Did Jesus Teach Salvation by Works? Alan P. Stanley, 2006-09-20 This book investigates the role of works in salvation in the Synoptic Gospels Jesus was all too aware of people who claimed to believe in Him and yet proved to be not truly born again e g John 2 23 25 8 31 46 A profession of faith made at some point during one s life is no guarantee that heaven awaits that person Such professions or conversion experiences must be followed by changed lives if faith is to be shown to be genuine saving faith Hence Jesus teaches that regardless of one s profession if one does not demonstrate a changed life produced by God one will not enter into heaven Such a judgment will be made when Jesus returns and judges every person according to his or her works While this may seem contradictory to some more well known passages ruling out the role of works in salvation e g Rom 3 21 4 25 Gal 2 16 21 Eph 2 8 9 there is every good reason to understand that Jesus teachings complement such passages The works that admit one into heaven are not works produced by the flesh before conversion but works produced by God after conversion They will fundamentally be characterized by a life of discipleship love for others and endurance in faith and obedience and will therefore serve to confirm that one indeed did have a relationship with God during one s life Hence Jesus did teach salvation by works However God is the one who produces the works and they occur after conversion Thus salvation is not one s initial conversion but one s final entrance into heaven

Four Views on the Role of Works at the Final Judgment Robert N. Wilkin, Thomas R. Schreiner, James D. G. Dunn, Michael P. Barber, 2013-07-09 Through a discussion of Biblical texts this book presents four perspectives on the role of works at the final judgment The final judgment is the last and final act before God dwells with his people forever Scripture makes that clear but what function do our actions play in the final assessment of our souls especially those of professing Christians The contributors each state their case for one of four prominent views on the effect of works at the end of time Robert N Wilkin Works will determine rewards but not salvation Thomas R Schreiner Works will provide evidence that one actually has been saved James D G Dunn Works will provide the criterion by which Christ will determine eternal destiny of his people Michael P Barber Works will merit eternal life This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own

A Thesaurus of the Best Theological, Historical, and Biographical Literature Cyrus F. Tibbals,1891 Revealed Wisdom and Inaugurated Eschatology in Ancient Judaism and Early Christianity

Grant Macaskill,2007-02-28 This book examines four texts 1 Enoch 4QInstruction Matthew and 2 Enoch A common idea in these texts which blend sapiential and apocalyptic elements is that the revealing of wisdom to an elect group inaugurates the eschatological period The emphasis on revealed wisdom is essentially apocalyptic but facilitates the uptake of motifs forms and language from the sapiential tradition and is important in explaining the fusion of the two traditions In addition revealed wisdom often has creational associations and this has significance for the notion of ethics in these texts The book will interest anyone concerned with the development of Jewish and Christian eschatology and ethics It also challenges the simplistic redactional assumptions of certain New Testament scholars
