Pupils Perceptions Of Europe Identity And Education:

Pupils' Perceptions of Europe Anne Convery,1997 Presents the results of a survey examining adolescents attitudes towards the changing face of Europe Are French children for example more informed than their British peers The text considers how much children know about the changes and how much they really care New Directions for Research in Foreign Language Education Simon Coffey,Ursula Wingate,2017-10-23 New Directions for Research in Foreign Language Education brings together contributions by reputed scholars that examine the challenges opportunities and benefits of teaching and learning foreign languages With a particular focus on languages other than English the book looks at the socio political dimension of language learning and teaching and the need to re theorize multilingualism for our age The volume includes a range of perspectives from language teaching as an act of reconciliation to language learning across the lifespan from innovations in assessment and curriculum to critical appraisals of pedagogy and textbook materials Each chapter presents a clear case study drawn from diverse contexts to illustrate the different concerns of the contributors The book is a valuable resource for all students teachers teacher educators and researchers who share an interest in researching multilingualism and the different facets of teaching and learning foreign languages Negotiating Political Identities Daniel Faas,2016-04-22 Globalization European integration and migration are challenging national identities and changing education across Europe The nation state no longer serves as the sole locus of civic participation and identity formation ceasing to have the influence it once had over the implementation of policies Drawing on rich empirical data from four schools in Germany and Britain this groundbreaking book is the first study of its kind to examine how schools mediate government policies and create distinct educational contexts to shape youth identity negotiation and integration processes Negotiating Political Identities will appeal to educationists sociologists and political scientists whose work concerns issues of migration identity citizenship and ethnicity It will also be an invaluable source of evidence for policymakers and professionals concerned with balancing cultural diversity and social cohesion in such a way as to promote more inclusive citizenship and educational policies in multiethnic multifait h schools Young People's Perceptions of Europe in a Time of Change Bruno Losito,Gabriella Agrusti,Valeria Damiani,Wolfram Schulz,2018-05-01 This open access book presents findings from 15 European countries participating in the second cycle of the IEA International Civic and Citizenship Education Study ICCS 2016 The study investigates the ways in which young people are prepared to undertake their roles as citizens in a range of countries in the second decade of the 21st century It responds to new and persisting challenges in the area of civic and citizenship education The main results presented in this book are based on data collected using a European student questionnaire and provide insights into lower secondary students views on European identity such as whether they identify as European or have opportunities to learn about Europe in school perceptions of freedom of movement and immigration such as attitudes toward immigration restriction of freedom of movement and the freedom of European citizens to live and work across Europe and perceptions of Europe and its future such as views on European cooperation expectations regarding Europe's future and attitudes toward the European Union For the 12 countries that participated in the previous cycle ICCS 2009 ICCS 2016 reveals changes in young people's perceptions of immigration and European identity between 2009 and 2016 Test and questionnaire data from the international core study are used to review the extent to which region specific perceptions are related to other factors such as students level of civic knowledge and social or educational contexts

Schools for the Future Europe John Sayer, Lynn Erler, 2012-03-08 Schools for the Future Europe brings together a team of leading academics policy makers and education professionals to explore the emergence development and application of European education policy up to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond The book charts the historical development of a Europe wide education policy and examines how that policy has sought to address such issues as European citizenship human rights and bilingual schooling Taking as examples the intended future extension of the European Schools and the European Baccalaureate and a case study of work towards the first British European Academy or Free School at Culham UK the book critically explores the interplay of EU action programmes policy and rhetoric on secondary education In the final section the editors draw on the insights of the previous chapters to outline an achievable programme for the future development of education policy structures and practice in schools for Europe European Dimensions John Field, 1998 Field addresses the European Union's desire for a unified approach to education and its content exploring the origin of this interest the tensions that underlie the policies and its impact at national level Perceptions of Europe Daniel

Gaxie, Nicolas Hubé, Jay Rowell, 2011-03-10 This book presents the main findings of a comparative qualitative survey conducted in France Germany Italy and Poland Ordinary citizens from very different social backgrounds and professions were asked a range of open ended questions allowing them to express themselves freely There have been few qualitative surveys on ordinary citizens views of European integration and none on this scale The resulting picture is very different from the self evident assumptions of many current studies on European opinions The book stresses the great diversity ambiguity and complexity of European attitudes It emphasises the causal impact of formal education political interest and involvement individual everyday exposures to European realities and the role of collective national experiences of European integration and national history Teaching Modern Languages in the Primary School Patricia Driscoll, David Frost, 2005-06-23 It has been argued for some time that to improve language learning in Britain we need to start earlier as many other European countries do This book is addressed to policy makers and teachers who are considering the possibility of getting involved in the teaching of MFL in the primary school EUDISED European Educational Research Yearbook 1997/98, 1999

Young Citizens' Views and Engagement in a Changing Europe Valeria Damiani, Bruno Losito, Gabriella Agrusti, Wolfram Schulz, 2024-11-18 This open access report presents the European results from the third cycle 2022 of the IEA International Civic and Citizenship Education Study ICCS Eighteen countries and two benchmarking participants the German states of North Rhine Westphalia and Schleswig Holstein administered the European student questionnaire to target grade students The purpose of the European student questionnaire is to explore specific European related civic and citizenship issues derived from the overarching ICCS 2022 assessment framework It includes questions on students opinions on European related civic and citizenship issues such as students sense of European identity students opportunities for learning about Europe students attitudes toward free movement of European citizens the European Union and cooperation among European countries It also includes questions on students sustainable behaviors and those related to political consumerism ICCS 2022 data allows education systems to evaluate the strengths of educational policies and measure progress in their educational policies

Internationalisation in Secondary Education in Europe Henk Oonk, Ralf Maslowski, Greetje van der Werf, 2011-08-01 The scope of the book is an integrated discussion of several aspects of the internationalisation process in secondary education in Europe The European and International Orientation EIO in education is dealt with from different national angles and theoretical visions supported by recently conducted empirical studies in several countries The book describes national policies concerning EIO the way in which schools implement these policies and the success and difficulties of the activities that they undertake A connection is made with ideas of citizenship in a European perspective and the question comes up for discussion if there can be spoken of common European values Important issues are explored like the tension between national identity and European communality as well as the risk of EIO in increasing the gap between lower and higher educated students The mission of the book is provide not only background information to all who are interested in or involved in internationalisation of education social integration and European citizenship but to provide recommendations for future practice as well A central focus in these recommendations is the Common Framework for Europe Competence CFEC the first model that offers the possibility to structurally shape the knowledge and skills concerning the European and international developments in the school Directions for future elaboration of this framework and its implementation in the teaching and learning process in schools are discussed

Revisiting Insider-Outsider Research in Comparative and International Education Michael Crossley, Lore Arthur, Elizabeth McNess, 2015-11-01 This volume recognises how many researchers across the social sciences and in comparative and international education in particular see themselves as insiders or outsiders or more pertinently shifting combinations of both in the research process The book revisits and problematises these concepts in an era where the global mobility of researchers and ideas has increased dramatically and when advances in comparative qualitative research methodologies seek to be more inclusive collaborative participatory reflexive and nuanced Collectively the chapters argue that in the context of such change it has become more difficult to categorise and label groups and individuals as being inside or outside systems professional communities or research environments In doing so it is recognised that individual and group identities can be multiple flexible and changing such that the boundary between the inside and the outside is permeable less stable and less easy to draw The book draws upon an exciting collection of original research carried out in a diversity of educational systems from British European Latin American Indian Ocean South Asian African and Chinese contexts and cultures This develops a deep and innovative reconsideration of key issues that must be faced by all researchers involved in the planning and conduct of in depth field research This is a challenging and stimulating methodological contribution designed to advance critical and reflective thinking while providing practical and accessible guidance insights and support for new and experienced researchers within and beyond the field of comparative and international education
