Published Pottery Of Palestine:

Published Pottery of Palestine Larry G. Herr, Warren Charles Trenchard, 1996 This is a printed out version of a bibliography of published drawings and photographs of Palestinian pottery likely to be of use only to scholars and students researching pottery from the Neolithic to Ottoman periods in Palestine Though rather archaic in the era of the World Wide Web further information about the original database can be found at lherr ccinet ab ca Palestinian Ceramic Chronology Paul W. Lapp, 2022-07-21 Palestine Institute Publication Pacific School of Religion (Berkeley, Calif.). Palestine Institute, 1928 The Economy of Roman Palestine Ze'ev Safrai, 2003-09-02 The Economy of Roman Palestine presents a description of the economy of the province of Judea Palestina in the Roman era AD70 to AD400 on the basis of a broad selection of primary rabbinic sources and a considerable volume of archaeological findings The period studied is characterised by demographic growth and corresponding economic development The work describes the agricultural and agrarian structure of the province the pattern of settlement trade and other aspects depicting an economy based to a great extent on an open market Analysis and Publication of Ceramics Jeffrey A. Blakely, W. J. Bennett (jr.), 1989 The editors put forward ideas for a database for pottery recording forms possibly from drawings fabrics findspots These ideas are commented on and extended by others concerned that pottery evidence is not being used as fully as it could be Examples are chiefly Near Eastern pottery from Caesarea Maritima and Levantine mortaria but the ideas are of general application and include thoughts on physical and chemical data as well as wider socio economic topics My Father's World John D. Wineland, Mark Ziese, James Riley Estep, 2011-04-11 My Father s World is a memorial volume celebrating the life of Dr Reuben G Bullard and it focuses on the archaeology and history of the Mediterranean world The essays in this volume are all written by former students of Dr Bullard and the diverse range of topics highlights his broad interests in geology archaeology and biblical studies Bullard was a long time Professor of Geology and Archaeology at Cincinnati Christian University He pioneered the field of Archaeological Geology in the 1960s at Tell Gezer Occasional Publication - Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland, 1924 Ancient Ammon B. MacDonald, Younker, 2023-11-13 This work is a presentation on a people of Transjordan known to readers of the Bible as a neighbour and often an enemy of first millennium B C Israel Topics include a review of archaeological research in Ammon the emergence of the Ammonites and Ammonite territory and sites Syria and Palestine Jean Perrot, Aharon Kempinski, Michael Avi-Yonah, 1978 Egyptianization and Elite Emulation in Ramesside Palestine C.R. Higginbotham, 2022-02-28 A strong Egyptian presence and governance of 13th and 12th centuries B C Palestine has since long become clear from both textual and archaeological evidence How this Egyptianization came about in Ramesside Palestine forms the focus of the present study Carolyn Higginbotham convincingly attends to internal factors affecting the region s cultural and political development Two models are carefully considered The prevailing theory that Egyptian policy shifted from economic and political domination to military occupation is contrasted with a new convincing model elite emulation derived from modern core periphery studies The author s conclusion is that Egyptian policy remained largely unchanged and that the increased Egyptianization of the material culture represents voluntary adoption of the overpowering Egyptian culture by the Palestinian ruling class The appendices are especially important for scholars interested in ancient international connections in Palestine they catalogue all Egyptian and Egyptian style material from LB IIB Iron 1A Palestine

The Fortress of the Raven Marcus Milwright,2008 In c 1142 work started on the construction of a major castle in the southern Jordanian town of Karak The largest of a network of fortifications Karak castle became the administrative centre of an important Crusader lordship After 1188 Karak and its territories were incorporated into the Ayyubid Mamluk and Ottoman sultanates This book traces the history of Karak and the surrounding lands during the Middle Islamic period c 1100 1650 CE The book offers an innovative methodology combining primary textual sources in Latin and Arabic with archaeological data principally the ceramic record as a means to reconstruct the fluctuating economic relations between Karak and other regions of the Middle East and eastern Mediterranean After Alexander John Tidmarsh,2024-05-01 After Alexander The Hellenistic and Early Roman Periods at Pella in Jordan details the excavation of Hellenistic and Early Roman period horizons carried out at Pella in Jordan by the University of Sydney since 1979 It deals with both the stratigraphy of the Hellenistic and Early Roman levels at Pella and catalogues the pottery recovered from them Short summaries of relevant work by the College of Wooster are also included After a brief introduction to the site and history of excavations a detailed description of the Hellenistic and Early Roman levels on the main mound of Khirbet Fahl on nearby Tell Husn and in select hinterland locations then follows The heart of the study centres on a detailed catalogue of the corpus of some 900 individual Hellenistic Early Roman pottery fragments accompanied by outline drawings for each fragment and a smaller number of images of the more important pieces Discussion of the relevance and importance of the material remains to the history and archaeology of the Hellenistic and Early Roman periods at Pella and more broadly to Jordan and the southern Levant concludes the study Near Eastern Archaeology Suzanne Richard,2003-06-30 Filling a gap in classroom texts more than 60 essays by major scholars in the field have been gathered to create the most up to date and complete book available on Levantine and Near Eastern archaeology The Archaeology of the Early Islamic Settlement in Palestine Jodi Magness,2003-06-30 There is a common perception that the Muslim conquest of Palestine in the seventh century caused a decline in the number and prosperity of settlements throughout the country The role played by archaeology in perpetuating this view claims Magness is particularly insidious because it is perceived rightly or wrongly as providing scientific and therefore objective data Thus archaeological evidence is frequently cited by scholars as proof or confirmation that Palestine declined after the Muslim conquest and especially after the rise of the Abbasids in the mid eighth century Instead Magness argues that the archaeological evidence freed insofar as possible of political and or religious biases supports the idea that

Palestine and Syria experienced a tremendous growth in population and prosperity between the mid sixth and mid seventh centuries Such a radical shift in the interpretation of the evidence guarantees that this volume will be a benchmark with which future interpretations must reckon The book includes a CD with map and key which provides additional information regarding the sites studied and the area examined Israel Daniel I. Block,2008-10-01 A collection of essays responding to the radical claims that Israel and its history actually began following the Babylonian exile and that the history of Israel we read about in the Bible is a fictionalized account The Economy of the Later Roman Province of Third Palestine Walter D. Ward,2024-07-18 This book provides a comprehensive examination of the evidence for the economy of the later Roman province of Third Palestine which roughly corresponds to southern Jordan the Negev desert in Israel and the Sinai Peninsula

Palestine in the Bronze and Iron Ages Jonathan N Tubb,2016-06-16 A collection of key articles on Syro Palestinian archaeology of the Bronze and Iron Ages compiled in honor of archaeologist Olga Tufnell excavator of the biblical city of Lachish including contributions by Amiran Callaway Dever Stager and Ussishkin Bulletin of the American Schools of Oriental Research American Schools of Oriental Research,1920 Beginning in 1922 one issue each year includes the organization s annual Report Palestine During the Neolithic and Chalcolithic Periods R. De Vaux, Ceramics and Change in the Early Bronze Age of the Southern Levant Graham Philip,Douglas Baird,2000-12-01 This book sets out the primary issues and current debates in the use of ceramics to reconstruct and explain cultural economic and social processes in the Early Bronze age By bringing together research on pottery from various parts of the southern Levant it allows direct comparison of contemporary material from different regions Alongside these empirical studies are discussions of general ceramic issues so that the book highlights the potential of pottery as an investigative tool and indicates fruitful directions for future research within the traditionally conservative field of Levantine archaeology
