New Left Review 12 Nov Dec 2001:

New Left Review ,2002 Metaphoricity and the Politics of Mobility ,2016-08-01 This collection of essays investigates the convergence between the postmodern politics of mobility and a politics of metaphor a politics in other words in the context of which the production and displacement of meaning s constitute the major stakes Ranging from discussions of re territorialization multiculturalism digisporas and transnational politics and ethics to September 11th the Pentagon s New Map American legislation on Chinese immigration Gianni Amelio s film Lamerica Keith Piper s online installations and Doris Salcedo s Atrabiliarios the collection aims to follow three different theoretical trajectories First it seeks to rethink our concepts of mobility in order to open them up to the complexity that structures the thoughts and practices of a global order Second it critically examines the privileged position of concepts and metaphors of mobility within postmodern theory In juxtaposing conflictual theoretical formulations the book sets out to present the competing responses that fuel academic debates around this issue Finally it evaluates the influence of our increasingly mobile conceptual frameworks and everyday experience on the redefinition of politics that is currently under way especially in the context of Post Marxist theory Its hope is to contribute to the production of alternative political positions and practices that will address the conflicting desires for attachment and movement marking postmodernity Israel's Foreign Policy Towards the PLO Amnon Aran,2009-09-22 Examining Israeli foreign policy towards the Palestinian Liberation Organization PLO between the 1967 war and the 2005 withdrawal from the Gaza Strip this work focuses on the impact and process of globalisation on the Israeli state s politics economy society and culture Insurgent Imaginations Auritro Majumder,2020-10-22 This book illustrates how internationalist writers marginalized the West and placed the non Western regions in a new center Crisis Cultures Brian S. Whitener,2019-03-15 Drawing on a mix of political economic literary and filmic texts Crisis Cultures challenges current cultural histories of the neoliberal period by arguing that financialization and not just neoliberalism has been at the center of the dramatic transformations in Latin American societies in the last thirty years Starting from political economic figures such as crisis hyperinflation credit and circulation and exemplary cultural texts Whitener traces the interactions between culture finance surplus populations and racialized state violence after 1982 in Mexico and Brazil Crisis Cultures makes sense of the emergence of new forms of exploitation and terrifying police and militarized violence by tracking the cultural and discursive forms including real abstraction and the favela and immaterial cadavers and voided collectivities that have emerged in the complicated aftermath of the long downturn and global turn to finance Industrial Poetics Joe Amato,2006-04 Through a dizzying array of references to subjects ranging from engineering to poetry on the job experiences in academia and industry conflicts between working class and intellectual labor the privatization of universities and the contradictions of the modern environment Joe Amato s Industrial Poetics mounts a boisterous call for poetry communities to be less invested in artistic self absorption and more concerned about social responsibility s Amato focuses on the challenges faced by American poets in creating a poetry that speaks to a public engineered into complacency by those industrial technologies practices and patterns of thought that we cannot seem to do without he brings readers face to face with the conflicting realities of U S intellectual academic and poetic culture Formally adventurous and rhetorically lively Industrial Poetics is best compared with the intellectually exploratory speculative risky polemical work of other contemporary poet critics including Kathleen Fraser Joan Retallack Bruce Andrews Susan Howe and Allen Grossman Amato uses an exhilarating range of structural and rhetorical strategies conventionally developed argument abruptly juxtaposed aphorisms personal narrative manifesto like polemic and documentary reportage With a critic s sharply analytical mind a poet s verve and a working class intellectual s sense of social justice Amato addresses the many nonliterary institutions and environments in which poetry is inextricably embedded By connecting poetry to industry in a lively demonstration against the platitudes and habitudes of the twentieth century Amato argues for a reenergized and socially forceful poetics an industrial poetics rough edges and all Jed Rasula writes I can t say I pay much attention to talk radio but this is what I imagine it might be like if the deejay were really smart enviably well read yet somehow retained the snarling moxie of the am format Global Rules James E. Cronin, 2014-10-28 Questions long perceived views of post World War II America and its position in the world especially after Vietnam The author details the challenges the economic transition of the 1970s and 1980s engendered as the US and Great Britain together actively pursued their shared ideal of an international assemblage of market based democratic states Postcolonial Studies Benita Parry, 2004-07-31 This powerful selection of essays proposes practices of reading and criticism to make the field of postcolonial studies more fully attentive to historical circumstances and socio material conditions Benita Parry points to directions and dead ends in the discipline she has helped to shape with a first series of essays vigorously challenging colonial discourse theory and postcolonialism as we have known them She then turns to literature with a series of detailed readings that not only demonstrate her theoretical position at work but also give new dimensions to widely studied texts by Rudyard Kipling Joseph Conrad H G Wells and E M Forster Parry argues throughout that the material impulses of colonialism its appropriation of physical resources exploitation of human labour and institutional repression have too long been allowed to recede from view The Resilient City Lawrence J. Vale, Thomas J. Campanella, 2005-01-20 In 1871 the city of Chicago was almost entirely destroyed by what became known as The Great Fire Thirty five years later San Francisco lay in smoldering ruins after the catastrophic earthquake of 1906 Or consider the case of the Jerusalem the greatest site of physical destruction and renewal in history which over three millennia has suffered wars earthquakes fires twenty sieges eighteen reconstructions and at least eleven transitions from one religious faith to another Yet this ancient city has regenerated itself time and again and still endures Throughout history cities have been sacked burned torched bombed flooded besieged and leveled And yet they almost always rise from the ashes to rebuild Viewing a wide array of urban disasters in global historical perspective The Resilient City traces the aftermath of such cataclysms as the British invasion of Washington in 1814 the devastation wrought on Berlin Warsaw and Tokyo during World War II the late 20th century earthquakes that shattered Mexico City and the Chinese city of Tangshan Los Angeles after the 1992 riots the Oklahoma City bombing the destruction of the World Trade Center Revealing how traumatized city dwellers consistently develop narratives of resilience and how the pragmatic process of urban recovery is always fueled by highly symbolic actions The Resilient City offers a deeply informative and unsentimental tribute to the dogged persistence of the city and indeed of the human spirit The Global Politics of the Iraq Crisis and India's Options Hari S. Vasudevan, Shri Prakash, Mujib Alam, 2004 Presents essays that deal with the international context of the Iraqi crisis of 2003 and the options that India has faced in dealing with that crisis
