has done a remarkable job successfully uncovering the story of the unknown brother revealing a genuinely complex character This book is revelatory not just about Zeppo but also about the rest of the Marx Brothers Library Journal Zeppo was the Marx Brother who didn t want to go into the family business A juvenile delinquent in his teen years before joining his brothers on stage Zeppo balanced two careers auto mechanic and petty criminal Even after getting dragged into the world of entertainment for sixteen years he did his familial duty as a vaudeville Broadway and movie star he finally made his escape from the Four Marx Brothers After failed attempts to find steady work in real estate screenwriting and the restaurant business Zeppo finally hit it big as a Hollywood talent agent representing stars like Barbara Stanwyck Fred MacMurray and Lana Turner From there he bred racehorses owned a manufacturing plant tried out citrus ranching and commercial fishing and patented several new inventions He was in short a complex character and his own family never quite figured him out Zeppo The Reluctant Marx Brother gives a lively account of this checkered life and career As Robert Bader recounts Zeppo s lifelong addiction to gambling led him into relationships with several notorious organized crime figures and he would ultimately appear before grand juries more frequently than movie cameras He was certainly the only Marx Brother who saw the corpse of a friend in a newspaper crime scene photo Socially he mixed as easily with mobsters like Mickey Cohen as he did with movie stars like Clark Gable Comprehensively researched with the full cooperation of Zeppo s estate including the first ever interviews with his two sons this is a remarkable look at the many lives of Zeppo Marx even the ones he did his best to keep secret
