Language Ideology, Policy and Planning in Peru Serafín M. Coronel-Molina, 2015-09-14 This book explores the role of language academies in preserving and revitalizing minority or endangered languages The author studies the controversial High Academy of the Quechua Language HAQL in Peru the efficacy of which has been questioned by some experts The book delves into the positions attitudes ideologies and practices of the HAQL and the role it has played in language policy and planning in the Andean region The author uses ethnographic fieldwork to support what was previously only anecdotal evidence from individuals viewing the Academy from the outside This book would appeal to anyone studying the sociolinguistics of the Quechua language as well as to those studying broader issues of Indigenous language policy and planning maintenance and revitalization

Language Choices Martin Pütz, 1997-02-13 This volume is about various aspects of the theory and application of language contact and language conflict phenomena seen from an interdisciplinary perspective The focus is on the linguistic social psychological and educational issues conditions constraints and consequences involved in the status and use of languages in multilingual settings The book is divided into four sections dealing with the following areas Theoretical issues This section addresses key issues such as the nature of the concepts of language maintenance language loyalty and language identity language shift

The Rhetoric of Topics and Forms Gianna Zocco, 2021-01-18 The fourth volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes articles that study thematic and formal elements of literary texts Although the question of prioritizing either the level of content or that of form has often provoked controversies most contributions here treat them as internally connected While theoretical considerations inform many of the readings the main interest of most articles can be described as rhetorical in the widest sense given that the ancient discipline of rhetoric did not only include the study of rhetorical figures and tropes such as metaphor irony or satire but also that of topoi which were originally viewed as the places where certain arguments could be found but later came to represent the arguments or intellectual themes themselves Another feature shared by most of the articles is the tendency of undeclared thematology which not only reflects the persistence of the charge of positivism but also shows that most scholars prefer to locate themselves within more specific often interdisciplinary fields of literary study In this sense this volume does not only prove the ongoing relevance of traditional fields such as rhetoric and thematology but provides contributions to currently flourishing research areas among them literary multilingualism literature and emotions and ecocriticism

Language Policy in Britain and France Dennis Ernest Ager, 1995-02-01 Examines the making of language policy and language policy itself in Britain and France looking at how disciplines such as sociolinguistics and the analysis of the political process help in studying language policy and policymaking Details stages methods and outcomes of the policymaking process and compares policies in the two countries with case studies on areas including the Welsh Language Act of 1993 and language policy for immigrants
