The Sacred Flame of Love

Christopher H. Owen,1998 Attempting to restore subtlety and nuance to the study of southern religion The Sacred Flame of Love ranges across the entire nineteenth century to chronicle the evolution of the institutions theology and social attitudes of Georgia Methodists in light of such phenomena trends and events as slavery class prejudice republicanism population growth economic development sectional politics war emancipation and urban growth In connecting Methodist history with the larger social transformation of nineteenth century Georgia Christopher H Owen uncovers a story of considerable complexity and variety Because Georgia Methodists included people from every social class few generalizations apply properly to all of them For many years they were loosely united by common adherence to the ideals of Wesleyan evangelicalism but economic and political developments would gradually accentuate Methodist social divisions and weaken even this bond Indeed deviating far from the conception of unchanging and asocial southern religion often held by scholars Owen sees both church and society undergoing enormous change in the nineteenth century
