required large public organizations or bureaucracies to deliver on their promises Yet most people leading and managing those agencies lack understanding of the full toolkit of values insights and findings that are necessary Considering how public administration can learn from a wide range of disciplines ranging from history and the humanities to management and the social sciences Marc Holzer delineates new ways of transforming organizations and building trust in governments A Government Ill Executed Paul C. Light, 2009-09-30 The federal government is having increasing difficulty faithfully executing the laws which is what Alexander Hamilton called the true test of a good government This book diagnoses the symptoms explains their general causes and proposes ways to improve the effectiveness of the federal government Employing Hamilton's seven measures of an energetic federal service Paul Light shows how the government is wanting in each measure After assessing the federal report card Light offers a comprehensive agenda for reform including new laws limiting the number of political appointees reducing the layers of government management reducing the size of government as its Baby Boom employees retire revitalizing the federal career and reducing the heavy outsourcing of federal work Although there are many ways to fix each of the seven problems with government only a comprehensive agenda will bring the kind of reform needed to reverse the overall erosion of the capacity to faithfully execute all the laws B-SPACE 2019 Siti Kholifah, Muhaimin Zulhair Achsin, Ratnaningsih Damayanti, Muhammad Rohmadi, Memet Sudaryanto, 2020-05-12 We are delighted to introduce the 2019 Brawijaya International Conference on Social and Political Sciences B SPACE The aim of B SPACE Brawijaya International Conference on Social and Political Sciences is to provide a platform for various stakeholders varying from professionals researchers and academicians from across the world to present their scientific take and research results on social and political matters The theme of B SPACE 2019 was Gender Digital Society 4.0 The amount of participants registered on the initial phase was 140 However BSPACE 2019 cumulatively consisted of 79 scientific papers presented orally by the respective authors during the two day conference The oral presentation sessions were opened for the public allowing a productive interaction between the presenters and the audience where knowledge and information were further shared Aside from the opportunity to present them in front of an audience the submitted scientific papers are processed to be published in EAI EUDL proceedings Try Common Sense Philip K. Howard, 2019-01-29 Award winning author Philip K Howard lays out the blueprint for a new American society In this brief and powerful book Philip K Howard attacks the failed ideologies of both parties and proposes a radical simplification of government to re-empower Americans in their daily choices Nothing will make sense until people are free to roll up their sleeves and make things work The first steps are to abandon the philosophy of correctness and our devotion to mindless compliance Americans are a practical people They want government to be practical Washington can't do anything practically Worse its bureaucracy prevents Americans from doing what's sensible Conservative bluster won't fix this problem Liberal hand-wringing won't work either Frustrated voters reach for extremist leaders but they too get bogged down in the bureaucracy that has accumulated over the past century Howard shows how America can push the reset button and create simpler frameworks focused on public goals where officials prepare for the shock are actually accountable for getting the job done Understanding Your Social Agency Armand Lauffer, 2011

Understanding Your Nonprofit Agency written by internationally renowned scholar Armand Lauffer will fill the growing need for the distinction between corporate business operations and nonprofit operations The book will focus on how nonprofit agencies operate and not how they are managed It has been assumed that both entities function similarly Currently this assumption is increasingly seen as groundless nonprofit and profit driven organizations have different goals and function differently from each other This text addresses the current trend to differentiate how nonprofits are distinct Public Integrity, 2000 Public Service Kevin Thorley, Public service embodies the commitment to work for the greater good prioritizing the well being and needs of society over personal gain It is rooted in the principles of altruism civic duty and social responsibility often manifesting through roles in government education healthcare and community organizations Public servants are driven by a desire to contribute to the common welfare ensuring that essential services and resources are accessible to all particularly the most vulnerable members of society The essence of public service lies in its foundational values integrity transparency accountability and equity These values guide public servants in their decision making processes ensuring that their actions reflect the best interests of the public It also involves a deep understanding of the diverse needs within a community and a commitment to addressing these needs with fairness and compassion Furthermore public service is about fostering trust between the public and institutions By consistently acting with honesty and fairness public servants can build and maintain the public's confidence in their ability to govern and manage resources effectively This trust is essential for the functioning of a democratic society as it ensures public cooperation and support for initiatives that benefit the community as a whole Ultimately public service is a calling that requires dedication empathy and a strong sense of justice It is about making a positive impact on society ensuring that all individuals have the opportunity to thrive and creating a legacy of service that inspires future generations Congressional Record United States.
