

Public Policies toward Externalities: Market-Based Policy 2: Tradable Pollution Permits

- Corrective taxes on the producers or consumers of pollution
- Tradable pollution permits that allow the voluntary transfer of the right to pollute from one firm to another.
  - A firm that can reduce pollution at a low cost may prefer to sell its permit to a firm that can reduce pollution only at a high cost.

Business and Government Relations in Africa Robert A. Dible, 2017-07-06 This book endeavors to take the conceptualization of the relationship between business government and development in African countries to a new level In the twenty first century the interests and operations of government and business inevitably intersect all over the African continent No government federal or state can afford to ignore the needs of business But what are these needs how does business express its needs to government and what institutions organize government business relations in African countries How should government regulate business or should it choose to let the markets rule Government and Business Relations in Africa brings together many of sub Saharan African leading scholars to address these critical questions Business and Government Relations in Africa examines the key players in the game federal and state governments and business groups and the processes that govern the relationships between them It looks at the regulatory regimes that have an impact on business and provides a number of case studies of the relationships between government and economic development around the African continent highlighting different processes and practices It shows the latest state of knowledge on the topic and will be of interest both to students at an advanced level academics and reflective practitioners It addresses the topics with regard to business government relations and will be of interest to researchers academics policymakers and students in the fields of African politics comparative politics public policy business and politics sustainable development and sustainability economic development and managerial economics      The First Bilateral Investment

Treaties Kenneth J. Vandeveld, 2017-04-05 The First Bilateral Investment Treaties is the first and only history of the U S postwar Friendship Commerce and Navigation FCN treaty program and focuses on the investment related provisions of those treaties The 22 U S postwar FCN treaties were the first bilateral investment treaties ever concluded and nearly all of the core provisions in the modern network of more than 3000 international investment agreements worldwide trace their origin to these FCN treaties This book explains the original understanding of the language of this vast network of agreements which have been and continue to be the subject of hundreds of international arbitrations and billions of dollars in claims It is based on a review of some 32 000 pages of negotiating history housed in the National Archives This book demonstrates that the investment provisions were founded on the New Deal liberalism of the Roosevelt Truman administrations and were intended to acquire for U S companies investing abroad the same protections that foreign investors already received in the United States under the U S Constitution It chronicles the failed U S attempt to obtain protection for investment through the proposed International Trade Organization ITO providing the first and only history of the investment related provisions in the ITO Charter It then shows how the FCN treaties which dated back to 1776 and originally concerned with establishing trade and maritime relations were re conceptualized as investment treaties to provide investment protection bilaterally This book is also a work of diplomatic history offering an account of the negotiating history of each of the 22 treaties and describing U S negotiating policy and strategy The Causes and Consequences of Antitrust Fred S. McChesney, William F.

Shughart, 1995-03-15 Why has antitrust legislation not lived up to its promise of promoting free market competition and protecting consumers Assessing 100 years of antitrust policy in the United States this book shows that while the antitrust laws claim to serve the public good they are as vulnerable to the influence of special interest groups as are agricultural welfare or health care policies Presenting classic studies and new empirical research the authors explain how antitrust caters to self serving business interests at the expense of the consumer The contributors are Peter Asch George Bittlingmayer Donald J Boudreaux Malcolm B Coate Louis De Alessi Thomas J DiLorenzo B Epsen Eckbo Robert B Ekelund Jr Roger L Faith Richard S Higgins William E Kovacic Donald R Leavens William F Long Fred S McChesney Mike McDonald Stephen Parker Richard A Posner Paul H Rubin Richard Schramm Joseph J Seneca William F Shughart II Jon Silverman George J Stigler Robert D Tollison Charlie M Weir Peggy Wier and Bruce Yandle Public Policy, 1904 A Study of the Antitrust Laws: Corporate mergers United States.
