Few jazz musicians have had the lasting influence or attracted as much scholarly study as John Coltrane. Yet despite dozens of books, hundreds of articles, and his own recorded legacy, the facts about Coltrane's life and work have never been definitely established. Well-known Coltrane biographer and jazz educator Lewis Porter has assembled an international team of scholars to write The John Coltrane Reference, an indispensable guide to the life and music of John Coltrane. The John Coltrane Reference features a day-by-day chronology which extends from 1926 to 1967, detailing Coltrane's early years and every live performance given by Coltrane as either a sideman or leader, and a discography offering full session information from the first year of recordings, 1946, to the last, 1967. The appendices list every film and television appearance as well as every recorded interview. Richly illustrated with over 250 album covers and photos from the collection of Yasuhiro Fujioka, The John Coltrane Reference will find a place in every major library supporting a jazz studies program as well as John Coltrane enthusiasts.

Stars of Jazz James A. Harrod, 2020-03-23 Imagine an educational television series featuring America's greatest jazz artists in performance, airing every week from 1956 to 1958 on KABC Los Angeles. Stars of Jazz was hosted by Bobby Troup, the songwriter, pianist, and vocalist. Each show provided information about the performance that heightened viewers' appreciation. The series garnered praise from critics and numerous awards, including an Emmy from the Academy of Television Arts. 29 additional shows are in the collection. The remaining 85 kinescopes were long ago discarded. This first full documentation of Stars of Jazz identifies every musician, vocalist, and guest who appeared on the series and lists every song performed on the series along with composer and lyricist credits. More than 100 photographs include images from many of the lost episodes.
