Achebe's Legacy James Ogude, 2015-12-01 Chinua Achebe's novels and essays have always drawn our attention to issues of memory, the story, history, and our own obligation to history as Africans. Achebe constantly goes back to the authority of narrative, the story, and as the subsequent generations of African writers like Chimamanda Adichie keep returning to to celebrate Africa's many stories, its moments of failure and triumph. Achebe more than any other writer on this continent has inspired many and hopefully the African story tellers of the coming centuries, irrespective of their location, will continue to be inspired by him. This collection of essays is an enduring tribute to this rich legacy of Achebe. Sankofa Amenyedzi, Seyram B., Maton, Yosi Apollos, Yele, Marceline L., 2023 BiAS 39 is an essay collection on women's Liberation Theology in West Africa, issued as one of three regional volumes commissioned in preparation of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians (CIRCLE) return to Ghana, its place of birth, after 35 years. The volumes arose within the context of preparing the meeting in July 2024 by remembering the founding members of the CIRCLE. The three regional volumes focus on exploring South BiAS 41, East Central BiAS 40, and West African BiAS 39. Womanist feminist Liberation Theology generated since the launch of the CIRCLE in 1989. The contributions on the lives and works of groundbreaking African women in the Theology of Liberation constitute an international, interreligious, and interdisciplinary compendium for redemptive theological research.

Feminism Dennis S. Erasga, Michael Eduard L. Labayandoy, 2023-12-13 By focusing on new materiality, this edited volume offers new optics on the affordance of women's physical and objective body. The interdisciplinary essays assembled in the book interrogate the concepts of corporeality and embodiment by interpreting them as material enactivism of a woman's physical body geared toward performance and demonstration, respectively. The book situates bodily movements as agentic initiatives to make sense of women's bodies in motion. Although flesh, in its constitution, a woman's body is the very material entity that does not only perform what it is expected to do for its many audiences, as in spectacle, but also its corporeality imputes a demonstrative kinetics hitherto associated with the objective body in recent social theorizing. The Monomyth Reboot Nadia Salem, 2023-12-12 In this book, Nadia Salem examines and questions the enduring relevance of the monomyth or the hero's journey for storytellers and their audiences. Created by Joseph Campbell and largely popularized by George Lucas the hero's journey has come to define mythic quests for all. However in recent years this genderless paradigm has lost its appeal as a repetitive Bildungsroman and as a result Salem argues for the inclusion of the heroine's journey as a Künstlerroman and a voice of alterity. Where the hero's journey reflects a coming of age the heroine's journey reflects a coming of middle age which are arguably equally necessary for the complete fulfillment of character. Taking a fresh look at the monomyth Salem analyzes the narratives of Eros and Psyche Jane Eyre and Titanic to argue for an emphasis on the integration of both the hero's and the heroine's journeys. Ultimately this book demonstrates how the monomyth as rebooted turns monomythic mythopoesis into fertile ground for the kinds of epiphanies demanded by transmodernism. Scholars of film studies communication composition and mythology will find this book of particular interest.

Dictators, Dictatorship and the African Novel Robert Spencer, 2021-03-01 This book examines the representation of dictators and dictatorships in African fiction. It examines how the texts clarify the origins of postcolonial dictatorships and explore the shape of the democratic egalitarian alternatives. The first chapter explains the neoliberal period after the 1970s as an effective recolonization of Africa by Western states and international financial institutions. Dictatorship is theorised as a form of concentrated economic and political power that facilitates Africa's continued dependency in the context of world capitalism. The deepest aspiration of anti-colonial revolution remains the democratization of these authoritarian states inherited from the colonial period. This book discusses four novels by Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Ahmadou Kourouma Chinua Achebe and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie in order to reveal how their themes and forms dramatize this unfinished struggle between dictatorship and radical democracy.

Stylistic Approaches to Nigerian Fiction D. Tunca, 2014-08-07 Drawing on the discipline of stylistics this book introduces a series of methodological tools and applies them to works by well known Nigerian writers including Abani Adichie and Okri. In doing so it demonstrates how attention to form fosters understanding of content in their work as well as in African and postcolonial literatures more widely.

Transatlantic Feminisms, Cheryl R. Rodriguez, Dzodzi Tsikata, Akosua Adomako Ampofo, 2015-03-18 Transatlantic Feminisms is an interdisciplinary collection of original feminist research on women's lives in Africa and the African diaspora. Demonstrating the power and value of transcontinental connections and exchanges between feminist thinkers this unique collection of fifteen essays addresses the need for global perspectives on gender ethnicity race and class. Examining diverse topics and questions in contemporary feminist research the authors describe and analyze women's lives in a host of vibrant compelling locations. There are essays exploring women's political activism in Kenya Uganda Ghana Santo Domingo Jamaica and Tanzania. Other essays explore representation and creativity in Brazil Nigeria and Miami. While one essay examines African women as conflicted immigrants in France another recounts the experiences of Haitian women trying to survive in the Dominican Republic. Core themes of the book include the evolution of black feminism black feminist political leadership the politics of identity and representation and struggles for agency and survival. These themes are interwoven throughout the volume and illuminate different geographic and cultural experiences yet very similar oppressive forces and forms of resistance Ethics and Human Rights in Anglophone African Women's Literature Chielozone Eze, 2016-12-14 This book proposes feminist empathy as a model of interpretation in the works of contemporary Anglophone African women writers The African woman's body is often portrayed as having been disabled by the patriarchal and sexist structures of society Returning to their bodies as a point of reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporary African women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozone Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and increasingly cosmopolitan communities
