Memory and Modern British Politics Matthew Roberts, 2023-12-14 This edited collection explores absence presence and remembrance in British political culture and memory studies Comprehensive in its scope it covers the entire modern period bringing together the 19th and 20th centuries as well as Britain Ireland and the Atlantic World As the first comparative and in depth study to explore the central and contested place of memory and the invention of tradition in modern British politics chapters include memorialisation statue mania anniversaries and on the wider impact and invoking of dead generations In doing so this book provides a new exciting and accessible way of engaging with the history of British political culture

Liverpool University Press Autumn 2010 Catalogue , Creating Memorials, Building Identities Alan Rice, 2011-11-01 This incisive book investigates memorials to slavery throughout the African diaspora with an emphasis on Europe It analyzes not only the increasing number of physical monuments but also the practice of remembering and forgetting in museums and plantation houses as well as in contemporary cultural forms like the visual arts literature music and film A series of case studies ranging from the eighteenth to the twenty first centuries from Senegal and Montserrat to Manchester and Paris explores issues such as the Lancashire cotton famine black soldiers in World War II and the 2007 commemoration of abolition in regional museums

The Life and Legend of James Watt David Philip Miller, 2019-04-18 The Life and Legend of James Watt offers a deeper understanding of the work and character of the great eighteenth century engineer Stripping away layers of legend built over generations David Philip Miller finds behind the heroic engineer a conflicted man often diffident about his achievements but also ruthless in protecting his inventions and ideas and determined in pursuit of money and fame A skilled and creative engineer Watt was also a compulsive experimentalist drawn to natural philosophical inquiry and a chemistry of heat underlay much of his work including his steam engineering But Watt pursued the business of natural philosophy in a way characteristic of his roots in the Scottish improving tradition that was in tension with Enlightenment sensibilities As Miller demonstrates Watt's accomplishments relied heavily on collaborations not always acknowledged with business partners employees philosophical friends and not least his wives children and wider family The legend created in his later years and afterlife claimed too much of nineteenth century technology for Watt but that legend was and remains a powerful cultural force

Sculpture and the Garden Patrick Eyres, 2017-07-05 Although the integration of sculpture in gardens is part of a long tradition dating back at least to antiquity the sculptures themselves are often overlooked both in the history of art and in the history of the garden This collection of essays considers the changing relationship between sculpture and gardens over the last three centuries focusing on four British archetypes the Georgian landscape garden the Victorian urban park the outdoor spaces of twentieth century modernism and the late twentieth century sculpture park Through a series of case studies exploring the contemporaneous audiences of gardens the book uncovers the social political and gendered messages revealed by sculpture's placement and suggests that the garden can itself be read as a sculptural landscape

Public Sculpture of Staffordshire and the Black Country George Thomas Noszlopy, Fiona Waterhouse, 2005-01-01 The Black Country is an area historically known as the cradle of the Industrial Revolution a thriving region built around deep coal seams conjuring up images of fiery red furnaces by night and black sooty citadels by day Yet today the resource rich region also features many striking public sculptures This volume provides a comprehensive catalog to all of the historic sculptures and public monuments in Staffordshire and the Black Country George Noszlopy and Fiona Waterhouse catalog each individual sculpture in detail including information about the sculptor the sculpture's historical and artistic significance the commissioning agent and the date of installation The volume also features 350 black and white photographs that document the diverse and rich beauty of the region's public monuments The ninth volume in the widely acclaimed award winning Public Sculpture of Britain series Public Sculpture of Staffordshire and the Black Country is an invaluable resource for British historians art scholars and travelers alike

Everyday Heroism: Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian John Price, 2014-01-16 Heroism in the 19th and early 20th centuries is synonymous with military endeavours imperial adventures and the great men of history There was however another prominent and influential strand of the idea which has until now been largely overlooked This book seeks to address this oversight and establish new avenues of study by revealing and examining everyday heroism acts of life risking bravery undertaken by otherwise ordinary individuals largely in the course of their daily lives and within quotidian surroundings Adopting an interdisciplinary approach John Price charts and investigates the growth and development of this important discourse presenting in depth case studies of The Albert Medal and the Carnegie Hero Fund alongside a nationwide analysis of heroism monuments and an exploration of radical approaches to the concept Unlike its military and imperial counterparts everyday heroism embraced the heroine and this study reflects that with an examination of female heroism Discovering why certain individuals or acts were accorded the status of being heroic also provides insights into those that recognized them Heroism is a flexible and malleable constellation of ideas shaped or constructed along different lines by different people so if you want to identify the characteristics of a group or society much can be learnt by studying those it holds up as heroic Consequently Everyday Heroism Victorian Constructions of the Heroic Civilian provides valuable and revealing evidence for a wide range of social and cultural topics including class gender identity memory celebrity and literary and visual culture

Remembering the South African War Peter McIntosh Donaldson, 2013 The first comprehensive survey of the memorialisation process in Britain in the aftermath of the South African War uncovering the themes and myths that underpinned the interpretations of the war as well as shifting patterns in how the war was represented and conceived

Victorian Jamaica Tim Barringer, Wayne Modest, 2018-04-19 Victorian Jamaica explores the extraordinary surviving archive of visual representation and material objects to provide a comprehensive account of Jamaican society during Queen Victoria's reign over the British Empire from 1837 to 1901 In their analyses of material ranging from photographs of plantation laborers and landscape paintings to cricket team photographs furniture and architecture as well as a wide range of texts the contributors trace the relationship between black Jamaicans and colonial institutions contextualize race within ritual and performance and outline how material and visual culture helped shape the complex politics of colonial society By narrating Victorian history from a Caribbean perspective this richly illustrated volume featuring 270 full color images offers a complex and nuanced portrait of Jamaica that expands our understanding of the wider history of the British Empire and Atlantic world during this period Contributors Anna Arabindan Kesson Tim Barringer Anthony Bogues David Boxer Patrick Bryan Steeve O Buckridge Julian Cresser John M Cross Petrina Dacres Belinda Edmondson Nadia Ellis Gillian Forrester Catherine Hall Gad Heuman Rivke Jaffe O Neil Lawrence Erica Moiah James Jan Marsh Wayne Modest Daniel T Neely Mark Nesbitt Diana Paton Elizabeth Pigou Dennis Veerle Poupeye Jennifer Raab James Robertson Shani Roper Faith Smith Nicole Smythe Johnson Dianne M Stewart Krista A Thompson

The Sculpture Journal, 2004 Art, Design and Capital since the 1980s Bill Roberts, 2019-08-02 This book examines artists' engagements with design and architecture since the 1980s and asks what they reveal about contemporary capitalist production and social life Setting recent practices in historical relief and exploring the work of Dan Graham Rita McBride Tobias Rehberger and Liam Gillick Bill Roberts argues that design is a singularly valuable lens through which artists evoke trace and critique the forces and relations of production that underpin everyday experience in advanced capitalist economies

Memory, Heritage, and Preservation in 20th-Century England David Strittmatter, 2023-03-09 This book explores commemoration practices and preservation efforts in modern Britain focusing on the years from the end of the First World War until the mid 1960s The changes wrought by war led Britain to reconsider major historical episodes that made up its national narrative Part of this process was a reassessment of heritage sites because such places carry socio political meaning as do the memorials that mark them This book engages the four way intersection of commemoration preservation tourism and urban planning at some of the most notable historic locations in England The various actors in this process from the national government and regional councils to private organizations and interested individuals did nothing less than engineer British national memory The author presents case studies of six famous British places namely battlefields Hastings and Bosworth political sites Runnymede and Peterloo and world s fairgrounds the Crystal Palace and Great White City In all three genres of heritage sites one location developed through commemorations and tourism while the other anti sites simultaneously faltered as they were neither memorialized nor visited by the masses Ultimately the book concludes that the modern social and political environment resulted in the revival creation or erasure of heritage sites in the service of promoting British national identity A valuable read for British historians as well as scholars of memory public history and cultural studies the book argues that heritage emerged as a discursive arena in which British identity was renegotiated through times of transitions both into a democratic age and an era of geopolitical decline Children, Childhood and Youth in the British World Simon Sleight, Shirleene

Robinson, 2016-10-06 Age was a critical factor in shaping imperial experience yet it has not received any sustained scholarly attention This pioneering interdisciplinary collection is the first to investigate the lives of children and young people and the construction of modes of childhood and youth within the British world Nationalism and the Reshaping of Urban Communities in Europe, 1848-1914 W. Whyte, O. Zimmer, 2011-05-03 This book brings together a distinguished group of historians to explore the previously neglected relationship between nationalism and urban history It reveals the contrasting experiences of nationalism in different societies and milieus It will help historians to reassess the role of nationalism both inside and outside the nation state Chopin in Britain Peter Willis, 2017-12-14 In 1848 the penultimate year of his life

Chopin visited England and Scotland at the instigation of his aristocratic Scots pupil Jane Stirling In the autumn of that year he returned to Paris The following autumn he was dead Despite the fascination the composer continues to hold for scholars this brief but important period and his previous visit to London in 1837 remain little known In this richly illustrated study Peter Willis draws on extensive original documentary evidence as well as cultural artefacts to tell the story of these two visits and to place them into aristocratic and artistic life in mid nineteenth century England and Scotland In addition to filling a significant hole in our knowledge of the composer s life the book adds to our understanding of a number of important figures including Jane Stirling and the painter Ary Scheffer The social and artistic milieux of London Manchester Glasgow and Edinburgh are brought to vivid life James Watt, Chemist David Philip Miller, 2015-07-22 Miller examines Watt s illustrious engineering career in light of his parallel interest in chemistry arguing that Watt s conception of steam engineering relied upon chemical understandings The Failures of Public Art and Participation Cameron

Cartiere,Anthony Schrag,2022-08-25 This collection of original essays takes a multi disciplinary approach to explore the theme of failure through the broad spectrum of public art and social practice The anthology brings together practicing artists curators activists art writers administrators planners and educators from around the world to offer differing perspectives on the many facets of failure in commissioning planning producing evaluating and engaging communities in the continually evolving field of art in the public realm As such this book offers a survey of currently unexplored and interconnected thinking and provides a much needed critical voice to the commissioning of public and participatory arts The volume includes case studies from the UK the US China Cuba and Denmark as well as discussions of digital public art collections The Failures of Public Art and Participation will be of interest for students and scholars of visual arts design and architecture interested in how art in the public realm fits within social and political contexts Women as Veterans in Britain and France after the First World War Alison S. Fell,2018-07-12 The legacies service in the First World War had on women s lives and the privileges it afforded some of them
