Milton and Questions of History Mary Ellen Nyquist, Feisal Gharib Mohamed, Mary Nyquist, 2012-01-01 Milton and Questions of History considers the contribution of several classic studies of Milton written by Canadians in the twentieth century It contemplates whether these might be termed a coherent school of Milton studies in Canada and it explores how these concerns might intervene in current critical and scholarly debates on Milton and more broadly on historicist criticism in its relationship to renewed interest in literary form The volume opens with a selection of seminal articles by noted scholars including Northrop Frye Hugh McCallum Douglas Bush Ernest Sirluck and A S P Woodhouse Subsequent essays engage and contextualize these works while incorporating fresh intellectual concerns The Introduction and Afterword frame the contents so that they constitute a dialogue between past and present critical studies of Milton by Canadian scholars

Religion And Politics In America, Robert Booth Fowler, Allen D. Hertzke, 2004-08-06 Religion and politics are never far from the headlines but their relationship remains complex and often confusing In this significantly revised third edition of Religion and Politics in America the authors offer an accessible and balanced treatment of religion in American politics They explore the historical cultural and legal contexts that underlie religious engagement while also highlighting the pragmatic and strategic political realities that religious organizations and people face Incorporating the best and most up to date scholarship the authors assess the politics of Roman Catholics evangelical mainline and African American Protestants Jews Muslims and other conventional and not so conventional American religious movements The work examines important subjects concerning religion and its relationship to gender race and class The treatment of recent voting behavior provides an in depth understanding for students of how religion and politics relate in practice These core topics along with specific contemporary case studies useful focus study
