Ruptured Landscapes Helen Sooväli-Sepping, Hugo Reinert, Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2015-06-15 This volume breaks new ground in the study of landscapes both rural and urban The innovative notion of this landscape collection is rupture The book explores the ways in which societal economic and cultural changes are transforming the meanings and understandings of landscapes The text explores both how landscapes are contesting changes in society and changing society The volume combines empirically fine grained accounts of landscape rupture from different parts of the world with a sustained effort to explore rethink and analytically extend the concept of rupture itself The book therefore combines fresh empirical data with innovative theoretical approaches to open understanding of landscape as a dynamic living entity subject to abrupt change and unpredictable disruptions Through this dual reflection the volume is able to provide a powerful demonstration of the possibilities that are available for human action social change and material landscape to combine

Christianity and Belonging in Shimla, North India Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2020-10-01 This book explores the material religion of contemporary Shimla a vibrant postcolonial city famed for its colonial heritage set against the backdrop of the North Western Himalayas Jonathan Miles Watson demonstrates that this landscape is able to peacefully reconcile the apparent tensions of faith heritage and identity in a way that unseats traditional theories of religion politics and heritage It presents a mystery that is written in space through time the key to unlocking this mystery lies in clear view at the city s heart in the contemporary material religion that surrounds nominally Christian sacred sites Although the material religion centres on landscapes that are identifiable as Christian the book demonstrates that Hindus atheists and Sikhs all have a role to play in the mutually constitutive relations that lie at the centre of these knots of sacred entanglement This book builds upon over a decade of research to present an ethnographic account of devotional practices that speaks to contemporary developments in both the anthropology of Christianity and material religion Through this exploration the book answers the mystery of Shimla s postcolonial harmony while complicating established theories in the anthropology of religion postcolonial studies mythography heritage studies and material culture
