Chinese-Islamic Works of Art, 1644-1912 Emily Byrne Curtis, 2019-11-27 Chinese Islamic studies have concentrated thus far on the arts of earlier periods with less attention paid to works from the Qing Dynasty 1644 1912 This book focuses on works of Chinese Islamic art from the late seventeenth century to the present day and bring to the reader's attention several new areas for consideration The book examines glass wares which were probably made for a local Chinese Muslim clientele illustrating a fascinating mixture of traditional Chinese and Muslim craft traditions While the inscriptions on them can be related directly to the mosque lamps of the Arab world their form and style of decoration is characteristically that of Han Chinese Several contemporary Chinese Muslim artists have succeeded in developing a unique fusion of calligraphic styles from both cultures Other works examined include enamels porcelains and interior painted snuff bottles with emphasis on either those with Arabic inscriptions or on works by Chinese Muslim artists The book includes a chapter written by Dr Shelly Xue and an addendum written by Dr Riccardo Joppert This book will appeal to scholars working in art history religious studies Chinese studies Chinese history religious history and material culture

The Substance of Fiction Sophie Volpp, 2022-06-28 Do the portrayals of objects in literary texts represent historical evidence about the material culture of the past Or are things in books more than things in the world Sophie Volpp considers fictional objects of the late Ming and Qing that defy being read as illustrative of historical things Instead she argues fictional objects are often signs of fictionality themselves calling attention to the nature of the relationship between literature and materiality Volpp examines a series of objects a robe a box and a shell a telescope a plate glass mirror and a painting drawn from the canonical works frequently mined for information about late imperial material culture including the novels The Plum in the Golden Vase and The Story of the Stone as well as the short fiction of Feng Menglong Ling Mengchu and Li Yu She argues that although fictional objects invite readers to think of them as illustrative in fact inconsistent and discontinuous representation disconnects the literary object from potential historical analogues The historical resonances of literary objects illuminate the rhetorical strategies of individual works of fiction and more broadly conceptions of fictionality in the Ming and Qing Rather than offering a transparent lens on the past fictional objects train the reader to be aware of the fallibility of perception A deeply insightful analysis of late Ming and Qing texts and reading practices The Substance of Fiction has important implications for Chinese literary studies history and art history as well as the material turn in the humanities
