Dog House Carol Prisant, 2010-05-06 Dog House wasn't supposed to be a book about love It was supposed to be a hugely funny account of the dogs in Carol Prisant's life And not just the dogs but that first bird she found at Woolworth's the monkey that fell in love with her husband's leg the thankless tiny turtle and the goldfish her pet challenged mother flushed down the toilet Somehow though this straightforward telling got a little blindsided by things like making marriage work and home owning and children and a profession and her dear supportive husband Millard Which is why the goldfish will just have to wait for the sequel This book is still about cold noses warm bellies four on the floor and a snuggler or two Your basic fur family It's also about the love of a mother for her son a wife for her husband a husband for some dogs and the love it takes to make a haunted house a home Your basic family furnishings Throw in a lot of antiques a couple triumphs over adversity and a more than seems fair share of heartbreaking loss and you have Dog House the warm absorbing and humorous tale of dogs and marriage love and marriage and life

Jake and Julia Find the Puppy's Home Ed Goebig, 2012-11-08 Jake and Julia love to play outside so moving to their new house with a big yard made them very happy One day while playing outside on a nice sunny day a little puppy ran up to see them Since Jake and Julia's family had just moved to the new neighborhood they have never seen the puppy before Having had a dog before they were very friendly to the puppy The puppy was just as friendly to them They were petting the puppy for a few minutes assuming its owner would soon arrive To their surprise no one showed The puppy did not have a collar or tag so Jake and Julia did not know where the puppy lived Instead of asking their Dad for help they decided to help the puppy on their own Julia came up with the idea to go door to door to find the puppys family Jake and Julia were on a mission to help this lost puppy After they set off their Dad came outside and the kids were nowhere to be found Their Dad called their names a couple times and did not get a response As Jake and Julias Father began to get a little nervous his next door neighbor came outside He told their Father two kids just came to their door with a puppy to ask if it lived there The puppy did not live there so the kids continued on The neighbor said the kids headed across the street As their Father left the neighbors house he sees Jake and Julia running up their driveway As he meets up with his kids they were so excited about what they did Jake says we found a lost puppy his home and his name is Sam While their Father was proud for what they did he did explain to Jake and Julia they are not allowed to leave the yard without telling him The next day Sam was being walked by his owner when he sees Jake and Julia playing outside This time he is on a leash and brings his owner to the kids to say hi and thanks for finding his home

The Dog Fancier ,1928 A Trained Dog Is a Good Dog Jan Meyer,2012-10-04 A dog can be a wonderful companion with enormous affection for you and your family His keen senses and alertness can provide you with much needed protection but it is important to remember that you must be prepared to care for your pet for the next twelve or more years Like a child it will depend on you not only for its health and well being but also for dedicated training in order to become a friendly well mannered dog that is a pleasure for you and others It must also be remembered that we do not live in a dogs world but that our dogs are the ones who must learn to live in a human world It is therefore our responsibility to adequately prepare them for the unfamiliar environment in which we place them Society does not punish a child for pulling a dogs tail but will punish the dog for biting that child Before a handler can train his dog he must understand what is involved in the training process He needs to understand what is required from him and the dog in each part of each of the different obedience exercises He must be able to teach his dog what it is expected to know help it as much as possible and make it as easy as possible for the dog He needs to know about positive reinforcement in order to get the targeted behavior to recur and to reward good behavior Above all he needs to know when and how much to praise and what to do when the dog is not performing a task it was taught All this he cannot learn during the relatively short time he spends each week with the instructor at the club Six days a week he is alone at home with his dog and needs to continue to build on the training he received at the club He needs to remember the sequence of training steps and how to break them up into the small component parts to be mastered by the dog And when he becomes confused he needs help or notes to refer to This is what I had in mind when I decided to write these notes on basic dog obedience training There are many basic training methods from clicker training to the more traditional methods that can be used to train a dog for obedience work The perfect training method does not exist otherwise we would all have had copies made and used on our dogs No we are all learning and improving I have adopted an eclectic approach to dog training that is I have over many years studied different training methods and selected from them what will work for most dogs At times however I may use a combination of these methods or I may shift from one method to another depending on the training need or exercise What is very important to me is that the reader must not only know about the best methods of teaching dogs today but must understand why a dog behaves the way it does Above all it must be remembered that dog training must be fun for both dog and trainer Most dog owners do not ask much of their dogs they ask only that the dogs obey some basic commands and that they are well behaved at home and in public That is why all dogs should at least do the Canine Good Citizen test I hope my notes will add to your knowledge of basic dog obedience training and that your trained dog will bring much joy to you and your family Jan Meyer BA SA MEd DCRT US HP MT
