutions Of the thirty papers published in this collection two deal with the orders in general while eighteen concentrate on the Hospital of St John six on the Temple and three on the Teutonic Order together with another on the Order of the Sword Brothers which it absorbed The preponderance of works on the Hospitallers is perhaps a particular characteristic of this volume but the fact that most of the papers relate to provincial life rather than to the headquarters in the east Prussia or Malta accurately reflects modern concerns as do the contributions on historiography the papacy cultural history and religious life Examples of new research interests are the paper on bioarchaeology and the two on liturgy The Heritage of Arabo-Islamic Learning Maurice A. Pomerantz, Aram Shahin, 2015-10-14 The Arabo Islamic heritage of the Islam is among the richest most diverse and longest lasting literary traditions in the world Born from a culture and religion that valued teaching Arabo Islamic learning spread from the seventh century and has had a lasting impact until the present In The Heritage of Arabo Islamic Learning leading scholars around the world present twenty five studies explore diverse areas of Arabo Islamic heritage in honor of a renowned scholar and teacher Dr Wadad A Kadi Prof Emerita University of Chicago The volume includes contributions in three main areas History Institutions and the Use of Documentary Sources Religion Law and Islamic Thought Language Literature and Heritage which reflect Prof Kadi s contributions to the field Contributors Sean W Anthony Ramzi Baalbaki Jonathan A C Brown Fred M Donner Mohammad Fadel Kenneth Garden Sebastian G nther Li Guo Heinz Halm Paul L Heck Nadia Jami Jeremy Johns Maher Jarrar Marion Holmes Katz Scott C Lucas Angelika Neuwirth Bilal Orfali Wen chin Ouyang Judith Pfeiffer Maurice A Pomerantz Ri w n al Sayyid Aram A Shahin Jens Scheiner John O Voll Stefan Wild The European Union , The Winged Lion and the Eight-Pointed Cross Victor Mallia-Milanes, 2023-09-12 The papers reprinted in this volume focus on the extraordinary and multifaceted relationship between two Christian States the Republic of Venice and the Island Order State on Hospitaller Malta between 1530 and the late 1790s It was marked by three distinct phenomena military cooperation along with other Western allies against the Ottoman Empire direct mutual confrontation at times even leading to war and commercial cooperation A fourth phenomenon this time involving the wider Mediterranean context within which the two interacted concerns the idea of decline Some of the papers that follow question the validity of the traditional view that the Mediterranean and Venice were in decline by the sixteenth century and that the Hospitaller Order claimed to be in decline by the eighteenth had given up Malta to the French as a result This book will appeal to all those interested in Crusading Orders and the history of the Crusades as well as the history of Venice Malta and the Mediterranean in the early modern period

Paulus Mark Gatt,2024-06-20 This book narrating the discovery of an ancient lead anchor stock embossed with the names of the Egyptian gods Isis and Sarapi s in the seabed off Salina Bay on a Sunday morning in April 2005 is also the story of the search for the real site of St Paul s shipwreck in Malta In the process the author surprises us with a novelistic but accurate account of the storm shipwreck and landing of St Paul in Malta as set out in chapters 27 and 28 of the Acts of the Apostles But Mark Gatt s own investigations on the site of the Apostle Paul s shipwreck is also his own quest for the spiritual message of salvation in St Paul s life and teaching embodied in the real anchor of Christ Jesus Paul Guillaumier Biblical scholar

The Hospitallers, the Mediterranean and Europe Nikolas Jaspert,2016-03-09 Modern study of the Hospitallers of other military religious orders and of their activities both in the Mediterranean and in Europe has been deeply influenced by the work of Anthony Luttrell To mark his 75th birthday in October 2007 twenty three colleagues from ten different countries have contributed to this volume The first section focuses on the crusading period in the Holy Land considering the Hospital in Jerusalem relations with the Assassins finances indulgences transportation and the careers of the brothers and knights The second and third sections move to the later Middle Ages when the Hospitallers had their centre on Rhodes and military and charitable activities in the East had to be supported with men and money from the West The papers in the second section consider the Hospitallers on Rhodes relations between Rhodes and the West and plans for crusades while the third section includes papers on the Hospitallers in the Iberian Peninsula and in Hungary the territorial administration of the Order of Montesa in Valencia a plan to transfer the headquarters of the Teutonic Order from Prussia to Frisia and a Hospitaller reconsideration of warfare and learning on the eve of the council of Trent The final paper proposes new definitions and guidelines for future work on the military religious orders The authors include both well known experts and younger scholars who promise to follow in the footsteps of Anthony Luttrell and to continue research into the Hospitallers and their fellow orders these peculiar European communities avant la lettre The Military Orders: History and heritage Malcolm Barber, Victor Mallia-Milanes, Helen J. Nicholson, 2008-01-01 The thirty papers published here record the proceedings of the Third International Conference on the Military Orders The principal focus on this occasion was the Hospital of St John but the Templars Teutonic Knights and other military orders are dealt with too Many of the papers relate to provincial life along with contributions on historiography the papacy cultural history and religious life Muslims of Medieval Italy Alex Metcalfe, 2014-03-11 A general historical introduction to the Muslims of Medieval Italy which presents specific information regarding social religious administrative political cultural artistic and intellectual questions Studies in the Origins of Early Islamic Culture and Tradition Michael Cook, 2022-04-19 In contrast to the gradual formation of the high cultures of most of the world the process by which Islamic civilisation emerged and took on its classical form between the 7th and 9th centuries was unusually sudden The studies collected here are concerned with aspects of this remarkable development Their topics are varied including the emergence of dialectical theology the origins of accounts of Pharaonic history current in medieval Egypt the sources of Muslim dietary law the Islamic background of Karaism and Max Weber's views on Islamic sects Other articles look at early Syrian eschatology and its connections with late antiquity and Byzantium at the relevance of eschatology to debates about the dating of traditions and at the attitudes of the early traditionists to the writing down of tradition The final items examine reports about the textual affiliations of a long lost Koranic codex and discussions of adultery among the baboons of Yemen A recurring theme is the relationship between Early Muslim ideas and those of non Muslim cultures sometimes very ancient ones Arabic Administration in Norman Sicily Jeremy Johns, 2002-10-07 In the late eleventh century Sicily originally part of the Islamic world was captured by Norman French and Italian adventurers led by Roger de Hauteville For the next 150 years Roger and his descendants ruled the island and its predominantly Arabic speaking Muslim population Jeremy Johns 2002 book represents a comprehensive account of the Arabic administration of Norman Sicily While it has generally been assumed that the Normans simply inherited their Arabic administration from the Muslim governors of the island the author uses the unique Sicilian Arabic documents to demonstrate that the Norman kings restructured their administration on the model of the contemporary administration of Fatimid Egypt Controversially he also suggests that in doing so their intention was not administrative efficiency but the projection of their royal image This is a compelling and accessible account of the Norman rulers and how they related to their counterparts in the Muslim Mediterranean
