International Affairs ,2002

Modern Revolutions John Dunn, 1989-06-22 Many political regimes today draw such legitimacy as they have from a revolution the destruction of an existing political elite and its replacement by a different group or groups drawn from inside the same society A large part of the ideological dispute in world politics has come in consequence to turn on an interpretation of the character of revolutions as political and social events It is extremely difficult to separate ideological assessments of the desirability or otherwise of what has occurred in revolutions from causal explanations of why these revolutions occurred and both major traditions in the analysis of revolutionary phenomena have been damaged by their failure to distinguish clearly between explanation and assessment In examining eight major revolutions of the twentieth century John Dunn helps readers to remedy this state of affairs by thinking for themselves

Multiregionalism and Multilateralism Sebastian Bersick, Paul van der Velde, Wim Stokhof, 2025-10-01 The Asia Europe Meeting ASEM est 1996 is an interregional forum which consists of the members of the European Union and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and China Japan and South Korea The main components of the ASEM process include political dialogue economy education and culture Multiregionalism and Multilateralism focuses on the institutionalisation of intra regional and inter regional cooperation in the international system with emphasis on the changing relationship between the EU China and India The role of ASEM in this relationship is growing more important because of the growth of multilateralism as cornerstone of the international system
