The Pulpit Commentary was first published between 1880 and 1919 and is a highly respected work written by conservative trustworthy men. Containing over 22 000 pages and 95 000 entries it is one of the largest and best selling homiletic commentary sets of all time. It was directed by editors Joseph Exell and Henry Donald Maurice Spence Jones and utilized more than 100 authors over a 30 year span. When reading this commentary it is not difficult to see why it has remained a favorite amongst pastors for more than 100 years. There are three key elements which set this apart from its contemporaries: the first being that it gives an exposition or verse by verse annotation of each verse in the Bible. The second element is that it explores the framework of the text: the homiletics. Finally it supplies the homilies with multiple model sermons from various authors. Also included is a translation as well as historical and geographical information. The Evangelical Magazine and Missionary Chronicle declared: "This commentary bids fair to take a conspicuous place among the ever multiplying aids to the study of the Holy Scriptures. It will revive the great work of Lange and will far exceed the Speaker's Commentary in the bulk and fullness of its material. The peculiarity of the Pulpit Commentary is that it offers special assistance to the preacher: first by giving him a critical and exegetical exposition of the text of Scripture and then providing him with succinct and helpful directions as to the preachable aspects of the chapter and paragraph already explained. The print edition of this set typically retails for more than 1 000 making the current offered price a very good bargain. Due to its size it has been broken up into nine separate volumes: Volume 1 Genesis to Joshua; Volume 2 Judges to 2 Kings; Volume 3 1 Chronicles to Job; Volume 4 Psalms to Song of Songs; Volume 5 Isaiah to Daniel; Volume 6 Hosea to Malachi; Volume 7 Matthew to John; Volume 8 Acts to Philippians; Volume 9 Colossians to Revelation. The footnotes have been placed in line with the text with each footnote number enclosed in red brackets i.e. and the text in green. There is also a linked table of contents at the beginning of each volume for ease of navigation.

Key Features: Over 22 000 pages with more than 95 000 entries. One of the largest and exhaustive commentary sets of its kind. Contributions from over 100 authors. Expositions with thorough verse by verse commentary of each verse of the Bible. Homiletics with the framework or overall look of the text. Homilies: four to six sample sermons from various authors. Detailed information on Biblical customs.

In passing from the Galatian to the Ephesian epistle we are conscious of entering a different atmosphere We leave the region of controversy for that of meditation From the battle field we step into the hush and stillness of the temple Verses 3 14 of this chapter constitute the most sustained and perfect act of praise that is found in the apostle's letters It is as though a door were suddenly opened in heaven it shuts behind us and earthly tumult dies away The contrast between these two writings following each other in the established order of the epistles is singular and in some ways extreme They are respectively the most combative and peaceful the most impassioned and unimpassioned the most concrete and abstract the most human and divine amongst the great apostle's writings Yet there is a fundamental resemblance and identity of character The two letters are not the expression of different minds but of different phases of the same mind In the Paul of Galatians the Paul of Ephesians is latent the contemplative thinker the devout mystic behind the ardent missionary and the masterly debater Those critics who recognize the genuine apostle only in the four previous epistles and reject whatever does not conform strictly to their type do not perceive how much is needed to make up a man like the apostle Paul Without the inwardness the brooding faculty the power of abstract and metaphysical thinking displayed in the epistles of this group he could never have wrought out the system of doctrine contained in those earlier writings nor grasped the principles which he there applies with such vigour and effect That so many serious and able scholars doubt or even deny St Paul's authorship of this epistle on internal grounds and because of the contrast to which we have referred is one of those phenomena which in future histories of religious thought will be quoted as the curiosities of a hypercritical age Let us observe some of the Pauline qualities that are stamped upon the face of this document There is in the first place the apostle's intellectual note what has been well called his passion for the absolute St Paul's was one of those minds so discomposing to superficial and merely practical thinkers which cannot be content with half way conclusions For every principle he seeks its ultimate basis every line of thought he pushes to its furthest limits His gospel if he is to rest in it must supply a principle of unity that will bind together all the elements of his mental world Hence in contesting the Jewish claim to religious superiority on the ground of circumcision and the Abrahamic covenant St Paul developed in the epistle to the Galatians a religious philosophy of history he arrived at a view of the function of the law in the education of mankind which disposed not only of the question at issue but of all such questions He established for ever the principle of salvation by faith and of spiritual sonship to God What that former argument effects for the history of revelation is done here for the gospel in its relations to society and universal life The principle of Christ's headship is carried to its largest results The centre of the Church becomes the centre of the universe God's plan of the ages is disclosed ranging through eternity and embracing every form of being and gathering into one all things in the Christ In Galatians and Romans the thought of salvation by Christ breaks through Jewish limits and spreads itself over the field of history in Colossians and Ephesians the idea of life in Christ overleaps the barriers of time and human existence and brings things in heaven and things in earth and things beneath the earth under its sway     General Catalogue of the Books Detroit Public Library,1889     Galatians & Ephesians Prebendary E.
