Transforming Heritage Practice in the 21st Century John H. Jameson, Sergiu Musteață, 2019-06-14 Recent years have witnessed a rapid increase in the fields of cultural heritage studies and community archaeology worldwide with expanding discussions about the mechanisms and consequences of community participation This trend has brought to the forefront debates about who owns the past who has knowledge and how heritage values can be shared more effectively with communities who then ascribe meaning and value to heritage materials Globalization forces have created a need for contextualizing knowledge to address complex issues and collaboration across and beyond academic disciplines using more integrated methodologies that include the participation of non academics and increased stakeholder involvement Successful programs provide power sharing mechanisms and motivation that effect more active involvement by lay persons in archaeological fieldwork as well as interpretation and information dissemination processes With the contents of this volume we envision community archaeology to go beyond

Allen, 1872 Lincoln

Before Washington Douglas L. Wilson, 1997 The provocative selections in this book address topics as disparate as William H Herndon s informants Lincoln s favorite poem his mysterious broken engagement the text of his debates with Douglas and a previously unknown assault on Peter Cartwright Although Abraham Lincoln s early years have come to be regarded as the wrong end of his life Douglas L Wilson s original and pathbreaking work makes the case that his prepresidential years offer bright prospects for investigation Collectively these essays challenge the general view of Lincoln scholars that William H Herndon Lincoln s law partner is an unreliable source They also provide a fresh look at some of the affinities between Lincoln and Thomas Jefferson Jacket A Complex Exile Erin Dej, 2020-11-15 Over 235 000 people couch surf stay in emergency shelters or live on the street in Canada every year But lack of housing security is just one barrier faced by people who are homeless As A Complex Exile shows the homelessness sector inadvertently reinforces social exclusion as well The very policies practices and funding models that exist to house the homeless promote social inclusion and provide mental health care form a homelessness industrial complex These practices emphasize personal responsibility and individualized responses that ultimately serve to exclude people in subtle and not so subtle ways Erin Dej demonstrates that the causes of and responses to homelessness have become largely medicalized limiting discussion on structural and systemic drivers such as income inequality discrimination and housing affordability A Complex Exile goes beyond bio medical and psychological perspectives on homelessness mental illness and addiction to call for a transformation in how we respond to homelessness in Canada Adoptive Families in a Diverse Society Katarina Weegar, 2006 Adoptive Families in a Diverse Society brings together twenty one prominent scholars to explore the experience practice and policy of adoption in North America While much existing literature tends to stress the potential problems inherent in non biological kinship the essays in this volume consider adoptive family life in a broad and balanced context Bringing new perspectives to the topics of kinship identity and belonging this path breaking book expands more than our understandings of adoptive family life it urges us to rethink the limits and possibilities of diversity and assimilation in American society Ghost Scout's Honor Carey Blankenship-Kramer, 2025-04-01 A thrilling ghostly adventure and a testament to the power that kids have to change the world Defiance holds power The Ghost Scouts were created to keep the ghosts of Savannah in line It s an honor to serve Evey
