Frasca, 2010-06 For more information please visit www.sohelpmegodrosalind.com YouTube link <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=a7e4w6IA82E> Rosalind is a survivor of sexual abuse as a child vicious domestic violence bigamy and addiction She candidly takes you to hospitals and courtrooms through the passage ways of single parenting and care giving simultaneously In order to cope with the nightmare of choices taken from her or foolish choices of her own she travels down the road which leads to self destruction This memoir offers readers an intimate look into how one woman struggled with life s seemingly unbearable hairpin curves yet coped with them all through resilience and faith finding redemption amid agony Woven with love and craftily written the author gives insight within the pages of SO HELP ME GOD glimpses and glimmers of life It is an honest account of one woman who within her brokenness and solitude searched for the courage to overcome life s austerity This is an inspiring true story that intertwines hope forgiveness healing and God s perfect timing into one hard to put down book

Gettin' High David Bourns, 2024-06-05 The stories in Getting High take place mainly in New York City and Puerto Rico though three are set in rural Michigan where the author grew up They take place by and large during the turbulent decade of the 1960 s As the title suggests many characters smoke marijuana and experience its eerie pleasurable effects That is one current running through several stories though not a major theme Rather the thematic anchor is the search for love and meaning in a changing transient world The characters are generally involved with music as performers or students and what it means to become a professional musician Music as a means to communicate truly with another person is also an important facet of the plot lines in the stories whether this is on a river tour or on a formal concert stage and the characters strive to find the essence of their art in various ways Of course music goes beyond words and this musical quest is what propels many of the characters lives and loves Also the real life business of music is another salient aspect for character development Three of the stories are set in the rural landscape of the author s youth Here the theme of the demise of the family farm is set forth against the backdrop of the long transition from an agrarian to an urban life style which has taken place throughout the 20th century All of the stories in Getting High were written many years ago while the author himself was working as a professional musician in the Puerto Rico Symphony As such they may seem somewhat dated since this was a time before iphones the internet Tik Tok and social media People needed to communicate more directly with one another in a more personal manner And this is reflected in the plots and dialogue of the stories The roles of men and women were also for better or worse more clearly defined and this perspective undoubtedly finds its way into the portrayal of the characters as they seek to explore new boundaries and experiences from the farm to the concert stage to smoking weed a long trajectory set against the backdrop of the Vietnam war Though these stories were mostly written over 50 years ago the author believes that they are still relevant in today s modern world The subject of abortion figures in A Love Story as well as interracial love And the racism still lingering in the South of the early 60 s and which America is still struggling to truly confront plays a role in Milly A Fantasy Undoubtedly the transformative potential of music has not diminished over the years whether it be jazz folk music Hip Hop Rap or the classical music of the formal concert stage Humanity still thrives on music's inherent message of hope and its curative power Finally it is the author's hope that at the very least readers will find something of themselves in the characters of these tales as they seek out life's ephemeral joys happiness and fulfillment in today's challenging world
