My Lives Between Hitler And Stalin:

My Lives Between Hitler and Stalin George Lewens, 1992 The Lost Life of Eva Braun Angela Lambert, 2014-09-02 Eva Braun is one of history's most famous nonentities. She has been dismissed as a racist feathered-headed shop girl yet sixty-two years after her death her name is still instantly recognizable. She left her convent school at the age of seventeen and met Hitler a few months later. She became his mistress before she was twenty. How did unsophisticated little Fraulein Braun, twenty-three years his junior, hold the most powerful man in Europe in an exclusive sexual relationship that lasted from 1932 until their joint suicide? Were they really lovers and what were the background influences and psychological tensions of the middle-class Catholic girl from Munich who shared his intimate life? How can her ordinariness and apparent decency be reconciled with an unshakeable loyalty to the monster she loved? She left almost no personal material or documents but her private diary and photograph albums show that her life with Hitler far from being a luxurious sinecure caused her emotional torture. His chauffeur called her the unhappiest woman in Germany. The Führer humiliated her in public while the top Nazis' wives living in his privileged enclave on a Bavarian mountainside despised her. Yet Albert Speer said she has been much maligned. She was very shy, modest, a man's woman, gay, gentle and kind, incredibly undemanding, a restful sort of girl. And her love for Hitler as she proved in the end was beyond question. Eva loved the Führer not for his power nor because thanks to him she lived in luxury. His material gifts were nothing compared with the one thing she really wanted: his child. She remained invisible and unknown, a nonperson. They were never seen in public together and she never saw him alone except in the bedroom yet their long relationship was a sort of marriage. Angela Lambert reveals a woman the world never knew until the last twenty-four hours of her life. In the small hours of April 29, 1945, as Allied troops raced to capture Berlin and the bunker below the Reich Chancellery where the defeated Nazi leaders were hiding, Eva Braun finally achieved her life's ambition by becoming Hitler's wife. Next day they both swallowed cyanide and died instantly. She was young, healthy and thirty-three years old. Based on detailed new research, this is an authoritative biography, only the second life of Eva written in English.

My Life Among the Deathworks Philip Rieff, 2006 Rieff articulates a comprehensive typological theory of Western culture. Using visual illustrations, he contrasts the changing modes of spiritual and social thought that have struggled for dominance throughout Western history.

My Life Leon Trotsky, 2012-04-05 This priceless historical document features firsthand accounts from top levels of leadership in the Russian revolutions of 1905 and 1917, chronicling the struggle to establish a dictatorship of the proletariat.

The Dictators: Hitler's Germany, Stalin's Russia Richard Overy, 2006-01-17 A book of great importance, it surpasses all others in breadth and depth. Commentary: If the past century will be remembered for its tragic pairing of civilized achievement and organized destruction at the heart of darkness, may be found in Hitler, Stalin and the systems of domination they forged. Their lethal regimes murdered millions and fought a massive deadly war. Yet their dictatorships took shape within formal constitutional structures and drew the support of the German and Russian people In the first major historical work to analyze the two dictatorships together in depth Richard Overby gives us an absorbing study of Hitler and Stalin ranging from their private and public selves their ascents to power and consolidation of absolute rule to their waging of massive war and creation of far flung empires of camps and prisons The Nazi extermination camps and the vast Soviet Gulag represent the two dictatorships in their most inhuman form Overby shows us the human and historical roots of these evils Models of My Life Herbert A. Simon,1996-10-08 In this candid and witty autobiography Nobel laureate Herbert A Simon looks at his distinguished and varied career continually asking himself whether and how what he learned as a scientist helps to explain other aspects of his life A brilliant polymath in an age of increasing specialization Simon is one of those rare scholars whose work defines fields of inquiry Crossing disciplinary lines in half a dozen fields Simon s story encompasses an explosion in the information sciences the transformation of psychology by the information processing paradigm and the use of computer simulation for modeling the behavior of highly complex systems Simon s theory of bounded rationality led to a Nobel Prize in economics and his work on building machines that think based on the notion that human intelligence is the rule governed manipulation of symbols laid conceptual foundations for the new cognitive science Subsequently contrasting metaphors of the maze Simon s view and of the mind neural nets have dominated the artificial intelligence debate There is also a warm account of his successful marriage and of an unconsummated love affair letters to his children columns a short story and political and personal intrigue in academe

Dangerous Liaisons Claudia Moscovici,2011-11-15 What do Scott Peterson Neil Entwistle and timeless literary seducers epitomized by Don Juan and Casanova have in common They are charismatic glib and seductive men who also embody the most dangerous human qualities a breathtaking callousness shallowness of emotion and the incapacity to love In other words these men are psychopaths Unfortunately most psychopaths don t advertise themselves as heartless social predators They come across as charming intelligent romantic and kind Through their believable mask of sanity they lure many of us into their dangerous nets Dangerous Liaisons explains clearly what psychopaths are why they act the way they do how they attract us and whom they tend to target Above all this book helps victims find the strength to end their toxic relationships with psychopaths and move on stronger and wiser with the rest of their lives Never Erased in My Mind Esfir Kaplan Lupyan,2019-03-16 Esfir Esther Kaplan Lupyan s normal childhood was cruelly aborted by World War II when she had barely turned five years old and was away at summer camp for young children She her family and the rest of the Jews forced by the Nazis into the lethal trap of Minsk Ghetto had to survive through indescribable suffering In Never Erased in My Mind she shares the story of a young Jewish girl in Belarus encompassing sixty years of Soviet history including the horrors of Stalinism World War II the Holocaust and post Stalin anti Semitism Her father was arrested by the KGB when she was only three weeks old The family didn t know his fate nor did he know theirs This memoir chronicles how she and her mother survived the Minsk Ghetto and certain death miraculously escaping on the last day of the ghetto s existence to the forest where they hid for nine months Her closest relatives all perished including her grandparents 13 year old brother and 22 year old uncle After the war Esfir and her mother reunited with her father and joined him in exile in the Vorkuta Gulag in the Far North above the Arctic Circle Later after studying chemical engineering in Leningrad she and her family became refuseniks denied permission to leave the Soviet Union A story of survival Never Erased in My Mind serves as a reminder to heed the lessons of the Holocaust that it should never happen again Politics and the Intellectual Irving Howe, 2010 A compilation of Irving Howe s interviews during the last fifteen years of his life this book represents what could be viewed as the sequel to Howe s intellectual autobiography A Margin of Hope which took the story of his life only up to the late 1970s Many of these interviews were never published and have existed only as personal tapes in the hands of such scholars and activists as Todd Gitlin and Maurice Isserman Others were originally published in such venues as The New York Times The Jerusalem Post and the PBS documentary Arguing the World Howe never organized his thoughts about the last fifteen years of his life during which he gained renown for World of Our Fathers received a MacArthur Fellowship and became widely regarded as the leading left liberal intellectual in the U S and arguably the leading literary critic in America following the deaths of Lionel Trilling and Edmund Wilson During this time Howe also struggled to redefine the American Left in an environment that discounted and marginalized it Indeed these interviews may have particular significance today a period of new opportunities for the liberal Left yet one in which it struggles to construct some coherent identity and compelling program The editors worked with the full cooperation of Howe s family His daughter Nina contributed an afterword and provided a number of illustrations and photos that have never before appeared in print Book Jacket Landmark
