O Love How Deep Diana Maryon, 2011-11-04 The autobiographical novel O Love How Deep by Diana Maryon contains striking insights into relations between the sexes Christian discipleship and mastering disappointment I hope that I shall see it in print in some form in due course J I Packer Author and Theologian I knew from the first 100 pages that I was going to be enthralled with this story and so I was right to the end I literally couldn't put it down Of course it doesn't seem like the end because I still want to know more about Hope The loving portraits of the authors two children were the highlight for me Why that is so I don't know Perhaps the honesty about motherhood It is a fine adult Christian book and should enjoy a wide readership Mary Razzell Author After twenty six year old Australian David Carpenter a psychiatrist and neurological researcher himself had a breakdown in his first year at Cambridge his therapist told him Go into the Anglican Chaplaincy investigate Christianity and have a love affair with a nice Christian girl He did precisely that Diana was only twenty They grew so close that when after four years she married someone else he returned home devastated They did not meet again for eight years He realised then that he still loved her and she him He asked her to break her marriage for him Instead she sent him away indefinitely In her last letter she begged him to give her up She said that Oxford had rejected her dissertation She was thirty three with her academic career now shattered This is the poignant true story of three hyper intelligent cosmopolitan and highly educated people fighting their way through to genuine faith hope and love in the modern world
