Riding The Demon On The Road In West Africa:

Riding the Demon Peter Chilson, 2015-03-15 In Niger where access to rail and air travel requires overcoming many obstacles roads are the nation's lifeline For a year in the early 1990s Peter Chilson traveled this desert country by automobile to experience West African road culture He crisscrossed the same roads again and again with bush taxi driver Issoufou Garba in order to learn one driver's story inside and out He hitchhiked riding in cotton trucks and traveled with other bush taxi drivers truckers road engineers an anthropologist Niger's only licensed woman commercial driver and a customs officer The road in Africa says Chilson is more than a direction or a path to take Once you've booked passage and taken your seat the road becomes the center of your life Hurling along at eighty miles an hour in a bush taxi equipped with bald tires no windows and sometimes no doors travelers realize that they've surrendered everything Chilson uses the road not to reinforce Africa's worn image of decay and corruption but to reveal how people endure political and economic chaos poverty and disease The road has reflected the struggle for survival in Niger since the first automobile arrived there and it remains a useful metaphor for the fight for stability and prosperity across Africa

Riding the Demon Peter Chilson, 1999 On African roads car wrecks are as common as mile markers and the wreckage can stand in monument for months or years a minibus upended against a tree as if attempting escape a charred truck overturned in a ditch Chilson uses the road not to reinforce the worn image of Africa's decay but to reveal how people endure political and economic chaos poverty and disease

Riding the Demon Peter Chilson, 2015 For a year in the early 1990s Peter Chilson traveled across Niger by automobile to experience West African road culture In this compelling story he uses the road not to reinforce Africa's worn image of decay and corruption but to reveal how people endure political and economic chaos poverty and disease

Pacific Automobilism Gijs Mom, 2022-09-13 The beginning of the 21st century has seen important shifts in mobility cultures around the world as the West's media-driven car culture has contrasted with existing local mobilities from rickshaws in India and minibuses in Africa to cycling in China In this expansive volume historian Gijs Mom explores how contemporary mobility has been impacted by social political and economic forces on a global scale as in light of local mobility cultures the car as an adventure machine seems to lose cultural influence in favor of the car's status character

Near Death in the Desert Cecil Kuhne, 2011-06-08 A travel anthology that gathers the best adventure stories from the world's most barren landscapes Ranging from 19th century explorers to modern day journalists these desert trekkers deal with everything from deserting men corrupt armed soldiers and Nigerian bush taxis to suspicious natives stubborn camels and debilitating sunburn These thirteen tales are more than suspenseful they also show how life can survive in the most punishing climates The night was heavy with foreboding The rain which had been spitting down on us during the late afternoon grew heavier It hurled into our faces borne by a wind that was now gusting between the dunes at full force It was the worst storm we had encountered and Ned was out in it alone Justin Marozzi South from Barbary Also featuring Robyn Davidson's Desert Places Robyn Davidson

Abroad Peter Chilson, Joanne B. Mulcahy, 2017-10-13 Tell me all about your trip It's a request that follows travelers as they head out into the world and one of the first things they hear when they return When we leave our homes to explore the wider world we feel compelled to capture the experiences and bring the story home But for those who don't think of themselves as writers putting experiences into words can be more stressful than inspirational Writing Abroad is meant for travelers of all backgrounds and writing levels a student embarking on overseas study a retiree realizing a dream of seeing China a Peace Corps worker in Kenya All can benefit from documenting their adventures whether on paper or online Through practical advice and adaptable exercises this guide will help travelers hone their observational skills conduct research and interviews choose an appropriate literary form and incorporate photos and videos into their writing Writing about travel is more than just safeguarding memories it can transform experiences and tease out new realizations With Writing Abroad travelers will be able to deepen their understanding of other cultures and write about that new awareness in clear and vivid prose

Postcolonial Automobility Lindsey B. Green-Simms, 2017-10-24 For more than a century cars have symbolized autonomous unfettered mobility and an increasingly global experience And yet they are often used differently outside the centers of global capitalism This pioneering book considers how through the lens of the automobile we can assess the pleasures dangers and limits of global modernity in West Africa Through new and provocative readings of famous plays novels and films as well as recent popular videos Postcolonial Automobility reveals the surprising ways in which automobility in the region is at once an everyday practice an ethos a fantasy of autonomy and an affective activity intimately tied to modern social life Lindsey B Green Simms begins with the history of motorization in West Africa from the colonial era to the decolonizing decades after World War II and addresses the tragedy of car accidents through a close reading of Wole Soyinka's 1965 postindependence play The Road Shifting to screen media she discusses Ousmane Sembene's Xala and Jean Pierre Bekolo's Quartier Mozart and reviews popular low budget Nollywood films Finally Green Simms considers how feminist texts rewrite and work in dialogue with the male centered films and novels where the car stands in for patriarchal power and capitalist achievement Providing a unique perspective on technology in Africa one refusing to be confined to narratives of either underdevelopment or inevitable progress and covering a broad range of interdisciplinary material Postcolonial Automobility will appeal not only to scholars and students of African literature and cinema but also to those in postcolonial and globalization studies

African, American David Peterson del Mar, 2017-06-15 Africa has long gripped the American imagination From the Edenic wilderness of Edgar Rice Burroughs's Tarzan novels to the black Zion of Garvey's Back to Africa movement all manner of Americans whether white or black male or female have come to see Africa as an idealized stage on which they can fashion new more authentic selves In this remarkable panoramic work David Peterson del Mar explores the ways in which American fantasies of Africa have evolved over time as well as the role of Africans themselves in subverting American attitudes to their continent Spanning seven decades from the post war period to the present day and encompassing sources ranging from literature film and music to accounts by missionaries aid workers and travel writers African American is a fascinating deconstruction of Africa as it exists in the American mindset

The Fine Art of Literary Fist-Fighting Lee Gutkind, 2024-01-01 An account of the emergence of creative nonfiction written by the godfather of the genre When Gutkind stops to look back on his own evolving perspective and reflects upon his writing career the choices he made he puts himself and us right back in the moment and the results are vivid ambiguous emotionally resonant fascinating Lucas Mann Washington Post In the 1970s Lee Gutkind a leather clad hippie motorcyclist and former public relations writer fought his way into the academy Then he took on his colleagues His goal to make creative nonfiction an accepted academic discipline one as vital as poetry drama and fiction In this book Gutkind tells the true story of how creative nonfiction became a leading genre for both readers and writers Creative nonfiction true stories enriched by relevant ideas insights and intimacies offered liberation to writers allowing them to push their work in freewheeling directions The genre also opened doors to outsiders doctors lawyers construction workers who felt they had stories to tell about their lives and experiences Gutkind documents the evolution of the genre discussing the lives and work of such practitioners as Joan Didion Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer James Baldwin Zora Neale Hurston Rachel Carson Upton Sinclair Janet Malcolm and Vivian Gornick Gutkind also highlights the ethics of writing creative nonfiction including how writers handle the distinctions between fact and fiction Gutkind's book narrates the story not just of a genre but of the person who brought it to the forefront of the literary and journalistic world
