Pursued By Furies A Life Of Malcolm Lowry:

Pursued by Furies Gordon Bowker, 2015-03-12 Malcolm Lowry was the troubled author of Under the Volcano 1947 a brilliant novel about the last day of an alcoholic former British consul on the Mexican Day of the Dead the manuscript of which Lowry rescued from the flames when his fisherman's shack burned down in 1944 Lowry's other books were not always so lucky his first novel Ultramarine 1930 was stolen after four years composition and resurrected from a carbon copy another manuscript In Ballast to the White Sea was destroyed in the 1944 fire An early draft of In Ballast was discovered this century and published in 2014 Lowry's life like his work was often lost to chaos Gordon Bowker's 1994 biography is a masterful account of a life spent adrift

The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Nigel H. Foxcroft, 2019-10-28 The Kaleidoscopic Vision of Malcolm Lowry Souls and Shamans is an interdisciplinary investigation of the multifaceted intuitive insight of international modernist writer Malcolm Lowry through an analysis of a selection of works and correspondence Nigel H Foxcroft analyzes his psychogeographic perception of the interconnectedness of East West cultures and civilizations in terms of pre Columbian Mesoamerican customs the Mexican Day of the Dead festival the Atlantis myth surrealism and Russian literary filmic and political influences He traces his intellectual efforts in pursuing philosophical and cosmic knowledge to bridge the gap between the natural sciences and the humanities This monograph identifies Lowry's attempts to reintegrate modernism with primitivism in his quest for an elixir of life for the survival of humanity on the brink of global catastrophe as indicated in In Ballast to the White Sea and Under the Volcano It also examines his sustained endeavors to attain psychoanalytical atonement with himself and his environment in Ultramarine Swinging the Maelstrom The Forest Path to the Spring and October Ferry to Gabriola It also discusses the odyssey on which Lowry and his literary protagonists embark to connect with the past and to gain a deeper insight into human nature in Dark as the Grave Wherein My Friend is Laid La Mordida and Through the Panama Scholars of cultural studies history humanities Latin American studies literature and Russian studies will find this book particularly useful

Swinging the Maelstrom Malcolm Lowry, 2013-11-28 Swinging the Maelstrom is the story of a musician enduring existence in the Bellevue psychiatric hospital in New York Written during his happiest and most fruitful years this novella reveals the deep healing influence that the idyllic retreat at Dollarton had on Lowry This long overdue scholarly edition will allow scholars to engage in a genetic study of the text and reconstruct step by step the creative process that developed from a rather pessimistic and misanthropic vision of the world as a madhouse The Last Address 1936 via the apocalyptic metaphors of a world on the brink of Armageddon The Last Address 1939 to a world that in spite of all its troubles leaves room for self irony and humanistic concern Swinging the Maelstrom 1942 1944 This book is published in English

The Making of Malcolm Lowry's Under the Volcano Frederick Asals, 1997 Ten years in the making Under the Volcano is the best known work of writer Malcolm Lowry Published first in 1947 it is a brilliant moving and complex novel perhaps the last fictional masterpiece to emerge from the modernist movement As the years went by Lowry's obsessive rewriting took him further and further into his book which changed relatively little in the outer semblance of action and main characters but became utterly transformed in texture from the thin and mediocre version of 1940 to the rich tapestry of 1947 The numerous manuscripts allow a look at the processes by which Lowry created not only his masterwork but also his own reputation as a modernist genius This study offers an extended examination of individual drafts as the novel slowly developed and in a final chapter an appraisal of the implications of Lowry's revisions for the book as published an appraisal that suggests bases for new readings of Under the Volcano Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space Richard J. Lane, Miguel Mota, 2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry's spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book's three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to Lowry's life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry's writing Published in English

Beautiful Shadow Andrew Wilson, 2008-12-07 The life of Patricia Highsmith was as secretive and unusual as that of many of the best known characters who people her peerlessly disturbing thrillers and short stories Yet even as her work has found new popularity in the last few years the life of this famously elusive writer has remained a mystery For Beautiful Shadow the first biography of Highsmith British journalist Andrew Wilson mined the vast archive of diaries notebooks and letters she left behind astonishing in their candor and detail He interviewed her closest friends and colleagues as well as some of her many lovers But Wilson also traces Highsmith's literary roots in the work of Poe noir and existentialism locating the influences that helped distinguish Highsmith's writing so startlingly from more ordinary thrillers The result is both a serious critical biography and one that reveals much about a brilliant and contradictory woman one who despite her acclaim and affairs always maintained her solitude Maritime Poetics Caroline Wiedmer, 2021-04-16 In the past fifty years port cities around the world have experienced considerable changes to their morphologies and their identities The increasing intensification of global networks and logistics and the resulting pressure on human societies and earthly environments have been characteristic of the rise of a planetary age This volume engages with contemporary artistic practices and critical poetics that trace an alternate construction of the imaginaries and aspirations of our present societies at the crossroads of sea and land taking into account complex pasts and interconnected histories transnational flux as well as material and immaterial borders Translocated Modernisms Emily Ballantyne, Marta Dvořák, Dean Irvine, 2016-10-04 Translocated Modernisms is a collection of ten chapters partitioned into sections and framed by an introduction by the editors and a coda by Kit Dobson which is interested in those who thronged to the vibrant streets cafés and salons of Montparnasse those who stayed such as Brion Gysin and Mavis Gallant those who returned home such as Morley Callaghan John Glassco David Silverberg and Sheila Watson and those who galvanized local cultural practices by appropriating and translating them from elsewhere While for some Paris becomes a permanent home for others it is simply a temporary excursion which can last for months or for many years The collection opens up the Lost Generation to include multiple generations and broadens its ambit to encompass modernist writers placed under erasure by dominant narratives of Anglo American modernism Instead of limiting the category to a single group based on a collective identity this volume considers lost generations as a particular type of modernist identity attributable to multiple and disparate collectivities These lost generations include those excluded from canonical narrativizations of expatriate modernisms among which we spy the glimmer of other modernists living in the shadows of luminaries long recognized in the Anglo American tradition Classical Hollywood, American Modernism Jordan Brower, 2024-01-18 Classical Hollywood American Modernism charts the entwined trajectories of the Hollywood studio system and literary modernism in the United States By examining the various ways Hollywood's industry practices inflected the imaginations of authors filmmakers and studios Jordan Brower offers a new understanding of twentieth century American and ultimately world media culture Synthesizing archival research with innovative theoretical approaches this book tells the story of the studio system's genesis international dominance decline and continued symbolic relevance during the American postwar era through the literature it influenced It examines the American film industry's business practices and social conditions demonstrating how concepts like anticipated adaptation corporate authorship systemic development and global distribution inflected the form of some of the greatest works of prose fiction and nonfiction by modernist writers such as Anita Loos F Scott Fitzgerald William Faulkner Patsy Ruth Miller Nathanael West Parker Tyler Malcolm Lowry and James Baldwin The Way That Leads Among the Lost Angela Garcia, 2024-04-30 Based on over a decade of research a powerful moving work of narrative nonfiction that illuminates the little known world of the anexos of Mexico City the informal addiction treatment centers where mothers send their children to escape the violence of the drug war The Way That Leads Among the Lost reveals a hidden place where care and violence are impossible to separate the anexos of Mexico City The prizewinning anthropologist Angela Garcia takes us deep into the world of these small rooms informal treatment centers for alcoholism addiction and mental illness spread across Mexico City's tenements and reaching into the United States Run and inhabited by Mexico's most marginalized populations they are controversial for their illegality and their use of coercion Yet for many Mexican families desperate to keep their loved ones safe these rooms offer something of a refuge from what lies beyond them the intensifying violence surrounding the drug war This is the first book ever written on the anexos Garcia who spent a decade conducting anthropological fieldwork in Mexico City draws readers into their many dimensions casting light on the mothers and their children who are entangled in this hidden world Following the stories of its denizens she asks what these places are why they exist and what they reflect about Mexico and the wider world With extraordinary empathy and a sharp eye for detail Garcia attends to the lives that the anexos both sustain and erode wrestling with the question of why mothers turn to them as a site of refuge even as they reproduce violence Woven into these portraits is Garcia s own powerful story of family childhood homelessness and drugs a blend of ethnography and memoir converging on a set of fundamental questions about the many forms and meanings that violence love care family and hope may take Infused with profound ethnographic richness and moral urgency The Way That Leads Among the Lost is a stunning work of narrative nonfiction a book that will leave a deep mark on readers

Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre,2016-11-14 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism

The War Against Cliche Martin Amis,2014-09-17 NATIONAL BOOK CRITICS CIRCLE AWARD WINNER In this virtuosic career spanning collection Martin Amis one of the most gifted novelists of his generation TIME takes on James Joyce and Elvis Presley Nabokov and English football Jane Austen and Penthouse Forum William Burroughs and Hillary Clinton and more Written with intelligence and ardor and panache Speaks not just to a lifetime of reading but also to a fascination with individual writers The New York Times Here Amis serves up fresh assessments of the classics and plucks neglected masterpieces off their dusty shelves Above all Amis is concerned with literature and with the deadly cliches not only of the pen but of the mind and the heart He tilts with Cervantes Dickens and Milton celebrates Bellow Updike and Elmore Leonard and deflates some of the most bloated reputations of the past three decades On every page Amis writes with jaw dropping felicity wit and a subversive brilliance that sheds new light on everything he touches

Into the Heart of the Fire James K. Hopkins,1998 This book examines the experience of the British volunteers in the Spanish Civil War and places them in a broad intellectual political social and cultural framework

Many Wests David M. Wrobel,Michael C. Steiner,1997 What does it mean to live in the West today Do people tend to identify with states with regions or with the larger West This book examines the development of regional identity in the American West demonstrating that it is a regionally diverse entity made up of many different wests Great Plains Southwest Rocky Mountains and more in which American regionalism finds its fullest expression These fourteen original essays tell how a sense of place emerged among residents of various regions and how a sense of those places was developed by people outside of them Wrobel and Steiner first offer a compelling overview of the West s regional nature then thirteen other rising or renowned scholars from history American Studies geography and literature tell how regional consciousness formed among inhabitants of particular regions All of the essays address the larger issue of the centrality of place in determining social and cultural forms and individual and collective identities Some focus on race and culture as the primary influences on regional consciousness while others emphasize environmental and economic factors or the influence of literature Some even examine western regionalism in areas that lie beyond the West as it has traditionally been conceived Each of the contributors believes that where a people live helps determine what they are and they write not only about the many wests within the larger West but also about the constant state of flux in which regionalism exists Many books speak of the West as a place but few others deal with the West s different places Many Wests presents a vision of the West that reflects both the common heritage and unique character of each major subregion building on the revisionist impulse of the last decade to help redirect New Western History toward an appreciation of regional diversity and integrate scholarship in the regional subfields It is a book for everyone who lives in studies or loves the West for it confirms that it is home to very different peoples economies histories and regions

The Dedalus Book of Literary Suicides Gary Lachman, 2024-05-20 Lachman s goal to write a book on writers who had killed themselves or had tried to or had written about suicide at some length or depth would be immense To qualify the author requires the suicide to be in some way interesting Thus we have the philosopher Philipp Mainlander who killed himself because of the second law of thermodynamics Zeno who purportedly hanged himself after stubbing his toe on a turtle and Yukio Mishima s sensational and bloody hara kiri performance Suicides are arranged by type Existential suicides brought on by metaphysical issues emotionally rich Romantic suicides political suicides manic depressive mortal coil shuffling a la Sylvia Plath and the bizarre and often nonchalant suicides of many Surrealists Lachman focuses on little known or forgotten characters such as Polish avant garde figure Witkacy Thomas Chatterton the original tragic Romantic genius narcissistic publisher Harry Crosby and the tormented Austrian poet Georg Trakl The second part of Dead Letters is a selection of writings about suicide whose real value lies in Lachman s research and his knack of smoothly relating obscure biographical tidbits and philosophical ideas This work on a grim subject never becomes overly morbid and Lachman remains respectful of his troubled subjects Suicide is not recommended but this volume surely is Splendid summary of self destruction Mike Pursley in Fortean Times

Lives of the Novelists John Sutherland, 2012-03-27 No previous author has attempted a book such as this a complete history of novels written in the English language from the genre's seventeenth century origins to the present day In the spirit of Dr Johnson's Lives of the Poets acclaimed critic and scholar John Sutherland selects 294 writers whose works illustrate the best of every kind of fiction from gothic penny dreadful and pornography to fantasy romance and high literature Each author was chosen Professor Sutherland explains because his or her books are well worth reading and are likely to remain so for at least another century Sutherland presents these authors in chronological order in each case deftly combining a lively and informative biographical sketch with an opinionated assessment of the writer's work Taken together these novelists provide both a history of the novel and a guide to its rich variety Always entertaining and sometimes shocking Sutherland considers writers as diverse as Daniel Defoe Henry James James Joyce Edgar Allan Poe Virginia Woolf Michael Crichton Jeffrey Archer and Jacqueline Susann Written for all lovers of fiction Lives of the Novelists succeeds both as introduction and re introduction as Sutherland presents favorite and familiar novelists in new ways and transforms the less favored and less familiar through his relentlessly fascinating readings
