together in harmony by watchers and the watched Whereas performers practice the art of being watched making their actions worth watching and paying attention to action choice plot character mimesis and the sacredness of performance space audiences practice the art of watching paying close attention A good audience is emotionally engaged as spectators their engagement takes a form of empathy that can lead to a special kind of human wisdom As Plato implied theater cannot teach us transcendent truths but it can teach us about ourselves Characteristically thoughtful probing and original Paul Woodruff makes the case for theater as a unique form of expression connected to our most human instincts The Necessity of Theater should appeal to anyone seriously interested or involved in theater or performance more broadly
