Nathan Oaklander, Erwin Tegtmeier, 2024-12-26 The main debates in the philosophy of time have centred on whether A theory with events ordered by pastness presentness and futurity or B theory ordered by earlier than or later than are equally fundamental Emiliano Boccardi L Nathan Oaklander and Erwin Tegtmeier instead uphold the Russellian theory or R theory and consider not only the fundamental differences but also its superiority They argue McTaggart's misinterpretation of Russell has led to a false dichotomy between the A and B theories while exploring the connection between temporal relations temporal facts and time In defence of the R theory they argue how it offers a metaphysical explanation of the nature of time in addition to investigating whether ontological theories of time can be considered from a moral or existential point of view Using an ontological approach this volume clarifies what is mistaken about both theories can only be resolved by adopting a Russellian philosophy reaching beyond the A theory vs B theory debate New Directions in Later Medieval Manuscript Studies Derek Pearsall, 2000 Influential scholars from Britain and North America discuss future directions in rapidly expanding field of manuscript study The study of manuscripts is one of the most active areas of current research in medieval studies manuscripts are the basic primary material evidence for literary scholars historians and art historians alike and there has been an explosion of interest over the past twenty years Manuscript study has developed enormously codices are no longer treated as inert witnesses to a culture whose character has already been determined by the modern scholar but are active participants in a process of exploration and discovery The articles collected here discuss the future of this process and vital questions about manuscript study for tomorrow's explorers They deal with codicology and book production with textual criticism with the material structure of the medieval book with the relation of manuscripts to literary culture to social history and to the medieval theatre and with the importance to manuscript study of the emerging technology of computerised digitisation and hypertext display The essays provide an end of millennium perspective on the most vigorous developments in a rapidly expanding field of study Contributors A I Doyle C David Benson Martha W Driver J P Gumbert Kathryn Kerby Fulton Linne R Mooney Eckehard Simon Alison Stones John Thompson DEREK PEARSALL is former Professor and Co Director of the Centre for Medieval Studies York and Professor of English at Harvard University New Directions and Paradigms for the Study of Greek Architecture , 2019-11-26 New Directions and Paradigms for the Study of Greek Architecture comprises 20 chapters by nearly three dozen scholars who describe recent discoveries new theoretical frameworks and applications of cutting edge techniques in their architectural research The contributions are united by several broad themes that represent the current directions of study in the field i.e. the organization and techniques used by ancient Greek builders and designers the use and life history of Greek monuments over time the communication of ancient monuments with their intended audiences together with their reception by later viewers the mining of large sets of architectural data for socio
