New Digital Cinema Reinventing The Moving Image:

New Digital Cinema Holly Willis, 2005 This introduction to contemporary digital cinema tracks its intersection with video art music video animation print design and live club events to create an avant garde for the new millennium It begins by investigating digital cinema and its contribution to innovations in the feature film format examining animation and live action hybrids the gritty aesthetic of the Dogme 95 filmmakers the explosions of frames within frames and the evolution of the ambient narrative film This study then looks at the creation of new genres and moving image experiences as what we know as cinema enters new venues and formats Fast Forward Holly Willis, 2016-08-16 Cinema the primary vehicle for storytelling in the twentieth century is being reconfigured by new media in the twenty first Terms such as worldbuilding virtual reality and transmedia introduce new methods for constructing a screenplay and experiencing and sharing a story Similarly 3D cinematography hypercinema and visual effects require different modes for composing an image and virtual technology motion capture and previsualization completely rearrange the traditional flow of cinematic production What does this mean for telling stories Fast Forward answers this question by investigating a full range of contemporary creative practices dedicated to the future of mediated storytelling and by connecting with a new generation of filmmakers screenwriters technologists media artists and designers to discover how they work now and toward what end From Chris Milk and Aaron Koblin s exploration of VR spherical filmmaking to Rebeca M ndez s projection and installation work exploring climate change to the richly mediated interactive live performances of the collective Cloud Eye Control this volume captures a moment of creative evolution and sets the stage for imagining the future of the cinematic arts Film Theory Felicity Colman, 2014-06-14 Film Theory addresses the core concepts and arguments created or used by academics critical film theorists and filmmakers including the work of Dudley Andrew Raymond Bellour Mary Ann Doane Miriam Hansen bell hooks Siegfried Kracauer Raul Ruiz P Adams Sitney Bernard Stiegler and Pier Paolo Pasolini This volume takes the position that film theory is a form of writing that produces a unique cinematic grammar and like all grammars it forms part of the system of rules that govern a language and is thus applicable to wider range of media forms In their creation of authorial trends identification of the technology of cinema as a creative force and production of films as aesthetic markers film theories contribute an epistemological resource that connects the technologies of filmmaking and film composition This book explores these connections through film theorisations of processes of the diagrammatisation the systems methodologies concepts histories of cinematic matters of the filmic world Trash Cinema Guy Barefoot, 2017-11-21 This volume explores the lower reaches of cinema and its paradoxical appeal It looks at films from the B movies of the 1930s to the mockbusters of today and from the New York underground to the genre variations of Turkey s Yesil am studios and their YouTube afterlife Critically examining the reasons for studying denigrating or celebrating the detritus of film history it also considers the place of a trash aesthetic within and beyond 1960s American avant garde and looks at the cult of trash in the fanzines of the 1980s It draws on debates about cult paracinema and camp arguing that trash cinema exists in relation to these but brings with it a particular history that includes the ordinary as well as the strange Trash Cinema places these debates and the strand of self proclaimed low culture that emerged in the second half of the twentieth century within a historical and international perspective It focuses on American cinema history but addresses Eurotrash reception as well as the related field of garbology examining trash cinema as a distinct but fluid category

The Heist Film Daryl Lee,2014-03-14 A concise introduction to the genre about that one last big score The Heist Film Stealing With Style traces this crime thriller s development as both a dramatic and comic vehicle growing out of film noir Criss Cross The Killers The Asphalt Jungle mutating into sleek capers in the 1960s Ocean s Eleven Gambit How to Steal a Million and splashing across screens in the 2000s in remake after remake The Thomas Crown Affair The Italian Job The Good Thief Built around a series of case studies Rififi Bob le Flambeur The Killing The Lavender Hill Mob The Getaway the Ocean s trilogy this volume explores why directors of such varied backgrounds from studio regulars Siodmak Crichton Siegel Walsh and Wise to independents Anderson Fuller Kubrick Ritchie and Soderbergh are so drawn to this popular genre

The Sports Film Bruce Babington,2014-03-18 After covering the genre s early history and theorizing its general characteristics this volume then focuses on specific instances of sports films such as the biopic the sports history film the documentary the fan film the boxing film and explores issues such as gender race spectacle and silent comedy Four major films are then closely analysed Chariots of Fire Field of Dreams the Indian cricket epic Lagaan and Oliver Stone s Any Given Sunday While recording American film s importance to the genre the book resists the conventional over concentration on American cinema and sports by its attention to other cinemas for example the British Indian Australian South Korean Thai German New Zealand Spanish and so on with the many different sports they depict

The New Hollywood Peter Krämer,2006-03-17 On December 8 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and announced The New Cinema Violence Sex Art The following decade has long been celebrated as a golden age in American film history In this innovative study Peter Kr mer offers a systematic discussion of the biggest hits of the period including The Graduate 1967 The Exorcist 1973 and Jaws 1975 He relates the distinctive features of these hits to changes in the film industry in its audiences and in American society at large

Heritage Film Belén Vidal,2012 The British heritage film nation and representation Production cycles and cultural significance a European heritage film Narrative aesthetics and gendered histories renewing the heritage film Afterword tradition and change

International Politics and Film Klaus Dodds,Sean Carter,2014-05-14 International Politics and Film introduces readers to the representational qualities of film but also draws attention to how the relationship between the visual and the spatial is constitutive of international politics Using four themes borders the state of exception homeland and distant others the territorial and imaginative dimensions of international affairs in particular are highlighted But this volume also makes clear that international politics is not just something out there film helps us better understand how it is also part of everyday life within the state affecting individuals and communities in different ways depending on axes of difference such as gender race class age and ethnicity The Vampire Film Jeffrey Weinstock, 2012-04-03 This introductory volume offers an elegant analysis of the enduring appeal of the cinematic vampire From Georges Méliès early cinematic experiments to Twilight and Let the Right One In the history of vampires in cinema can be organised by a handful of governing principles that help make sense of this movie monster's remarkable fecundity Among these principles are that the cinematic vampire is invariably about sex and the vexed human relationship with technology and that the vampire is always an overdetermined body condensing what a culture considers other This volume includes in depth studies of films including Powell's A Fool There Was Franco's Vampyr Lesbos Cronenberg's Rabid Kaelin's Daughters of Darkness and Merhige's Shadow of the Vampire
