The Thaw Susan Slater, 2020-05-06 Booklist calls the Ben Pecos mysteries from award winning author Susan Slater a series to watch. Ben Pecos finds himself leaving his new home and new wife Julie in Florida as he is sent on temporary assignment with the Indian Health Service to remote and frigid Moose Flats, Alaska. There his job will be to help set up a new clinic to address the community's problems. He soon discovers that alcoholism, drugs, and domestic violence aren't the only issues in this tiny village. Almost before he has set up his office, there are three deaths under questionable circumstances. But what do a heart attack, a drug overdose, and a frozen corpse out on the tundra have in common? Ben is shocked to learn it could all involve his ex-girlfriend who has quite a few surprises in store, including a son Ben never knew about. And when Julie rearranges her work assignment to come and spend several months with Ben in Alaska, that's when the tough questions must be answered: if they survive long enough to put together all the complex clues.
