Soler,2017-12-12 This book is concerned with food autobiographies written by men from the 1980s to the present It concentrates on how food has transformed autobiographical narratives and how these define the ways men eat and cook nowadays After presenting a historical overview of the place of food within men s autobiography this volume analyzes the reasons for our present interest in food and the proliferation of life narratives focused on cooking Then it centers around the identities that male chefs are taking on in the writing of their lives and the generic models they use the heroic the criminal and the hunting autobiographical scripts This study gives evidence that autobiographies are crucial in the redefinition of the new masculinities emerging in the kitchen It will appeal to readers interested in Food Studies Autobiographical Studies Men s Studies and American Literature and Culture Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Our Hidden Settlement Mona

Ballge Miron,2023-08-07 My journey goes back in time to Burton Michigan s history when it was still the Atherton Settlement 1835 1855 Genesee County was formed in 1836 Michigan wasn t even a state until 1837 This was an exciting time for new families to settle here finding land of their own for the first time freedom of religion and new adventures I ll be going through the yearly traditions behind the holidays and inventions along the way I hope you enjoy my historical journey Learning about the settlers on Thread River was a lot of fun how they made the Atherton Trail the four Atherton families working together to survive the cold winters They built strong shelters saved food and wood for the winter with the help of the natives In 1835 the Atherton Settlement was established the Atherton families built a strong community over the next twelve months with thirty families They built their homes barns wagons three churches a mill and a trading post The first school in the settlement was founded in 1836 the Atherton School was a one room schoolhouse built on the corner of Atherton Trail and Center Road where the Burton Memorial Library sits now Betsey Atherton was the first teacher Throughout my research we have a lot to be thankful for especially the four Atherton men that were brave enough to stay and never give up on the settlement As more people joined the settlement for the next 20 years some had military backgrounds and mostly coming from New York With all manner of trades to prosper as the community when more schools were needed the farmers would build one in each area for the children 1855 Atherton Settlement combined with other farms to become Burton Township the second largest township but without a post office so HIDDEN The Dogs of Bedlam Farm Jon Katz,2005-09-13 Dogs are blameless devoid of calculation neither blessed nor cursed with human motives They can t really be held responsible for what they do But we can from The Dogs of Bedlam Farm When Jon Katz adopted a border collie named Orson his whole world changed Gone were the two yellow Labs he wrote about in A Dog Year as was the mountaintop cabin they loved Katz moved into an old farmhouse on forty two acres of pasture and woods with a menagerie a ram named Nesbitt fifteen ewes a lonely donkey named Carol a baby donkey named Fanny and three border collies Training Orson was a demanding project But a perceptive dog trainer and friend told Katz If you want to have a better dog you will just have to be a better goddamned human It was a lesson Katz took to heart He now sees his dogs as a reflection of his willingness to improve as well as a critical reminder of his shortcomings Katz shows us that dogs are often what we make them They may have their own traits and personalities but in the end they are mirrors of our own lives living breathing testaments to our strengths and frustrations our families and our pasts The Dogs of Bedlam Farm recounts a harrowing winter Katz spent on a remote windswept hillside in upstate New York with a few life saving friends ugly ghosts from the past and more livestock than any novice should attempt to manage Heartwarming and full of drama insight and hard won wisdom it is the story of his several dogs forced Katz to confront his sense of humanity and how he learned the places a dog could lead him and the ways a doge could change him A to Zoo Rebecca L.
