New Home A Classic Of The American Front:

American Builder, 1915 A Field Guide to American Houses (Revised) Virginia Savage McAlester, 2015-11-10 The fully expanded updated and freshly designed second edition of the most comprehensive and widely acclaimed guide to domestic architecture in print since its original publication in 1984 and acknowledged everywhere as the unmatched essential guide to American houses This revised edition includes a section on neighborhoods expanded and completely new categories of house styles with photos and descriptions of each an appendix on Approaches to Construction in the 20th and 21st Centuries an expanded bibliography and 600 new photographs and line drawings Vintage House Book: 100 Years of Classic American Homes 1880-1980 Tad Burness, 2011-02-28 Follow the progression of the American home with this latest creation from the Tad Burness studio This one of a kind collection features historical exciting and beautiful homes from 1880 to 1980 Each yearly section presents various styles of houses kitchens baths floor plans light fixtures and new developments Many of the time periods include detailed advertisements with original prices competing household appliances and new fads Representative regions and styles include the kit houses of the early 1900s Victorian style homes and Mediterranean looks The wealth of information and detail will pique the curiosity of those interested in home restoration and retro design as well as architects real estate agents interior designers and members of historical societies American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1863 Housing and Dwelling Barbara Miller Lane, 2006-11 A collection of thought provoking essays on the changing face of domestic architecture over two centuries highlighting the wide range of source materials and theoretical perspectives available to scholars of architectural history Classic American Streamliners Mike Schafer, 1997 Richly illustrated with over 200 photos this book tells the story of railroad streamliners from their early days as short little articulated speedsters to their halcyon years as 20 car cities on wheels Places that were going somewhere And it also tells a story of a time of individuality when streamliners reflected the personality of the regions they served American Architect and Building News, 1895 Historic Impressions Volume II Cean Magosky, P. Seth Magosky, American Decoration Thomas Jayne, 2012-10-30 Interior designer and decorative arts and antiques expert Thomas Jayne follows up his essential 2010 compendium The Finest Rooms in America with this new collection of his own work Thomas Jayne possesses a unique dual vision he keeps one eye focused on the aesthetic traditions of the past and the other looking forward innovating creating and imagining interiors to suit modern sensibilities His reverence for traditional ideas does not restrict Jayne's understanding of what makes a beautiful room rather than seeking to replicate and repeat the exact decor from past Jayne finds inspiration in the distinctive histories of the spaces in which he works In every project he undertakes he draws on his rich academic background in the decorative arts to design interiors that harmonize with their historical settings yet also connect intimately to the active and modern lives of families who call these remarkable buildings home Jayne believes that American interior decoration is unique in its combination of elements from European and Asian cultural traditions with indigenous ideas and materials in its emphasis on comfort and livability and in its human scale Presented here for the first time his projects reflect this sensibility drawing from established traditions and reinterpreting them for contemporary life Drawing on the legacies of Albert Hadley and Sister Parish Jayne insists on authenticity and comfort incorporating elegant antiques and art with a subtle but warm palette and a welcoming setting In this richly illustrated collection of both city and country residences Jayne reveals the inspiration and thought behind each design identifying elements from the architecture the clients collections of art and antiques and from the site itself that serves as the basis for the decoration of the rooms
