John W. Crowley, John William Crowley, 1990 A New Book of the Grotesques Robert Dunne, 2005 Sherwood Anderson remembered chiefly as a writer of short stories about life in the Midwest at the turn of the century was acknowledged as an innovator of the short story form This book looks at Anderson's early fiction from contemporary interpretative methodologies particularly from poststructuralist approaches The Book of Minor Perverts Benjamin Kahan, 2019-02-05 Shortlisted for the Modernist Studies Association Book Prize Statue fondlers wanderlusters sex magicians and nymphomaniacs the story of these forgotten sexualities what Michel Foucault deemed minor perverts has never before been told In The Book of Minor Perverts Benjamin Kahan sets out to chart the proliferation of sexual classification that arose with the advent of nineteenth century sexology The book narrates the shift from Foucault's thousand aberrant sexualities to one homosexuality The focus here is less on the effects of queer identity and more on the lines of causation behind a surprising array of minor perverts who refuse to fit neatly into our familiar sexual frameworks The result stands at the intersection of history queer studies and the medical humanities to offer us a new way of feeling our way into the past A Study of Place in Short Fiction by James Joyce, William Faulkner and Sherwood Anderson Abd Alkareem Atteh, 2021-04-15 This book sheds light on the modernist short story cycle and its pivotal role in representing and depicting place With an ever changing attitude towards place and what it means modernist writers found in the short story cycle a suitable form to depict this sense of change Drawing from a range of recent theories of the short story cycle and theories of place this book highlights in a comparative way the role of the emergent short story genre and its seminal role in grasping and capturing a fragmented world through the various short and interconnected narratives and narrative strategies a short story cycle can accommodate As such this text contributes to the study of the modernist short story cycle American literature Irish literature comparative literature and theories and studies of place Sherwood Anderson Harold Bloom, 2003 The works of Sherwood Anderson are explored here including Godliness Death in the Woods The Man Who Became a Woman I Want to Know Why and The Egg The Working Class in American Literature John F. Lavelle, Debbie Lelekis, 2021-09-21 Literary texts are artifacts of their time and ideologies This book collection explores the working class in American literature from the colonial to the contemporary period through a critical lens which addresses the real problems of approaching class through economics Significantly this book moves the analysis of working class literature away from the Marxist focus on the relationship between class and the means of production and applies an innovative concept of class based on the sociological studies of humans and society first championed by Max Weber Of primary concern is the construction of class separation through the concept of in grouping out grouping This book builds upon the theories established in John F Lavelle's Blue Collar Theoretically A Post Marxist Approach to Working Class Literature McFarland 2011 and puts them into practice by examining a diverse set of texts that reveal the complexity of class relations in American society White Collar Fictions Christopher P. Wilson, 2010-08-01 In White Collar Fictions Christopher P. Wilson explores how turn of the century literary representations of white collar Americans the middle social strata H. L. Mencken dismissed as boobus Americanus were actually part and parcel of a new social class coming to terms with its own power authority and contradictions An innovative study that integrates literary analysis with social history research the book reexamines the life and work of Sherwood Anderson and Sinclair Lewis as well as such nearly forgotten authors as O. Henry Edna Ferber Robert Grant and Elmer Rice Between 1885 and 1925 America underwent fundamental social changes The family business faded with the rise of the modern corporation mid level clerical work grew rapidly the white collar ranks sales clerks accountants lawyers advertisers middle managers and professionals expanded between capital and labor During this same period Wilson shows white collar characters took on greater prominence within American literature and popular culture Magazines like the Saturday Evening Post idolized average Americans while writers such as Sherwood Anderson and Sinclair Lewis produced portraits of middle America in Winesburg, Ohio and Babbitt By investigating the material experience and social vocabularies within white collar life itself Wilson uncovers the ways in which writers helped create a new cultural vocabulary Babbitt the little people the Average American That served to redefine power authority and commonality in American society Race, Manhood, and Modernism in America Mark Whalan, 2007 Narrative gender and history in Winesburg, Ohio Sherwood Anderson and primitivism Double dealing in the South Waldo Frank Sherwood Anderson Jean Toomer and the ethnography of region Things are so immediate in Georgia articulating the South in Cane Cane body technologies and genealogy Cane audience and form
