Making Of Education Policy In South Africa:

Implementing Education Policies Jonathan D. Jansen, Yusuf Sayed, 2001 For the first time in South Africa a critical dialogue has been recorded between government policy makers and academic researchers on the subject of education policy and practice Implementing education policies attends to problems politics and possibilities of implementing the policy goals of the first post apartheid government established in 1994 The value of this book lies in several insider accounts of the policy process told through the voices of the legislators politicians and bureaucrats concerned with steering national value commitments through the education system Running parallel to these practitioner accounts lie a number of critical analyses of the technical capabilities and political designs that explain the trajectory of education reform in the 1990s The dialogue brings together in a developing country context different experiences and analyses of one of the most intractable problems facing all national education systems the persistent gap between policy ideals and practical realities This volume is essential reading for all academics and students of education at higher education institutions as well as teachers researchers and policy makers

The Making of Education Policy in South Africa Kenneth Brown Hartshorne, 1999 This book is a history of the state's role in education in South Africa up to the 1990s concentrating on the bureaucratic machinery of the 1980s It demonstrates the persistence of the legacy of apartheid and the challenges facing a non racial education system

The Changing Landscape of Education in Africa David Johnson, 2008-05-12 It is over 40 years since Coombs 1967 first drew attention to the World Education Crisis and specifically problems in the educational systems of countries in the developing world Today many of these problems remain and are most visible in the educational systems of countries in sub Saharan Africa A large number of children remain out of school and for those who do enrol less than half complete the primary education cycle More worrying is the fact that those who do complete primary schooling leave with unacceptably low levels of knowledge and skills The problems of access to education and the quality of learning opportunities and learning outcomes are unevenly spread between rural and urban areas better and worse off constituencies and between boys and girls This raises questions about the nature of the state and its commitment to equality and equity for all The chapters in this volume argue that quality equity and democratic accountability are inseparable objectives in the quest to strengthen and improve educational systems in the developing world Between them they highlight the specific problems of quality equity and democratic accountability in a number of African educational systems and provide useful insights into ongoing work by national governments and international donor agencies to remedy these shortcomings

Strategic Environmental Assessment for Policies Kulsum Ahmed, Ernesto Sanchez-Triana, 2008-04-30 Environmentally and socially sustainable policies are essential for good governance Strategic Environmental Assessment SEA is the key tool for integrating environmental considerations into policies programs and plans This book focuses on SEA applied to policies Through lessons learned from previous use of SEA on policies it draws lessons on the strengths and weaknesses of current SEA methodology

It then goes on to analyze how policies are formulated and implemented and proposes a new conceptual framework for conducting SEA of policies that potentially could be more useful in influencing decision makers to integrate environmental sustainability considerations into policy formulation and implementation

The Global Politics of Educational Borrowing and Lending Gita Steiner-Khamsi, 2004-10-14 The globalization of educational policy has become a popular if not ubiquitous phenomenon among educational policymakers across the world. It has led many observers to conclude that educational systems in different parts of the world are converging towards one international neo liberal model of school reform. This practice of borrowing and lending school reforms requires a serious examination of the politics and the economics of transnational educational transfer. In this volume Steiner Khamsi and her colleagues provide an in depth empirical and critical examination of the practice of global educational policy. Contributors question the value of importing and exporting educational policies, analyze who benefits from these arrangements and test the effectiveness of adapting one country's policies in other often quite culturally distinct countries. The book investigates how global policies have been implemented locally and examines the extent to which they work in diverse locales. Steiner Khamsi and her colleagues also examine the role and practices of non governmental organizations, NGOs, multilateral organizations and the World Bank in fostering how educational policies are disseminated and adapted across national and cultural boundaries

Handbook on Globalization and Higher Education Roger King, Simon Marginson, Rajani Naidoo, 2011 The Handbook constitutes an essential reference source for everyone interested in studying the current meaning, scope and implications of globalization. Strongly recommended. Higher Education Review. Higher education has entered centre stage in the context of the knowledge economy and has been deployed in the search for economic competitiveness and social development. Against this backdrop, this highly illuminating Handbook explores worldwide convergences and divergences in national higher education systems resulting from increased global co operation and competition. The expert contributors reveal the strategies, practices and governance mechanisms developed by international and regional organizations, national governments and by higher education institutions themselves. They analyse local responses to dominant global templates of higher education and the consequences for knowledge generation, social equity, economic development and the public good. This comprehensive and accessible Handbook will prove an invaluable reference tool for researchers, academics and students with an interest in higher education from economics, international studies and public policy perspectives as well as for higher education policymakers and funding and governance bodies

Shaping the Future of South Africa's Youth Helene Perold, Nico Cloete, Joy Papier, 2012 Why solving ongoing problems with the NQF National Qualifications Framework matters. The challenges unemployment imposes on youth. The challenge of youth to work transitions: an international perspective. A statistical overview of further education and training colleges. Strengthening the capacity of FET Colleges to meet the needs of young people. Higher education and an expanded post school educational system. Trends in training in South Africa. Key issues in the assessment of South Africa's national skills development strategy Opening the doors of learning Viewing the post school education and training landscape from a youth perspective Global Education Policy and International Development Antoni Verger, Hulya K. Altinyelken, Mario Novelli, 2013-03-28 Exploring the interplay between globalization education and international development this book surveys the impact of global education policies on local policy in developing countries With chapters written by leading international scholars drawing on a full range of theoretical perspectives and offering a diverse selection of case studies from Africa Asia and South America this book considers such topics as How are global education agendas and policies formed and implemented What is the impact of such policy priorities as public private partnerships child centred pedagogies and school based management What are the effects of political and economic globalization on educational reform and change How do mediating institutions affect the translation of global policies to particular educational contexts What are the limitations of globalised policy solutions and what problems do they encounter at local levels From students of education development and globalization to practitioners working in developing contexts this book is an important resource for those seeking to understand how global forces and local realities meet to shape education policy in the developing world Teacher policy development guide UNESCO, 2019-10-07 Cross-nationally Comparative, Evidence-based Educational Policymaking and Reform Alexander W. Wiseman, Petrina M. Davidson, 2018-06-29 In this volume scholars and policymakers examine how large scale assessments and quantitative data are used to inform policy making at all levels of education worldwide and how data can be used to better understand specific national and regional educational challenges Handbook on Teachers' Work Nina Bascia, Rhiannon M. Maton, 2025-09-30 The Handbook on Teachers Work brings together research and evidence based authoritative writings from across the globe that explicitly theorizes and studies teachers work Drawing on research from twelve countries across 6 continents the chapters are grouped into themes that represent key issues related to work from global perspectives including The Political and Policy Contexts of Teachers Work Teaching as an Occupation Diverse Teacher Identities and Roles Teaching as Collective and Relational Work and Teaching and Activism The volume explores the idea of teaching as an occupation with a history and trajectory that are shaped by political economies historical progressions organizational structures social relations among educators students and others teachers career and labor patterns their professional norms and raced gendered classed and culturally linked expectations of teachers and about public schooling This essential handbook will be of interest to teacher educators policymakers and students and researchers in the fields of teachers work curriculum theory educational policy and politics foundations of education multicultural education and teacher education Progress in Education R. Nata, 2002 This series presents substantial results from around the globe in selected areas of educational research The field of education is consistently on the top of priority lists of every country in the world yet few educators are aware of the progress elsewhere Many techniques programs and methods are directly applicable across borders This series attempts to shed light on successes wherever they may occur in the hope that many wheels need not be reinvented again and again Handbook of Education Policy Gerard A. Postiglione, Christopher J. Johnstone, Wesley R. Teter, 2023-01-20 This insightful Handbook is an essential guide to educational policy around the world As shifting geopolitics intensified climate change and widening economic inequalities persist the need for informed educational policy is critical Research of Vs Research for Education Policy Richard Desjardins, 2009-02-01 As national governments reform their educational systems to meet the challenges of living in a globalised world the agenda setting power of transnational organizations like the OECD and the EU have become more transparent in the last decade The phenomenon of globalization has a number of implications for education policy making processes and not least it has had an impact on who conducts policy studies and how This book brings together a variety of contributions which explore recent political economic changes affecting education policy making processes including the ascension of neo liberalism and the transnationalization of education policy making as well as the tension between research of policy and research for policy Working from different perspectives the authors help to provide a better understanding of these two important sets of issues which the field of education must contend with today

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa s leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90 10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people s future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI

Transitioning Education in Africa Gia Cromer, 2023-08-08 Transitioning Education in Africa External Education Providers Emergencies and Authoritarian Structures explores how transitions from education in emergency to post conflict education systems are planned and managed at the national level Currently education for refugees is largely accomplished in emergency or crisis situations by external education providers EEPs in authoritarian contexts Using historical analysis of education policies appreciative inquiry surveys and semi structured interviews Gia Cromer argues that despite historic and current international community stated goals of increasing government capability to provide education neither EEPs nor refugee hosting countries have made these changes especially at the national level This book provides insights on both historical norms toward Africa and authoritarian organizational philosophies and structures that could be contributing to this failure to successfully transition procedures to provide education It also provides one of the few analyses of the problems in education provision for displaced people asylees and refugees specific to eleven countries in Africa The analysis concludes with education policy recommendations for national level education administrators to philosophically and practically decolonize education for the self determination of future education structures in Africa

Understanding Education Policy Tiffany Jones, 2013-02-26 Analysis of education policy often follows a particular orientation such as conservative or neo liberal Yet readers are often left to wonder the true meaning and conceptual framing behind these orientations Without this knowledge the policy analysis lacks true rigor its value is diminished as the results may prove difficult to reproduce Understanding Education Policy provides an overarching framework of four key orientations that lie beneath much policy analysis yet are rarely used with accuracy conservative liberal critical and post modern It details each orientation s application to policy making implementation and overall impact The book also argues the value of analysing a policy s orientation to improve the clarity of its analysis and allow broader trends across the education policy field to emerge The book offers practical examples key vocabulary and reflection activities which give equitable yet critical consideration to all education orientations This allows readers to see the benefits and disadvantages of each perspective and discover their own biases This introduction to education policy analysis offers theoretically broad highly practical coverage It is adaptable to many kinds of policy analysis areas and will appeal to a wide range of readers with an interest in education policy from students conducting specific research to policy makers looking for a deeper way to re think their work

Public Sector Innovation in Southern Africa Costa Hofisi, Lewis Edwin Chigova, 2025-09-11 This timely and thought provoking book argues that public sector innovation ameliorates many societal challenges in Southern Africa demonstrating how innovative practices are already improving service delivery and addressing governance gaps Bringing together a diverse range of scholars this book s chapters provide insights into the challenges and opportunities shaping innovation in the public sector The book highlights the emergence of a new public administration paradigm grounded in theory innovation in public administration Through theoretical reflections and case studies from Zimbabwe and South Africa the chapter authors navigate institutional technological and socio political issues undergirding public sector innovation The contributors provide perspectives on public governance examining innovations such as policy innovation labs smart cities 4IR e procurement and how technology adoption closes the digital divide and affects citizens sense of gain The book further discusses the institutionalisation of innovation and transitioning to innovation for change concluding by reflecting on public sector innovation in the future of Southern Africa The insights shared serve as an essential resource for policymakers researchers across fields of public administration political economy and African studies and development practitioners committed to reimagining governance and advancing public sector transformation in Southern Africa

The Struggle for Social Change in Southern Africa Dickson A. Mungazi, 1989 This book shows the applicability of Thomas Kuhn s theory of the structure of scientific revolutions to the struggle for social change in southern Africa The components of this theory which seem applicable to the conflict and the struggle for fundamental social change in this troubled region of Africa are definition of paradigms their functions the elements of paradigm shifts and their effect the relationship between paradigm shift in natural and social science and the concept of anomaly This study utilizes the components of this theory to discuss why the problems of southern Africa seem to defy this solution
